

FRENCH CRUSH DRIVE LAUNCHED BY TEUTONS ON CHAMPAGNE LINE

Hard Back Violent Attacks on 1200-Yard Front at Maison de Champagne and Mont Tetu

HOLD FIRM AT VERDUN

PARIS, June 23.—A powerful offensive movement has been launched by the Germans in Champagne, and three strong infantry attacks were directed last night on a 1200-yard front at Maison de Champagne and Mont Tetu.

The War Office stated today that all were repulsed.

Two attacks with grenades were delivered against the French positions at Hill 304, on the left bank of the Meuse River, but the official communiqué states that both were beaten back.

On both sides of the Meuse the Germans kept their big guns thundering all night, hurling a terrific storm of shells upon the French positions and the French batteries and against the French positions west and south of Verdun.

The communiqué spoke of the German bombardment as violent, a term not employed unless the cannonade rises to a particular pitch of shell-fire.

Military critics are divided as to what the new offensive in Champagne means. Some believe it is a preliminary move, made by the German batteries to draw the French forces away from Verdun; others think it is an attempt to break through.

The test of the communiqué follows:

In Belgium a destructive fire by our batteries wrecked the enemy's works in the region of the Dunes.

In Champagne, following a bombardment yesterday of our positions situated between the Meuse and the Marne, the Germans three times attacked our trenches on a front of 1200 yards. All the attacks were repulsed with grenades. Some small forces of the enemy, which, on their retreat, had succeeded in penetrating one of our advanced elements, were driven out by bayonets. Ten prisoners remained in our hands.

During the night several surprise attacks against our posts north of the Butte de Meunil were repulsed.

On the left bank of the Meuse the Germans renewed their attacks in the region of Hill 304. Two grenade attacks were checked by our machine-gun fire. During the night a sharp rifle fire was kept up at Avochert wood and at the Butte de Meunil. There was a violent bombardment in the sectors of Ennez and Chantonnay.

On the right bank there was considerable artillery activity along our entire front from the Meuse as far as Montville, particularly in the region of Verdun and south of Fort Vaux, where the enemy largely employed gaseous shells. At Eparges a feeble German attack was completely checked.

BERLIN, June 23.—The following official statement was issued by the War Office today:

East of Ypres the enemy made an unsuccessful attempt to attack. As a result of our patrol incursions in the regions of Lihon, Lasigny and Maldeghem de Champagne some dozens of prisoners and machine-guns were captured.

Three French attacks against the German positions had captured west of Fort Vaux were repulsed. Since Wednesday, in that district, we have captured 24 officers and 400 men.

DRY FOR LANCASTER GUARD

May Ask Saloons Not to Sell Liquor to Soldiers

LANCASTER, Pa., June 23.—A demonstration, equalling those of the Civil War period, has been arranged by patriotic and civic organizations for the farewell of Company K Saturday morning. The G. A. R., Sons of Veterans, National League and civic organizations will join in the parade with Mayor Trout leading. The city already is decorated with flags and the social spirit is running high.

Mayor Trout and Captain Lightner, of Company K, have requested the city saloons to refrain from selling the guardsmen liquor. Chief of Police Bushong has been instructed to see that the order is enforced. Fifteen more recruits were sworn in yesterday.

Mayor Trout was given the assurance yesterday by firms employing members of the local guard company that their positions will be open for them when they return.

RALLIED BY MOUTH-ORGANS

Highlanders Steadied at Critical Times by Humble Music

LONDON, June 23.—The London Gazette announces that the Distinguished Conduct Medal has been awarded to Company Quartermaster-Sergeant Beech and Lance Corporal Vickery, of the 7th Seaforth Highlanders, for rallying their comrades by means of music dispersed by the humble mouth-organ. The deed is thus officially described:

"At a critical moment they paraded the men by getting up on the parapet and playing tunes on mouth-organs, although exposed to heavy fire."

NOT TOO GAY for the reason that they were not too refined for the sprightly youngsters.

RARE indeed are they in the richness of their color and the distinctiveness of their patterns.

THE RUSSIAN ADVANCE

North of Lutsk, on the River Styr, the Germans claim they have checked the Russian flood. Southward the Russians have crossed the River Sereth and are pushing toward Kolomoia. Southeast of Zernowitz the Russians have split the Austrian army in two, one wing retreating toward the Carpathian passes and the other fleeing south toward the Rumanian border.

RUSSIANS TRAP FOE NEAR RUMANIAN BORDER

zser's army, as General Letchitzky now holds a stretch of 20 miles on the Sereth River.

According to a report from Rome an Austrian army under General Baillin is shot up in the angle of the frontier near the town of Sereth, completely surrounded by Russians.

The fall of Radatz places the extreme left wing of General Brusiloff's invading armies in full control of the railway running vertically through the Bukovina, from Zaleski to Radatz and thence to the southern prolongation of this line running through Suczawa into the interior of Rumania. Thus, the Russian commander has now, in the line from Radatz to Suczawa, an excellent base railway for the continuation of his offensive.

Moreover, the new Russian advance into the southern Bukovina deals a blow to the commercial relations recently established between Rumania and the Central Powers by the conclusion of the trade agreement by which the three Powers are to export to one another surplus quantities of food-stuffs. Much of the grain shipped from Rumania to Austria and Germany under this compact went via the Bucharest-Budapest-Vienna-Berlin railway. With a Russian army fronting the western Rumanian border through which this line runs, the flow of Rumanian goods can reach the Central Empire by this route, while on the other hand Rumania becomes partly dependent upon Russia.

The Russian drive in the south thus assumes a new aspect in that it threatens a tightening of the food blockade of the Austro-Hungarian front in an effort to the south, to the Danube, on which river the bulk of the commercial exchange is carried on, the new trade pact will be reduced to nil. Rumania will be isolated and virtually blockaded from the north, northwest, and east (Black Sea), while the Teuton-Bulgarian Macedonia army will be placed between the Russians and the Franco-British forces.

Apart from the success in the south the Russian offensive made no progress in the last 24 hours, but, on the contrary, suffered a serious check in Volhynia, where the German re-enforcements are imparting more and more stubbornness to the Austro-Hungarian forces, and even have enabled the assumption of a counter movement in the center, southeast of Kovel.

The day brought no abatement in the furious fighting which has been going on for a week on the Kolki-Sokol sector of the Strypa. Their advance halted by General von Linsingen, the Russians tried again to break the Teuton front in an effort to drive through to Kovel, but, according to Berlin, all the onslaughts failed. Between Sokol and Liniewka, where the Russians are trying to force a crossing of the Strypa, the only natural obstacle separating them from Kovel, the fighting was particularly ferocious. The Teutons held their front against all attacks.

Further south, on both sides of the Turlia River, west of Lutsk, and down to the town of Gorochow, north of the Galician border line, the Russians, according to the German War Office, were driven further back.

CONQUISTE ITALIANE LUNGO LA VALLARSA; UN NOTEVOLE BOTTINO

Armi e Munizioni Catturate dagli Italiani in Piccoli Combattimenti ad Ovest del Lago di Garda

IL MINISTERO COMPLETO

ROMA, 23 Giugno.

Un comunicato ufficiale pubblicato oggi dal Ministero della Guerra dice che gli Italiani hanno conquistato nuove posizioni nella Vallarsa lungo la quale hanno iniziato un movimento offensivo. Il comunicato dice:

Nella Vallarsa noi abbiamo occupato nuove posizioni al di là di Romini, ad ovest del Monte Pausio, e sul costone del Lora, ad ovest del Monte Pausio.

Puelli, munizioni e bombe sono state da noi prese al nemico.

Lungo la fronte Posina-Astico si è avuta attività di artiglieria da ambe le parti.

Ecco il testo completo del rapporto del generale Cadorna pubblicato ieri sera dal Ministero della Guerra.

Martedì il nemico attaccò le nostre posizioni nella Valle di Ledro e sulle pendici meridionali del Monte Sperone, ma dopo un vivace combattimento fu completamente respinto.

Ieri dal Lago di Garda alla valle del l'Asio si ebbero duelli di artiglieria e piccoli combattimenti.

Le nostre truppe presero al nemico una mitragliatrice, numerosi fucili ed una quantità di munizioni.

Sull'altopiano di Asiago, ad eccezione di piccoli attacchi in direzione di Monte Magnaboechi e nelle vicinanze di Mandriale, ad ovest di Marcellina, il nemico rimase strettamente sulla difensiva resistendo accanitamente alla nostra avanzata e contestandoci il terreno passo per passo.

La nostra artiglieria di grosso calibro ha di nuovo bombardato la stazione ferroviaria di Toblach nella valle della Drava.

Nessuna novità si ha da registrare sulla fronte dell'Isone.

Un aeroplano austriaco ha lanciato un numero di bombe sulla cittadina di Bassano senza però riuscire a causare danni seri od a far vittime.

Giunge notizia da Parigi che una barca italiana, Maria, fu incendiata martedì da un sottomarino tedesco. A quanto afferma un comunicato pubblicato a Madrid e trasmesso all'Agenzia Havas. L'equipaggio fu salvato.

I nuovi sottosegretari di Stato hanno preso giuramento oggi nelle mani del presidente del Consiglio, on. Paolo Boselli. Essi sono:

Colonie, conte Pietro Foscari, deputato di Milano.

Interni, avv. Giacomo Bonicelli, deputato di Brescia.

Finanze, avv. Gualtiero Dantelli, deputato di Treviso.

Trasporti, prof. Ugo Ancona, deputato di Genova.

Giustizia, on. Vassallo.

Lavori Pubblici, avv. Roberto De Vito, deputato di Giulianova.

Istruzione, prof. Angelo Roth, deputato di Alghero.

I TEDESCHI ATTACCANO I RUSSI NELLA VOLINIA

Si Dice Che von Mackensen E' alla Testa delle Forze Teutoniche dell'Est

Un telegramma da Petrograd dice che tre armate tedesche probabilmente agli ordini del maresciallo von Mackensen, hanno preso l'offensiva contro le forze russe del generale Brusiloff che nella regione di Vladimir Volinsk minacciano la base tedesca di Kovel e la fortezza di Lemberg. L'ala sinistra russa procede vittoriosa nella sua marcia attraverso la Bucovina, ricacciando indietro le forze austriache del generale Pflanzer. Parte di queste forze hanno dovuto rifugiarsi in territorio rumeno, dove saranno certamente internate sino alla fine della guerra. L'altra parte è in ritirata verso i Carpazi, ma seguita da vicino dalla cavalleria cosacca che non le dà quartiere.

Un telegramma da Atene dice che sarà presto tolto il blocco che gli alleati avevano stabilito sulle coste della Grecia, avendo il governo greco accettato le domande degli alleati. La smobilitazione dell'esercito greco lascia prevedere una prossima offensiva degli alleati dalla zona di Salonico, diretta specialmente contro le forze bulgare.

La Camera dei Deputati è convocata per lunedì 27 giugno alle ore 10, per discutere il progetto di legge sulla dichiarazione di guerra all'Austria, non però prima di aver votato i crediti provvisori fino al 31 dicembre del corrente anno.

Dopo che le navi da guerra alleate avevano bloccato i porti della Grecia e dopo che gli alleati avevano preso altre misure di rigore per rispondere all'atteggiamento sempre più favorevole agli imperi centrali che il governo di Skulafide andava assumendo, il governo greco ha ceduto ed ha accettato tutte le domande presentate dalle potenze della Quadruplice, e cioè:

1. Vera e completa smobilitazione dell'esercito greco nel più breve tempo possibile.

2. Immediata sostituzione del gabinetto Skulafide con un gabinetto senza colore politico ed insensibile contro i pacifici desideri di benevolenza neutralità verso le potenze della Quadruplice.

3. Immediata smobilitazione della Camera dei Deputati seguita da nuove elezioni generali nel periodo di tempo stabilito dalla costituzione e soltanto dopo che sarà stata completata la smobilitazione dell'esercito e rimessi i corpi elettorali nelle sue condizioni normali.

4. Sostituzione di certi funzionari il cui atteggiamento, ispirato da influenze straniere, ha facilitato attentati contro i pacifici desideri di benevolenza neutralità degli alleati e quelli che si trovavano sotto la loro giurisdizione.

5. Mentre si aspetta che le domande siano messe in atto, dice che una squadra navale alleata sotto gli ordini dell'ammiraglio francese Moreau ha avuto ordine di incrociare davanti al Pireo, e che si sono fatti i preparativi per lo sbarco di reparti armati.

6. L'accettazione delle domande degli alleati è stata comunicata al ministro di Francia da Alessandro Zaimis, il che fa supporre che questi abbia costituito Skulafide nella presidenza del Consiglio greco. Si dice che Zaimis è neutralista, ma ha simpatie per gli alleati.

BLOCKADE OF GREECE TO BE RAISED AT ONCE

Athens Hints at Return of Eleutherios Venizelos to Premiership After Demobilization

ATHENS, June 23.

The blockade placed upon Greek shipping by the Allies to enforce their ultimatum is expected to be raised at once as a result of the acceptance of the demands of England, France and Russia by the Greek Government. Intimation that such action would be taken was given today by the ministers of the Entente Powers.

As soon as the demobilization of the Greek Army is brought about general elections will be held.

In the meantime Alexandre Zaimis is acting as premier, but it is believed that it will not be long until Eleutherios Venizelos, the most aggressive of the pro-ally leaders, will be at the head of the Government.

Following are the demands made upon Greece by the Allies and accepted by the Greek Government:

"First. Real and complete demobilization of the Greek army, which must, with the least possible delay, be placed on a peace footing.

"Second. The immediate replacing of the present Greek Cabinet by a business cabinet having no political color and offering all necessary guarantees for the application of benevolent neutrality toward the Allied Powers and sincere consultation of the national wishes.

"Third. The immediate dissolution of the Chamber, followed by new elections after the period required by the Constitution and after general demobilization has restored the electoral body to normal conditions.

"Fourth. Replacement of certain police functionaries, whose attitude, inspired by foreign influence, has facilitated attempts against peaceable citizens as well as insults against the Allied legations and those under their jurisdiction."

EXPECT BELFAST CONFERENCE TO UPHOLD LLOYD-GEORGE

Harmony Predicted at Meeting on Irish Situation

LONDON, June 23.—High officials assert emphatically that there is not the slightest foundation for reports spread in America that the Irish rebellion has been renewed and that the British Government is suppressing the news. American reports are probably the exaggerated outgrowth of descriptions of scenes attending recent fatalities of Sinn Féin victims of the rebellion. Meanwhile, though opposition to the projected settlement of the Irish question, which developed within the cabinet itself, came as an unpleasant surprise, there has been no really serious hitch in the negotiations which are expected to be advanced to an important stage by today's Nationalist conference at Belfast.

At the Belfast conference Devlin, who will be supported by Redmond and Dillon, is threatened by the opposition of the Catholic Bishops of Ulster. Doctor MacHugh, Bishop of Derry, published a letter stating that he and Cardinal Logue, Bishop of MacRory and Bishop McManis, whose control extends over the six excluded counties, are against the Lloyd-George proposals.

There is little expectation that the Belfast conference will vote against the Lloyd-George proposals.
