The Lawrence Dilworth Beggs Will Entertain Tonight at a Dinner Dance in Honor of Miss Hansell French Earle and Mr. Joseph M. Patterson, 2d

MONG the most prominent of this at Asbury Park, where they will spend the week's weddings will be that of Miss summer. usell French Earle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Earle, Jr., and Bud exterson, otherwise known as Joseph jurrell—not Morrell, as some seem to think-Patterson, 2d. Hansell will cornir make a stunnings bride. I think she is quite the prettiest of the five Earle girls. The whole family will participate wedding procession, so you will admit it will be worth seeing. Father mas Delihant, S. J., will come up from numore to perform the cermony. I derstand he is a great personal friend

The half-hour shower out at Latham Park yesterday, though it dampened the ground and the booths considerably, falled to dampen the arder of the char-Itable women who had worked for many days to aid the Hahnemann Hospital fete. The sun came out after the sprinkle with much glory and the people arrived in crowds to buy and look bout at one of the prettiest outdoor affairs given this year.

such fun as the kiddles had on the reller coaster, which, by the way, was donated, as well as many of the other things which were offered for the enjoyment of the onlooker and partaker.

Every booth had the colors of some nation draped over the top and about the counters. The fete was strictly neutral-Italy and Germany were side by side, and Austria and France appeared most priendly, while on the other side of Germany was England.

The pupils of Professor Newman canced at stated times during the afternoon. They were dressed as Indians, fairies, courtiers, and old-fashioned Dolly Varden gowns were worn by several. The McFarland girls were there in their stunning Chinese costumes, and there was one Roman peasant costume which was beautiful beyond words.

Great credit should be given to the women who got up the fair, for it was most wonderfully conducted; the admission was only 25 cents and many of the entertainments were given with no extra expenditure. Of course, the athletics drew the crowds, and Mr. Beam, with his megaphone and great capacity for enjoyment in the very fact that he is living, was as funny as only he can be. He seems to have the art of spreading laughter and happiness about him. He ounced what each stunt was to be, and Mr. Dorizas and Mr. Berry then acted upon the announcement.

There was very excellent music, and 19ur allhouette was cut out for you while you waited, and it was a good likeness, Everything was done to make every one have a good time and they did. NANCY WYNNE.

LOGAN MATRON WILL GIVE SUFFRAGE CARD PARTY TODAY

Mrs. Wolstan Dixey Is Entertaining at Her Home on North Broad Street This Afternoon for Benefit of Logan Division of Woman Suffrage Party

MRS. WOLSTAN DIXEY, of 5224 North Broad street, gave a card party of 25 tables this affernoon for the benefit of the Logan division of the Woman Suffrage party. A special feature in the way of entertainment was the conduct of a presidential election. The candidate was a large doll dressed in suffrage colors.
Every guest was asked to pay a poll tax, which entitled her to a vote and the right to guess the candidate's number, which was pinned upon his breast by a "Votes for Woman" button. The name of the doll was determined by the majority vote. The proceeds of this affair are to be devoted in part to the purchase of a handsome American flag for the Logan division. Mrs. Dixey is leader of the division division. Mrs. Dixey is leader of the division division. Mrs. Dixey is leader of t sion and also chairman of the Finance Com-mittee for the Woman Suffrage party of Philadelphia. "We are trying to develop a strong spirit of patriotism within our or-ganization," she said. "Women suffragists are not militarists, but they are true pa-triots and will stand by the flag. They will work for Americanism and for the most lofty purposes in the life of the nation. This is to be, in a certain sense, a Flag Day party."
