The girls who are members the Christian Association will appear a number of folk dances, and little anh Seiberling, who dances so exquiwith, will do a solo dance entitled "Joy." mbers of the Philadelphia and Gerzatown associations will take part in satertainment, which will commence at $10 o'clock this afternoon.

Bollday House, like many another untry home, has been a great boon to the girls, who can go there for a week at stime and for a small sum enjoy the rest and quiet of the country. The idea and much of the support of the home was given by Mrs. Henry Edward Drayton, the has lived at Penllyn much of her 10. A great many persons are interin this affair and surely the Main Line receipts will go up this day, for with Afberta Brinton and Mr. Stumals wedding at Overbrook and Bud Patterson and Hansell Earle's marriage arther up the line at Bryn Mawr, as well as the fete, there will be some traveling

The art students are greatly excited per John F. Lewis' offer of prizes to two among them who will submit the est sketches of the beautiful and colorful display at the Art Alliance Battle of Flowers, which will be held on next Friby afternoon and evening at the Phila-Siphia Country Club in Bala.

I really wonder where there will be com to hold all the booths, but of course three who have been first on the scene will have their pick and will get the best places, or rather positions. It will be one of the biggest affairs given for many a day. Music clubs, artists' clubs, dratic clubs, writers' clubs and every other kind of association along those lines will be very much on hand.

Mrs. Sydney Thayer is at the head of the Eurydice Club booth, and I hear this both will be arranged to represent a Greek temple in honor of the goddess. The colors employed will be king's blue and white. Flowers and candy are to be sold as well as other odds and ends. The best part of the affair is the interest which it arouses among the members of the various clubs that are to have booths. Each one wants his or her booth to be the best ever, so the efforts are most strenuous to get something colorful and new to sell or decorate with, and from all I hear each will succeed.

Not the least of the pleasures anticipated will be the "Academy Fling," which will be danced by art students, who will have very unusual and artistic costumes, a wee bird told me, but they are among the few who have guarded their secret on this matter with the utmost care, so we may not gues: what beauteous sight call burst upon us when that mad dance NANCY WYNNE.
