

ILLUSTRATED

Evening Ledger

FRIDAY
June 9, 1916

SIDELIGHTS ON THE CHICAGO CONVENTION AND VARIOUS PERSONS FIGURING IN THE NEWS

Photo by International Film Service.
W. R. HEARST IS THERE WITH EDITOR ARTHUR BRISBANE
They are strolling along Michigan avenue with Mrs. Hearst between them. The picture reveals the bulbous quality of Mr. Brisbane's famous forehead.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
NOTHING TWIN-LIKE ABOUT PENNSYLVANIA'S SENATORS
When Mr. Penrose and Mr. Oliver are seen walking together it is never difficult to say which is which, even from a great distance.

Photo by International Film Service.
PITTSBURGH IS REPRESENTED AT CHICAGO IN FORCE
Left to right are "Ed" Frierberthaser, S. C. Jammison, Senator Charles A. Kline, of Pennsylvania, and Mayor Armstrong, of the Smoky City.

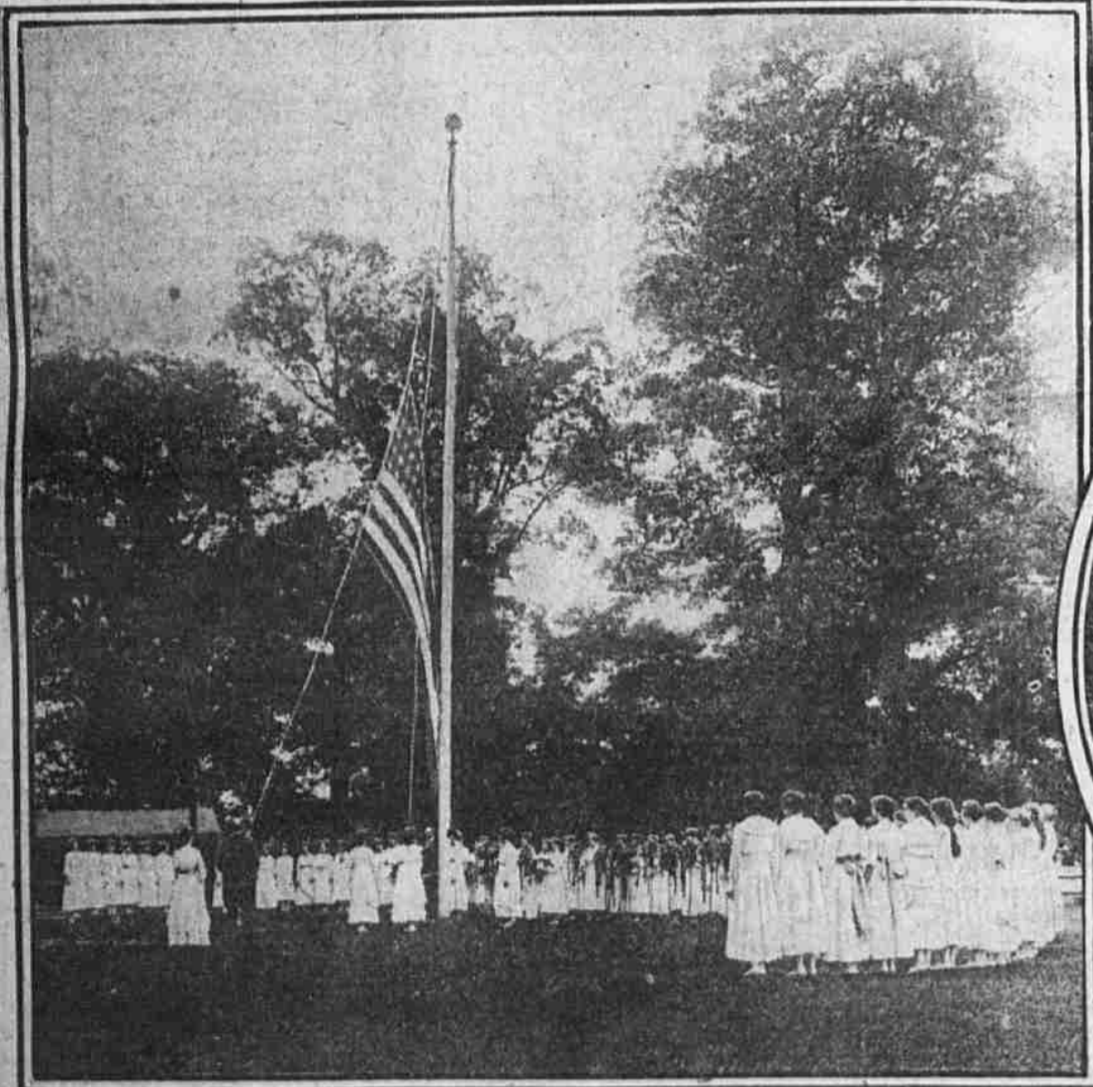

Photo by Buck, from Underwood & Underwood.
JUSTICE HUGHES ATTENDING THE FLAG RAISING AT THE CATHEDRAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
On this occasion the Justice made his speech about the American flag, which some persons say was the one thing needed to bring him the nomination.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
TWO OF THE PILLARS IN THE WOMAN'S PARTY
Mrs. Sarah Baird Field and Mrs. Ella Riegle, of Pennsylvania, are two of the most active suffragists in putting up their question to the Chicago delegates.

ROOKIES GETTING RIFLE PRACTICE ON THE RANGE AT ESSINGTON
Members of the Third Regiment, National Guard, Pennsylvania, are utilizing this method of getting their eyes in trim in preparation for the mimic battle on Belmont Plateau tomorrow.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
MEXICO CITY HAS A STREET CAR STRIKE TO ADD TO OTHER EXCITEMENTS
Showing that the incidents attending "industrial development" are the same in all countries. Here strikers are holding up a car near Alameda Park in the capital.

NEW UNIFORM FOR POST-OFFICE WATCHMEN
Showing a Teutonic influence, with its Crown Prince cap. Watchman Frank J. Thomas was one of the first to wear it.

Photo by International Film Service.
FIRST JURY COMPOSED OF WOMEN TRIES MEXICAN BANDITS
They pronounced four men guilty of highway robbery in Superior Court at San Diego, Cal. Legal authorities assert this is the first completely feminine jury ever sitting in a felony case in this country.