NANCY WYNNE CHATS ABOUT THE VARIOUS HOLIDAY DOINGS

With the Beginning of July Even the Country Homes Are Vacated for Points Along the Coast and Town Will Be Virtually Empty for Tomorrow

MAINE seems to be the goal toward Wiggins and Miss Frances McCann, also Mr. Charles Brown and Mr. Robert Brooks. and its suburbs have determined to turn their faces, though the fact that many of our men folk are "somewhere on the way to the border line" may keep many who had intended going North nearer home, for this summer at least. Among those who have decided on Bar Harbor are the Francis I. Gowens; Marianna, you know, came out this last season and will virtually keep on going out through the summer at this fashionable resort. Mrs. Henry Price Wright when last heard from intended to go to Seal Harbor, as usual, to be with her mother, Mrs. Bayard. I can't remember if Henry is in the N. G. P., though I would hope so for the boy's sake, for there are few merrier souls in the world than said Henry, and he would certainly keep things lively in camp with his unending fund of humor, whereas for Mrs. Wright's sake I hope he isn't going. That's the way it is; there are always two sides to one's wishes, don't you think?

The Wilmer Biddles intend going to Bar Harbor, where they have a cottage. Harriet will be a debutante next year, and a mighty attractive one at that, let

The Houstons, I understand, have changed their plans and are not going as far as Clapboard Island, Me., where they usually go, because Henry is up at Mount Gretna and will shortly leave for "somewhere South" if he has not left already, so his family will go no further than Massachusetts for the summer.

One of the delightful holiday parties will be given for Mary Rush, the younger sister of Charlotte Rush and a future deb. The party will be a buffet supper, and it will be given by Harriet Zell, of Baltimore, at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. W. Abell, near Roland Park, Md. After supper the guests will attend the dance to be given at L'Hirondelle Club, Ruxton. Miss Rush left on Saturday to be the guest of Miss Zell until after the Naturally there will be a decided patrietic demonstration tomorrow, for though our men were released by Carranza things are very serious yet, and there are some who see no way out of the situation, but that war it must be eventually, for Mexico must be shown that we are not a people who are willing to lie down and let them just walk over the border whensoever they may feel inclined thereto and kill as many of our citizens as they please. So long as they mind their own business and do not lawlessly attack us, so long will we leave them in peace. "No, indeed, we do not want war; but let them take their hands off our American boys or by gum we'll show them what war is!" as a certain khaki-clad boy was heard to say. "And them's my sentiments," says Little Nancy. All the clubs in the suburbs will have celebrations of the Fourth. There will be a dance at Manheim and one at Merion and the usual display of fireworks at the Philadelphia Cricket Club. There will also be entertainments at the Overbrook Golf Club, Torresdale Golf Club. Huntingdon Valley Country Club and Whitemarsh Valley Hunt Club. NANCY WYNNE.
