POLICE SEEK CORPORAL

Missing With Family

A. Rindfleich, Company 7, 2d Regiment,

A. Bindfielch, a corporal of Company G. 2d Regiment, is being sought by the police and a detail from his company. Rindfielch, who is a tailor, and lives at 1935 Norris street, has not been seen about that address since the first call to report for duty was leaved. He went to the ar-mory on Monday, reported for duty and was sent home to get his uniform. He did not return, and yesterday Captain William M. Rowland, of Company G. sent a detail to the Norris street house to place the recalcitant corporal under arrest. They reported that neither Rindfleich nor his family had been seen by neighbors since Monday. Captain Rowland then notified the police of the 20th and Berks streets station, sending out a detail of guardsmen as well. If Rindfleich is arrested to the policy of the contraction of ested he is liable to court-martial as a eserter. He has been a member of the company for nine years.

1200 Join Ranks of Garment Strikers NEW YORK, June 33.—Twelve hundred Italian workers in fadles' tailoring shops have voted to join the garment strikers. Women workers distributed 5000 sandwitches and 5000 glasses of milk to pickets. Jacob H. Schiff will address a mass-meeting in Carnegie Hall next Tuesday night in aid
