Will Try to Bring Assembly to Wilmington in 1918

WILMINGTON, Del. July 5.-Members of the Angieni Order of Hibernians in this firsts are actively engaged in a campaism to bring the national convention here in 1818 The Chamber of Commerce. State and eity officials have promised belp to the order to entertain the visitors. National Director Heaty, Edward J. McElwes, Wil-iam Casey, Thomas Spialin, Archie Wat-ton, Jämes F. McIver, Cornelius J. Des-mode. Michael A. Mealy, Thomas Brennan, Colonel James Hines, Danial Mc Kinney and John Monihan are the delegates. In opiunction with the Chamber of Commerce biomabis literature to delegate.

Joseph McLaughlin, Philadelphia, a can date for Congression, reliance, is a can-date for Congressman atiange, is the na-onal president. The national convention ill be held in Faneuli Hall, Boston, July d3. The Delaware delegates will ac-impany the Philadelphia delegates in a social train over the Reading Rallway to ew York. The delegates leave next Sun-tr a wash for Boston 17-22. New York. The delega day a week for Boston.

day a week for Boston. John Monihan, who is one of the dele-gates, has a wonderful record. He is more than 70 years of age and for 38 years has walked four miles to the meeting of his lodge and made the return trip on foot. He has never minsed a meeting of his lodge and has the same record for attending county and State conventions. He pays his own expenses to the national conventions.

Only Seven Men Enlisted on Fourth

Independence Day was very dull at re-multing offices in this city, for only 10 men applied to enlist in the army. Seven of the 10 were accepted and today will be sent to Fort Slocum. The recruiting office of the National Guard, at Broad and Chestnut streats, was closed at 10 o'clock, because the scarceness of applications indicated that so many persons were out of the city that it was not worth while to keep the effice open.
