LITTLE GIRL'S HAIR CAUGHT BY SHAFT: SAVED BY WORKMEN Child's Scalp Almost Torn Off by Revolving Machinery SEAFORD, Det., June 20.—Mildred, the s-year-old daughter of Walter Johnson, was playing in the dental factory of her grand-tather yesterday when her hair became gaught in a revolving shaft. Seeing the perileus position of the child, Walter Holt, an employe, rushed forward and stopped the playe, grabbed the child. One side of the engine, while Dorman Outten, another em sealy was almost torn off and cut in several places. Dr. Everett Shipley was rushed to the scene and dressed the wounds. The child expected to recover.

IRA DANIEL BERTOLET DEAD

Member of Old Family, Trustee of Albright College

Ira Daniel Bertolet, business man, trustee of Albright College and member of an old Pennsylvania family, died of heart dis-ense yesterday at his home, 3546 North 18th ease yesterday at his home, 3546 North 18th street. He was in his 52d year.

Mr. Bertolet, who was president of the Andreykovics & Dunk Company, dealers in dyes-and chemicals, with offices at 58 North Front street, was stricken with heart disease while walking on Chestnut street last Thursday. He had recovered sufficiently to be able to attend services on Sunday at Christ's Unitarian Evangelical Church, 12th and Oxford streets. Yesterday, however, he had a relapse and his death followed.

He was a member of the old Bertolet

He was a member of the old Bertolet amily and was a descendant of Jean Bertolet, who settled in Bucks County in 1726. His father was Exra Rertolet, Mr. Berto-let was born in Weisport, Bucks County, and came to Philadalphia as a boy to enter the service of the company whose presi-dent and owner he later became.

He had been a resident of Tioga since 1894. He was a trustee of Albright Col-lege, director of the Perkasie Park Asso-ciation, president of the Westmoreland Building and Loan Association, of Tioga; member of the Union League, the Pennsyl-vania Historical Society and the Historimember of the Chindren member of the Also was prominent in Masonic circles and at the time, of his death was a member of the Richard Vaux Lodge, No. 384, F. and A. M. and Oriental Royal Arch Chapter, No. 183. He was also a member of the Royal Arcanum. He leaves a wife and two children.
