HOW

By ANDREW PINKERTON

You know that the value of any property depends upon the details of construction and the consequent service it provides. If you are building-or purchasing a store or home, you want to know that among other things, the roofing and the sanitary arrangements are perfect. Most men would -and all should-give equal consideration to the flooring.

Flooring qualities vary-and have a great influence upon the ultimate convenience and value to the owner.

But Hardwood Flooring Is Different

In any home, office or store-whether under construction or already built-hardwood floors can easily, quickly and economically be installed.

Once laid they "5TAY PUT," because they are proof against the elements that warp, erack or split ORDINARY wood. You will be surprised at their durability, notwith-standing the HARDEST wear and tear. This is vital where cost of upkeep and re-pairs are considered.

And obviously they minimize the har-boring of dirt and dust and—therefore household pests.

More, hardwood is the most easily kept clean of all woods. Any one can quickly sweep, mop or polish it.

Do you wonder at the enormous and increasing popularity of hardwood floors for every building purpose?

IN THE HOME hardwood means greater beauty. It is adaptable to any scheme of decoration and may be laid in many differ-ent artistic patterns. It places an added value and convenience on your home, be-cause it enables you 'to quickly convert your room into an attractive dance hall.

It is sanitary-particularly in summer when rugs are undesirable. It is durable and best withstands the scuffle and pounding of little children's feet and constantly moved

THESE QUALITIES MINIMIZE DEPRE-CIATION OF PROPERTY VALUE AND MAKE HARDWOOD A PROFITABLE IN-VESTMENT.
