NANCY WYNNE TALKS OF THINGS WHICH ARE OF IMPORTANCE TODAY

The Call of the President for National Guard Will Leave Many a Wife and Sweetheart Sorrowing at Home, Anxious for News from the Border

Wifer the Call issued late Sunday night | don, Bryn Mawr, have returned from a visit to New York.

Mr. Stanley Hughes, of Lancaster avenue, spent the week-end in New York. esty have sone through the agonies of effive separation from loved ones and the exaltation of having some one to ges for home and country. Many there who now rejoice in the fact that they is spent so much time in preparing emergencies of this kind, which we est all fear now will be ours this week. e, my what you will, it looks like war, and though we have all been preparing to tol a foreign enemy in our minds the my near at hand has been for several ar a decided possibility and now seems actuality. In any case, even if there a no guns fired, it is no light matter send 145,000 men down to the Mexican bedere in the heat of this time of year, ed though women may be prepared in play ways for the work and sorrow to the very idea of war at our doors is berron beyond words.

Jost think of a few who will go at once his week to Mt. Gretna. In the 1st City Troop alone there are Franklin McFades. Billy Forbes, who married Daisy wright: George Thayer, the husband of see of the Wheelers; Jesse Williamson, M whose wife was Muriel Williams and sho has the dearest little children I have amost ever seen. Young Russell Thayer another trooper, also Flo Rivinus, Alec mayer and Keating Willcox.

Think also of Ben Tilghman, who is to sarry Eliza Fox next week. I guess pat ceremony will have to be hurried a Ht. It goes to show how sensible Eliza-Mth Carpenter and Evelyn Chew were set to wait until war was nearly upon us. There is no use of borrowing trouble and is can hope and pray that war with its estel sufferings may be averted. Still, the risk of the climate and the necessarily to pain, hard fare will be no special joy for our soldier boys in any case. Troop A will be called upon also and the 1st, 2d and 3d Regiments, of this city. Ben nighman, you know, is a lieutenant in Company D, 3d Regiment. Walter Hoptimen belongs to Troop A and there are many I can hardly remember them

I wonder if there will be a number of maggements announced, as they tell me bilt as friends which sometimes brings ratters to a climax which otherwise would never have matured, so easy is it to drift along.

When the little rookies were gaily vatching the sham battle at the Navy Tard on Saturday and disporting them selves afterward at the Bellevue-Stratford for dinner in their uniforms little did they think that soon there might be call for real service. Well, cheer up, girls, we'll hope for the best, and if our husbands and lovers and brothers have to go let us bid them godspeed and do our part with brave NANCY WYNNE.
