

ILLUSTRATED

Evening Ledger

WEDNESDAY
June 14, 1916

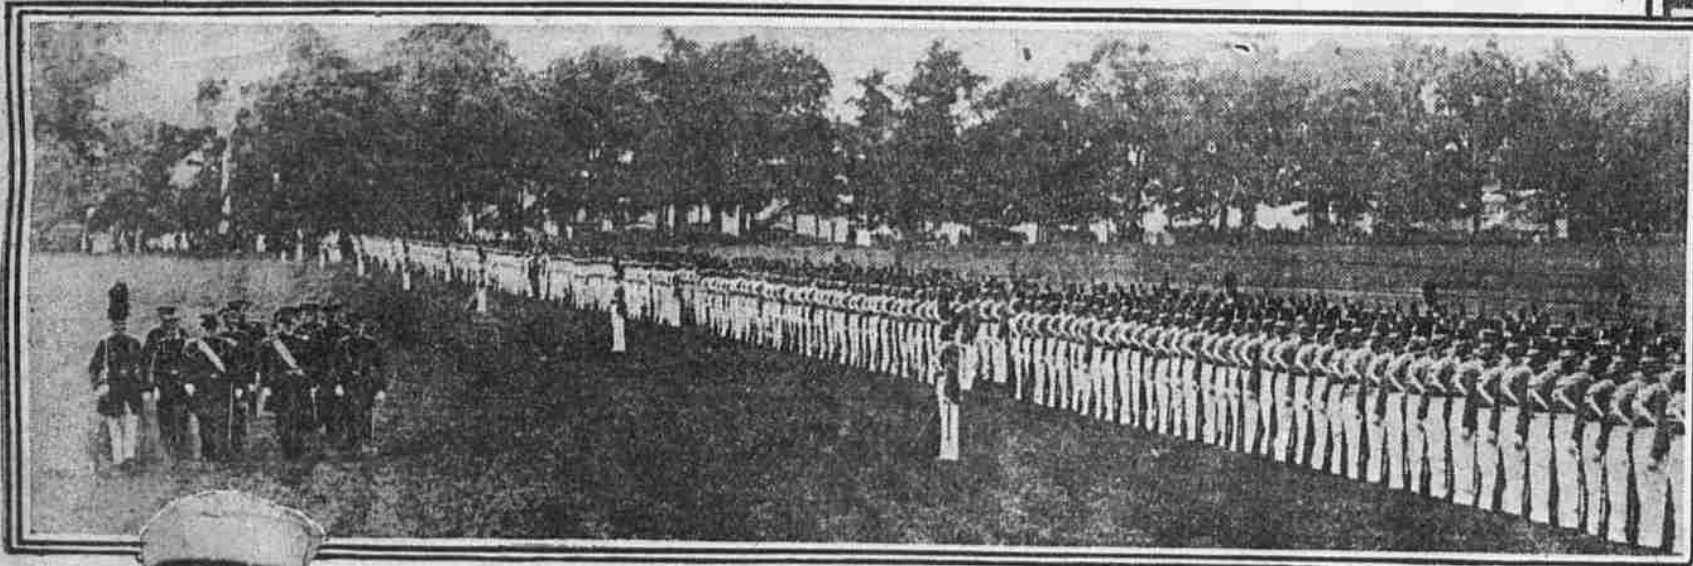

GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA

HOW MANY OF THEM CAN YOU NAME?

Photo by Clinedinst.

This is the latest photograph of President Wilson and his Cabinet in session. A recent test showed that not one citizen in ten can name the heads of the various Government departments. Try your hand at it.

GEN. HUGH L. SCOTT AND OTHER ARMY HEADS REVIEW WEST POINT GRADUATES

Photo by International Film Service.

AMERICAN AVIATORS OF THE FRENCH ARMY AT THEIR HEADQUARTERS IN EASTERN FRANCE. On the extreme left is Kiffin Rockwell. Next is William Thaw. In the peaked cap is Norman Prince, with Elliott Cowdin standing by his side. In the foreground, in the dark uniform, is Bert Hall. They have all seen active service recently at Verdun.

13-YEAR-OLD BOY BUILDS HIS OWN BATTLESHIP

Photo by Staff Photographer.

John L. Evans, of the West Philadelphia High School freshman class, who appears here with his model, 4 feet long and 18 inches wide, built all by himself, including the electric apparatus by which it is propelled.

TWO WEEKS AFTER "CLEAN-UP WEEK" THIS IS WHAT A STROLL REVEALS

Photo by Staff Photographer.

The oval picture to the left sets forth the present condition of 9th street south from Christian—a view of litter and lumber. Below is a view of Monroe street looking west from 4th—more dirt and debris. "Clean-up week," it seems, was all too short.