Interclub Tennis Tournament Has Been Occupying Many Persons' Time During the Week-Regular Ladies' Day Tea on Tuesday Great Success

THE pretty little clubhouse set aside for the women members at Manheim per a jolly little place on Tuesday, when the regular ladies' day tea was in progper together with the interclub tennis ament. Mrs. William Jay Turner Mrs. Mantle Fielding and Mrs. Harold atgomery Sill presided at the tea ables during the afternoon. Among those sticed on the porch were Mrs. Edward on, who looked very charming in a white flannel suit and purple straw hat. William P. Denegre had with her Mrs. C. M. La Tourette and Mrs. William ler. Mrs. Denegre also had a stunning age flannel suit topped by a green straw at trimmed with white flowers. The tooks were really lovely, so summery and fresh. Mrs. Charles Rogers were a heer white frock, pink sweater and pink

White georgette crepe was selected by Mrs. John Blakely, who also were a black mehair hat trimmed with a feather ser. Others who were sented at the were Mrs. Joseph Huston, Mrs. George Cameron, Mrs. Arthur Haines, Mrs. William R. Tucker, Mrs. Harry labriel, Mrs. Walter Perkins, Mrs. Edwin Partridge, Mrs. L. Bancroft Mellor. Mrs. Tolbert Richardson, Mrs. Stanley earson, Mrs. Henry Kellar Kurtz, Mrs. tervin Graham, Miss Daisy Tattersfield. Wiss Alice Hawkins and Mrs. C. B. Grace.

I was delighted to hear yesterday that the Supper Club at the Bellevue-Stratford will be continued next year. The two peries given last year were considered so essful that Mrs. J. Hutchinson Scott, who has been in charge of the club since is inception, has consented to get up series next year, and so popular sers the dances it has been decided, so Mrs. Scott tells me, to have 12 meetings is each series instead of 10, as last year. Mrs. Scott has procured the same committee of prominent men, and every one of us is looking forward to the many lessant after-theatre dances which we will be able to attend next season under er charming patronage, if we are lucky ough to be accepted as members.

It has been a series of good-byes yesterby and this morning, for our soldier boys have bidden us farewell and started off so the first stage of their journey to Mt. Gretna, at any rate, and our women are working hard arranging kits and supplies and comforts for them. Conyngham Stevens, of Rydal, is one of the lieutenants in the First City Troop who has been busily engaged drilling raw recruits for the hat few days, as quite a number have misted besides the regular members. Young George Harrison Frazier, Jr., the only son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harrison Frazier, went this morning. He was one of the last boys taken into the troop and has only been a member one week, as he is just 20 years old. This seems very hard does it not? But the boys do not feel that way; they are proud to fight for their country, God bless them. Young lack Thayer, son of the Titanic hero, who has just lately graduated from college, is nother boy who will go, and Neddy Page, to is engaged to Elizabeth Griffith, a Wa debutante of the last season, is one the State militiamen. And so they are I going off to camp, prepared or not, my to learn and anxious for the hardwhich will make great and strong men of them.

Just some of the other societies besides those I have already spoken of which will live booths at the Battle of Flowers togrow will be the Geographical Society, De Wednesday Music Club, the Browning Sciety, Academy of the Fine Arts Studuts, the Plastic Club, the Three Arts Cub the T-Square Club, the Dickens Felhaship, the Sketch Club and others also whose names I cannot remember.
