L'ITALIA LOTTERA' FINO A CHE GLI ALLEATI HAN RAGGIUNTO LA VITTORIA

Questo Afferma nella Camera dei Deputati l'On. Boselli Esponendo il Suo Programma

MANOVRE DI BUELOW

feri la Camera del Deputati si e' riunita per la prima volta dopo la formazione del nuava gabinetto presiadulo dall'on, Paolo Boselli. Il presidente del Consiglio espone s programma del ministero di coalizione, dichiarando, e mettendo molta enfast in auesta dichiarazione, che l'Italia e' unanimente decisa a continuare la guerra e fanco degli alleati fino a che la vittoria son sara' conseguita non solo dall'Italia ma da tutti gli alleati. Il presidenta del Consiglio predisse la rapida espulsione degli austriaci dal ter-ritorio italiano. Egli disse, affermando l'intensione degli alleati di fare la guerra ensiva da ora innanzi: "T/lialia intende continuare nella stessa glitica aeguita dai suoi alicati. Da ora lanssi nel intensificheremo la guerra fino a che non avremo raggiunto la vittoria desiva e finale." Nondimeno il diacorso del presidente del mercilo tratto in gran parte i problemi

Consiglio tratto' in gran parte i problemi consiglio tratto' in gran parte i problemi che l'Italia devra' affrontare dopo la guerra, affermando che il governo sta studiando le misure necessarie per l'emancipazione eco-misa e sommerciale del paese.

Nella seduta di ieri fu annunciata la merte sul campo di battaglia nella valle del Posina del deputato del collegio di Vittorio, conte Brandolino Brandolin, il quale era capitano nell'esercito. L'on. Brandolin aveva appena 38 anni di eta' ed era grande possidente e fratello del conte Girolamo, ex deputato di Conegliano. La Camera, dopo l'annuncio della morte dell'on. Brandolin, decise di tenere una bandiera sul suo seggio vacante per tutta la durata della sessiona LE MANOVRE DI VON BUELOW.

L'on. Boselli disse che l'esercito aveva valore e della sua resistenza respingendo gli austriaci che avevano avanzato dal sallente trentino, e tutta la Camera apsaliente trentino, e tutta la Camera ap-plaudi' entusuiasticamente quando egli ac-cenno alla devozione del re Vittorio Em-manuele per il paese e per l'esercito. Quindi presento' i suoi diciannove ministri i quali, con i quindici sottosogretarii di Stato, fermano il piu' grande gabinette che l'Italia abbia avuto dopo stabilite le istituzioni

La Camera dara' tra breve il suo voto di fiducia al nuovo ministero, voto che si ritiene sicuro dopo la formazione del gabinetto di coalizione che comprende tutti partiti rappresentati alla Camara. Intanto qui corrono di nuovo voci secondo cui la Germania farebbe nuovi sforzi per giungere alla conclusione della pace. Si dice che il principe di Buelow, che ha dovuto abbandonare l'idea di recarsi agli Stati Uniti avendo il presidente Wilson ri-futato di collaborare con lui per la pace, at rechera' presto in Svizzera. Ivi egli si incentrerebbe con il "papa nero," il padra Vladimiro Ledoc'howski, generale del geautt, il quale, come si ricorda, venne espulso dall'Italia nel maggio dell'anno scorso perche' accusato di propaganda politica anti-pasionale.

Il padre Ledochowski, sebbene sia un Il paure Ledochowski, sebbene sia un polaco russo, simpatizza fortements con la Germania. e si crede che la sua in fuensa in favore della pace sarebbe notevole noi paesi neutrali ed in Italia dove ell'aveva organizzato una propaganda per essi sveva organizzato una propaganda per la pace, propaganda che fu poi interrotta la parte dal decreto di espulsione. Il piano del principe di Buslow sarebbe, a quanto si dice quello di unire lo sforzo del gesuiti italiani a quello dei socialisti ufficiali, che hanno messo da parte per ora li loro anticlericalismo e cantano l'osanna agli sforzi pacifici del papa. Il socialisti ufficiali hanno persino detto di volere appoggiare la pretesa del papa di partecipare alla conferenza per la pace, partecipazione che essi considerano necessaria per l'ideal-fame purificatore" che la presenza del pon-iame purificatore" che la presenza del pon-tefice porterebbe nella conferenza. Un comunicato ufficiale pubblicato oggi a Vienza annuncia che torpediniere austriache hanno bombardato la costa italiana nelle vicinanze di Giulianova, e che un aeroplano este fu atterrato da un aviatore austriaco. Il comunicato aggiunge che un officiale ttaliano ed uno francese, di marina, che erano sull'eroplano ed erano feriti, sono stati fatti prigionieri. Un telegramma da Madrid dice che altri tre piroscafi italiani, e cice' il Mongibello, di 4059 tonnellate; il Roma, di 3950 ton-nellate, ed il Pino, di 1706 tonnellate, sono stati affondati da sottomarini teutonici. Gli equipaggi sono stati sbarcati in Spagna.

John Black, Baltimore Financier, in Will, Ignores Sister's Children

BALTIMORE, Md., June 29.—Estranged for years from one of his two sisters, since deceased, but who is supposed to have several children still living in New York or Philadelphia, John Black, the retired financier, made no provisions for them in his will. The estate is valued at $1,000,000. Provision is made for one sister who didn't will. The estate is valued at $1,000,000. Provision is made for one sister, who died two weeks before the financier himself died. Two hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars is bequeathed to several Protestant Episcopal institutions and the Johns Hopking University, which also are made residuary legatees.

About 40 years ago Mr. Black became estranged from his sister Harriet because the married Doctor Adler. She went to either New York or Philadelphia, where she died. It is known, however, that she had five sons, one of whom became a rabbi. Judge John C. Rose, the executor, says he has no knowledge of their whereabouts.

INDIANA MOOSE REFUSE TO DIE Determine to Start Move for Another National Convention

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 29.—The Indiana Progressive State Central Committee Pesterday instructed William Holton Dye, sational committeeman from Indiana, to communicate with other State Committees for the purpose of calling another national convention of the party to name a prealdential candidate.

The action was taken after a stormy ression. Mr. Dys was censured for voting to indorae Hughes for President Monday at Chicago. An unsuccessful effort was made to unseat Dye as national committeeman from Indiana. The State convention was set for July 20. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 29 .- The In-Tour Berks County Forest Reserves READING. June 29.—Historical shrines Herks County were visited by the 150 elegates to the State Forestry Association's delegates to the State Forestry Association's convention here on their motor trip.
