PENNSYLVANIANS PUSH HARMONY

Entire Party United Behind | Few Recognize Nominee as Woodrow Wilson for a Second Term

"HE WILL EAT THEM UP"

By EDMUND C. TAYLOR

Evening Ledger Staff Correspondent ST. LOUIS, June 12 .- The Pennsylvania Democrats, sounding the keynote of harony that will prevail at the convention that will nominate Woodrow Wilson for a econd term as President of the United States, will arrive in St. Louis at 1:35 o'clock this afternoon.

On board will be former Old Guard leaders and sons of former Old Guard leaders, who have fought the present Democratic leadership in Pennsylvania to a standstill.

"Joe" Guffey, son of Colonel Guffey, of Pittsburgh, and William J. Brennen, of Pittsburgh, will be among the Old Guard leaders who will step from the special train at the Union Station. On the same train will be A. Mitchell Palmer, National Com-mitteeman from Pennsylvania and other mitteeman from Pennsylvania, and other reorganizers to whom Guffey and Brennen have sworn allegiance in the presidential right this year.

The Pennsylvania delegation, according to national Democratic leaders already gathered here, will sound and reflect the harmony that will pervade the convention. The entire party will be united behind Woodrow Wilson for a second term, and the only flare-ups that are expected will come from the contest for the Vice Presidential pomination and the intertion of the dential nomination and the injection of the osition of William Jennings Bryan into deliberations of the convention. "Tom" Taggart, of Indiana, who is engineering the campaign of "Tim" Suillivan for the Vice Presidential nomination against Mar-shall, arrived here last night and immediately got busy among the national leaders and committeemen already on the job.

The Pennsylvania delegation will stop at the Delway and the Plaza Hotels, uptown. Their headquarters will be at the Plaza, which is the only temperance hotel in St.

The first Pennsylvania delegate arrived last night. He arrived just in time to confidently predict the defeat of Hughes next November. "Wilson will eat him up," he

The delegate was Colonel W. M. Fairman of Punsulawney. He has attended national conventions for the last 30 years, and said today that this convention looks more like armony than any he had attended. Word is being whispered aroung as the delegates that an organized effort should be made to bring about a union be-tween the Democrats and the disgruntled Progressives, as the result of Colonel Roosevelt's message of last Friday.

Pennsylvania suffragists, flushed by their victories at Chicago, arrived here last night, ready to fight for a suffrage plank in the ratic platform.

HUGHES OUT, BRANDEIS GETS NEW COURT SEAT

Arrangement Shifted in Tribunal Following Resignation of Candidate

WASHINGTON, June 12 .- When the Supreme Court met today for its last decision day, there was a general rearrangement of the seating of the Justices, due to the resignation of Charles Evans Hughes. resignation of Charles Evans Hughes.

Justice Vandevanter took the chair formerly occupied by Hughes; Justice Brandels, who occupied the chair at the extreme left of the Chief Justice for one brief day, was moved to the extreme right of Chief Justice White into the seat formerly held by Justice McHeynolds.

The "moving up" of Justice Brandels his second day on the bench is said to be a court. The court assigned Justice Brandels to preside over the second Justice Brandels. arbitrarily refused to let the children visit me even temporarily."

In another part of his answer to his wife's accusations, Mr. Welsh states that his net yearly income is about $112,000.

Again Mr. Welsh says:

"This action for divorce against me has been brought through unfounded jealousy and the name of an innocent young woman has been needlessly dragged into it. "The sworn answer filed dealed any improper relations with her.

public as politics demanded.

Recently the Colonel has risden ahead and she behind. Today they rode side by side. Roosevelt did not appear very talkative. He declined to see reporters. According to a story given out today, the ex-President would have accepted the Bull Moose nomination but for an earnest appeal made to him by his wife.

MAN BURNS TO DEATH IN PAINT PLANT FIRE

Another Believed Dead in Spectacular Blaze at George D. Wetherill Works

One man was burned to death, and it is believed that another lost his life in a spectacular fire which early today destroyed the whiting plant of the George O. Wetherill Paint Works at Harold and Moyer streets. The body taken from the ruins was identified as that of William Farren, 2349 Harold street. The eyeglasses of David Gordon, of Tulip and Somerset streets, were found, and the supposition is that he also perished in the flames. Both men, according to the police, often slept in the paint works.

Policeman McHughes, of the Trenton avenue and Dauphin street station, and Captain John Clyde, of the Insurance Patrol, rescued 15 horses from the stable of the paint works. Captain Clyde was painfully injured when one of the horses stepped of his right foot, crushing it. He was taken to the Episcopal Hospital. One fireman was injured last night when flames swept the three-story warehouse and dwelling of Morris Saffean, at Darien and Ritner streets, causing a loss estimated of should $1500.

The fireman injured was Robert Duane, of the 16th and Wharton streets station. His face and hands were cut by glass in breaking his way through a second-story window. Suffean was a dealer in paper, bugs, twine and other commodities.

KEPT COUNTRY AT PEACE, PLEA OF DEMOCRATS

No Party Has Monopoly on Patriotism, Also Campaign Slogan

'NO NEED OF APOLOGIES"

Convention Will Line Up Behind Every Step President Wilson Has Taken

By JOHN EDWIN NEVIN

ST. LOUIS, June 12 .- "No party has a nonopoly on patriotism!

"The Democracy has kept the nation out of war. It should be retained in power!" These are the twin slogans for the com-ng national campaign. The vanguard of the Democratic hosts who plan to renominate President Wilson was streaming into St. Louis today. The national committeemen from the East have made it plain to their colleagues from the West and South that the nomination of Justice Hughes means that the party will have to keep a solid front and be ready for a much more carefully planned line of attack than was confronted four years ago. These committeemen continue to express confidence that Colonel Roosevelt will maintain his position of refusing to run at the head of the Progressive ticket even though he shall eventually decids not to support the candidacy of Justice Hughes.

So far as the suffrage and prohibition questions are concerned the Resolutions Committee will permit lengthy hearings on them, and will try to get the unanimous agreement from the committee. About the only ray of hope that the Democratic leaders could see for something coming up which would give them a fight was that never before in the past records of the party have so many Democrats gotten together under one roof without starting
