

ILLUSTRATED
Evening Ledger

FRIDAY
July 7, 1916

WAR VIEWS FROM THE UNITED STATES AND EUROPE TAKEN FAR FROM THE SCENES OF ACTUAL BATTLE

By Staff Photographer on Troop Train.
MEMBERS OF COMPANY C, 3D REGIMENT, N. G. P., PLAYING CARDS TO PASS AWAY THE TIME

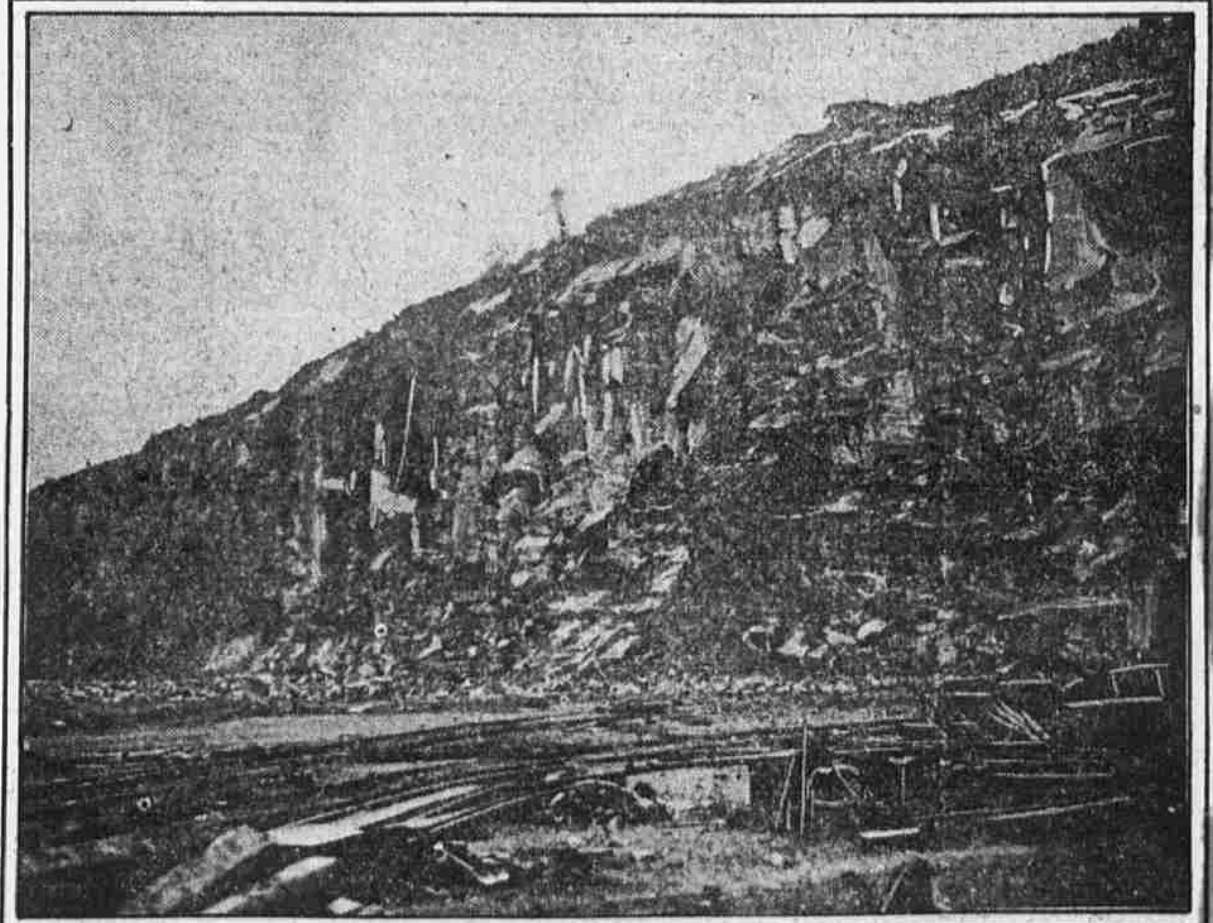

By Staff Photographer on Troop Train.
PENNSYLVANIA'S GUARDSMEN SLEPT THREE IN A SEAT ON THE LONG, HOT TRIP TO THE BORDER

Photo by Madon.
FRENCH AERONAUT DESCENDING BY PARACHUTE FROM AN OBSERVATION BALLOON THAT WAS BLOWN FROM ITS MOORINGS BY A GALE

By Staff Photographer.
CORP. PAUL A. STEIFF, COMPANY A, 2D REGIMENT, MAKES FRIENDS WITH A PICKANINNY

IT TOOK 39,000 POUNDS OF DYNAMITE, COSTING $8000, JUST TWO SECONDS TO BLOW UP THIS HUGE ROCK AT BIRDSBORO, WHICH REQUIRED TWO YEARS TO DRILL

Copyright, International Film Service.
GERMAN PRISONERS IN BRITISH PRISON CAMPS ARE ALLOWED GREAT FREEDOM. HERE IS A GROUP RETURNING FROM A WALK NEAR DORCHESTER, ENGLAND