Barge Party Will Be Given Tonight Followed by a Supper at the "Lilacs" for Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Penrose—Other Affairs

DELIGHTFUL party will be given J., where they will occupy their cottage A this evening by Mr. and Mrs. Dave Chew for Sarah Penrose. The guests will meet at the University Barge Club, and will row up the river to the "Lilacs," the clubhouse of that association, where supper will be served, and those of us who have ever been to the "Lilaca" know what a good time every one will

There is always something very attractive about a barge party; they are so informal and picturesque. The men's gally colored blouses give a brilliant background to the white-frocked girls as the barge glides up the river. Among the guests in the party tonight will be Miss Mary Wurts, Miss Isabel Page, Miss Valentine Mitchell, Miss Marjory Taylor, Miss Hannah Wright and Miss Elizabeth Miller, who will be a debutante next year, and, in fact, is the first one to make her formal bow, as she was introduced at a tea more than a week ago by her parents. Then the men will be Sam Morris, Dick Tilghman, Ned Law, Charlie Mc-Keehan, Harry Beylard, Montgomery Harris, Philippus Miller, Jr., and young Dave Chew, which by no means implies that his father is old Dave Chew, as the use of "young" might seem.

Another party tonight will be the dinner which Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Harrison will give at their Villanova home in honor of Elizabeth Griffiths and Neddy Page, whose engagement, you will remember, was announced just before Lent. Elizabeth is most attractive, and all the girls have declared that Neddy is a "winner" beyond doubt. No date has been set yet for their wedding, but a wee bird whispered it will be in the near future.

Hahnemann Hospital will be the beneficiary of the colorful Fete of Nations, to be given tomorrow at Latham Park, on the Elkins estate, Old York road and City Line, under the auspices of the hospital's board of women managers. Motor ambulances have brought Hahnemann within 30 minutes of virtually every part of the city, and made necessary increased effort on the part of the hospital authorities to meet the widening scope of the institution.

Gay costumes of every clime, colored lanterns and attractively decorated booths will form a rich background for the carnival of charity. 'The booths will be in charge of public-spirited women who are prominent in social and charitable affairs. The Japanese booth and gardens will be decorated in all the tints and hues of the land of the cherry blossoms and will be the dispensing point for tea and refreshments. The gardens will be in charge of Mrs. Jay Gates, Mrs. Bernard Wolff and Mrs. William P. Scott. Mrs. Biddle Marsden and Mrs. George C. Thomas Jr., will attend to the arrangements for the supper, which is to be served on the lawn from 6 to 8 o'clock.

The assistants at the Japanese booth will be Miss Helen Scott, Mrs. G. Harlan Wells, Mrs. N. A. Webster, Mrs. Gene S. Hocker, Betty Smith, Edith Gillingham, Christine Rehn and Frances Omerly.

The program of entertainment has been University of Pennsylvania athletes, Michael Dorizas, who has three times won the intercollegiate wresthe pentathlon champion and allround athlete, will give an exhibi-from State College, Pa. SUN IS GREETED JOYOUSLY AT SHORE

Rainy Week-end Made Things Slow at Famous Resort

ATLANTIC CITY, June 13 .- Jupiter Pluvius has been holding the resort in his toils for so many days that hostesses who were planning porch parties, yachting parties and various diversions at the country clubs are now dubbing their festive occasions "rainy-day parties," and the alogan of the moment is. 'Won't you come spend a shower with me?' The rainy days are responsible for miles of knitting and bandages for the sol-diers. Down Chelsea way the matrons and maids are busy making fancy and useful articles for the annual fair held every July for the benefit of All Saints' Church.

Continuous rain for more than a week rather dampened the arder of the over-Sunday crowd, which was not nearly as oyous or as numerous as usual, and there was a marked absence of motor parties and informal luncheons.

Miss D. L. Morton came down to Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Morton, who are at the Strand. Miss Catherine Pugh joined her mother, irs. J. T. Pugh, at Haddon Hall and both notored to their home in Swarthmore Sunlay afternoon.
