

NANCY WYNNE'S EVERYDAY CHAT ON MATTERS OF SOCIETY

Dinner and Dance for Pepper-Myers Wedding Party Will Be Given Tonight by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Neilson at Their St. David's Home

THE bridal party of the Pepper-Myers wedding, which, by the way, is to take place on Thursday, will be entertained to dinner, followed by a dance, at night at dinner, followed by a dance, at which there will be about forty additional guests, by the Lewis Neilsons at their country home, Cookin, in St. David's, Harry Neilson is to be one of young George Pepper's ushers, you know, and Sarah Neilson is a great friend of the Myers girls, so it is but natural that such a delightful entertainment should be given. Among the guests and members of the bridal party will go to the Neilsons tonight will be Elizabeth Myers, Margaretta Myers and Sarah Myers, Margaretta Myers, Eleanor Carpenter, Anne Lewis, Eleanor Pepper, Sarah Penrose, Elizabeth Griffith, Agnes Brodick, Edith Ellis, Theodora Lillie, Elizabeth Adams, Claire Spencer, Eleanor Vermer, Barbara Boyd, Molly Thayer, Jack Thayer, Lawrence Murdoch, John Meliga, 2d, whose engagement to Elizabeth Myers was announced last week; Steelman Diston, Louis Boris, Dick Hart, David Spooner, Caspar Townsend, Edward Harris, young Hayward and Charlie Myers, Clarence Freeman and Willard Spencer, Jr., Sarah Myers' engagement to Jacob Steelman Diston was announced recently also.

The Wharton Storks are giving a dinner tonight to the Edward Hoffman, Jr., at their home in Oak Lane. I understand the Hoffmans are going to spend the summer with Mrs. Hoffman's mother, Mrs. William Hedwood Wright, at Waldheim, her place in Logan. What a happy marriage theirs has been! In these days of so much unhappiness in marital relations it is a source of gratification to know how many are truly happy and would not for worlds take back their promises for better or for worse.

I could not think what had struck many of our smart girls on Saturday. I was waiting for a car at Broad and Chestnut streets about noon, and I saw no less than four of them dressed in khaki uniforms for all the world like "snuffers," with regular army hats and greenish-brown corded shirts. The hats were tied with fannels and had in brass letters 1 N. S. S. on the crowns. They wore leggings, too, and suddenly I realized that it was Navy Day, and, as one "trooper" had said to me before departing for the camp held several weeks ago in Cherry Chase, they were going down to the navy yard to "quarterize" the wounds of the "snuffers" in the terrible hand battle which took place there. Mind you, about twenty-four lady recruits were entitled to enter into the Red Cross tent and bind up and pour in oil on the wounds of the (nurses, who seemed to be wounded much more frequently than was necessary. By the way, 1 N. S. S. means First National Service School.

Molly Thayer was guest of honor at a luncheon and tennis tournament yesterday given by the Wharton Sinklers at their home in Elkins Park. Molly, as I have often said, is quite one of the most attractive of last year's buds and is extremely popular. The other guests, Gilly Ervin, Mr. and Mrs. Marmaduke Tilden, Elmer Hutchinson, Eleise Skinker, Mr. and Mrs. Fitz-Engene Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Elkins, Jr., Charlie Willing, Russell Thayer, Aleck Thayer and Dr. O. M. Perry Pepper.
