Amusement Section

EVENING LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, & URDAY, JULY 15, 1916.

2010 1.11

ATLANTIC CITY "RUSH" SEASON BEGINS TODAY: 8 BUSY WEEKS AHEAD

Cottagers, Summer Residents at Hotels and Week-end Crowds Ready for Liveliest Time of Year

SHARK SCARE ABSENT

ATLANTIC CITY. July 15. — Today warks the opening of the "rush" season, he first of the sight big week ends this ty will enjoy before people begin to for-el summering and start to plan for big usiness deals. The cottagers are all here, is people who will reside for the summer i hotals are all set and the people who nay get a limited time for summer holi-ave are commercing to arrive. There only get a limited time for summer non-days are commencing to arrive. There will be no let-up in the crowds after this, as the vacationists who return home after one or two weeks of enjoyment will guickly have their places taken. Atlantic City never tries for record crowds, but there are indications that this summer will memory all negatives reserves. twamp all previous records.

With its flexibility in the way of stow ing away guests, if they come for a day, a week or a year, there is no danger of any one coming here and not receiving the best of accommodations, except possibly on

Best of accommodations, except possibly on a Saturday night, when the weather is es-pecially unbearable in the large cities. Many of the small hotels are satisfied if they share in the general prosperity, al-ways present here in July and August, and they seem to make enough in seven weeks to pay enormous rents and make a profit.

Mrs. I. McMaster and Miss Dorothy Me-Master, of Manayunk, are here for a fort-night's visit and will be entertained by friends during their stay. Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Lauber and family.

of North 33d street, are enjoying the beau ties of Cheisea from the porches of their own cottage, and will remain here until Beptember.

No matter what the attractions may No matter what the attractions may be at other resorts, the fair sex of Philadel-phia never desert this city. Among the thousands now here who are enjoying every minute of the perfect days are Miss Betty Wells, Miss Susan G. Winpenny. Miss Gertrude Chapman, Miss E. Woodle-ton, Miss Gladys Biddle, Miss Martha Aus-tin McDowell, Miss Helen L. Shewell, Miss Elsie H. Smith, Miss Martha P. Klipatrick, Miss Catherine Townsend. Miss Marie G. Bonner and Miss Jane Parker. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Genuman, of Dia-

Bonner and Miss Jane Parker. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Qumman, of Dia-mond street, have arrived for a visit which will last until September. Dr. and Mrs. Isaac Boeleu, of West Philadelphia, are spending the summer in Chel-Mr. and Mrs. David Sollenger, of the Girard Esstates, are occupying their sum-mer home and will not return to their city home until the middle of September. Dr. Charles E. Price, of Philadelphia, is here for an indefinite visit. Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Ashby, of West Spruce street, are among the many who will remain here during the entire sum-fr. and Mrs. Willard Spenser, of Phila-Mr. and Mrs. Willard Spenser, of Phila-delphia, are here for a visit of ten days. Mr. and Mrs. M. Matuson, of North Grats street, will prolong their stay here until after Labor Day. Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Geissler, of Phila-delphia, are booked for a stay of some weeks at a leading hotel.

Police Court Chronicle

Joe Dugan says that the heat always licks him. Rising temperatures make him do and say things that he's sorry for, Sometimes he gets relief in oratory. Often the heat makes him denunciatory. It af-fected him in this way when he saw a nattily dressed man puffing a cigar while he was getting his shoes shined near 2d Lirms, the shouting and the nurrying of many feet came to us from various parts of the temple. I knew that I was needed there, but I dared not leave Dejah Thoris, nor dared I take her with me into the tur-moil and danger of battle. At last I bethought me of the pits from which I had just emerged. Why not secret her there until I could return and fetch her away in safety and forever from this aw-ful place. I explained my plan to her. and Christian streets.

Shaking his finger under the stranger's nose, Joe shouted, "It's extravagant guys like you who won't shine your shoes and smoke fancy cigars that makes money short. Yer just wastin' a dime right now that would buy me a sandwich and a cup of of Evil," featuring Jackie Saunders and Roland Bottomley. It is an unusual photo-play dealing with the everyday question, Is humanity in the grip of Evil? THE PHOTOPLAY-

MAN-ABOUT-

TOWN

"The Shadow of Her Past" is the sombre

CHAPTER XXII-(Continued).

THE sounds of conflict, the clash of Larms, the shouting and the hurrying one will end and another begin.

out, making it ideal for summer.

by a romantic touch.

architecture.

play con Monday.

replied.

In "Sealed Lips," which is coming to the Locust on Monday and Tuesday next, a story is presented by talent not often sath-ered together in a film play. John Ince, the director; William Courtenay, the star; Ar-thur Ashley, Mary Charleson and other players combined to present the visualiza-tion of the Maxwell Gray novel. "The Silence of Dean Maifland." One of Brook-lyn's largest Episcopal churches was used with the full choir inventments to make a scepe exact in its representation. Some of the most famous of the great Long Island country estates were used as backgrounds for the outdoor scenic effects. In "Sealed Lips," which is coming to the Complete Theatre Programs for the Week Appear Every Monday in the Chart "Alpha and Omega" is the case with serials on Wednesday at the Apollo, where The Overbrook is a typical airdoms. Although it has a regular roof, its many windows permit a current of air through-

New flooring and increased ventilation facilities make the Jefferson auditorium comfortable these days. While the entertainment features are be ing most carefully looked after, as always, special attention is now being paid to the securing of perfect coolness and ventilation and summer attractiveness at the Bel-

This from the program of the Liberty: "Holbrook Blinn in "The Weakness of Men." Since the day of Adam's fall until now man's weakness has been the weaker sex. Some years ago a noted philosopher said if Adam had deelined Eve's apple Central Park might now be a small portion of the Garden of Eden and Broadway a flower used accore that is full of tang and Quite apropos of the present excitement of Mexico, on the border between the two countries, to say nothing of the large num-ber of appeals from the decision of the motion picture censors, exceptional Interest is attached to the presentation at the Rialto on Monday next of "The Heart of Paula." In which Lenore Uirich is featured. It is a drama based on the present difficulties on the international border between the United States and Mexico. lined avenue, a story that is full of tang and flavor of the world's greatest city softened Chaplin, in "The Vagabond." will be re-States and Mexico.

peated on Saturday at the Germantown. The Broad Street Casino will be entirely renovated for the fall, season. At the Ruby, the popular resort of the lired-out shopping throngs, there will be two serials as added feature attractions. Tuesday the main offering will be Wallace Reid and Cleo Ridgley in "The Love Mask," and there will also be shown the ninth episode of "The Secret of the Submarine," which will show some of the workings of these heats. For the week commencing July 17 the Victoria Theatre offers the first and ex-Victoria Theatre offers the Erst and ex-clusive presentation in the State of Penn-sylvania of "Where Is My Daughter?" fea-turing Mary MacLaren, produced by Louis Weber, producer of "Whore Are My Chil-dren?" "Hypocrites," etc. A Metro travel-ogue, International News and a Triangle-Keystone comedy complete the program. these boats. At the Girard on Tuesday Frances Wilson and Arthur Ashley will be presented in "What Happened at 22," a mystery play written by Paul Wilstach, famous Broadway For the coming week the Savoy is offering an excellent program. The theatre is well ventilated and cool and patrons find it many degrees cooler than the street on the hottest day. author, and as an additional attraction there will be shown the comedy, "Ambrose's Cup of Woe."

Following its presention of first show-ings, the Alhambra will have for Tuesday "The Spell of the Yukon," the picturization of Robert W. Service's poem of the same name, and Billie Burke in the seventh epi-A spectacular European war pleture, around which a story of love and human interest has been woven, is "The Eye of the Night," featuring William H. Thompson and Marjory Wilson. The play is one of the latest of Triangle productions, and it will sode of "Gloria's Romance. have its first presentation at the Arcadia on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Coolness and comfort are as much in de-Coolness and comfort are as much in de-mand at the up-to-date playhouse as is good entertainment, and it is the manner in which all three are combined and with an accompaniment of good orchestral music that is making the Palace one of the most popular places of daily entertainment in the central city section. title of the attraction for Morday and Tues-day next at the Regent. The film features Lina Cavalieri, heralded as "the most beau-

Lina Cavalleri, heraided as "the most beau-tiful woman in the world," and her husband, Lucien Muratore, who directed the produc-tion of the picture also. This is Miss Cava-lieri's second appearance in photodrama, her first having been that of Manon in the production of "Manon Lescaut." The story is an American one, filmed in italy and en-sanced by the classic heavity of Italian William H. Thompson is a character witham H. Thompson is a character actor of long experience, and his work in the film plays has been excellent. He will appear at the Iris next week in "The Divi-dend." anced by the classic beauty of Italian

Charles Chaplin in "The Vagabo coming to the Eureka, makes use of a bit of encore bowing that is very funny and shows a new comedy trick. Willie Collier, Jr., who is starred in "The | red men. The green horde broke to surround the temple. The red men charged for the interior, and then we turned to continue our interrupted battle, but our foes

My first thought was of Dejah Thoris

Calling to Carthoris that I had found his mother, I started on a run toward the chamber where I had left her, with my of our little force who had survived the bloody conflict. The moment I entered the room I saw boy close beside me. After us came Willie Collier, Jr., who is started in the Bugle Call," has a long speaking stare rec-ord, having appeared with his father in many of his farces on Broadway, including "Caught in the Rain," "The Dictator," "A Little Water on the Side" and others. The Excellent pictures of guns in action are shown in "The Nation's Peril," which will be at the Olympia. omes to the Fairmount Theatre on Wednesday is Comedy Day at the Park, with many comedians of note, including Chaplin, Raymond Hitchcock, Mabel Nor-

The management of the Market Street Theatre announces the beginning of a new Chaplin, Raymon serial Monday, July 17, emtitled "The Grip mand and others.

Sequel to "Under the Moons of Mars" had vanished.

DR. JOHN A. MARQUIS

Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, who speaks here Monday for the first time.

RELIGIOUS CONGRESS OPENS AT PRINCETON

Third Annual Session of Conference Begins Tonight. Prominent Speakers

PRINCETON, N. J., July 15.—The third annual session of the Princeton Conference begins this evening in the Princeton The-ological Seminary and will contine until the evening of Sunday, July 23. The purpose of the conference, as stated by its managers, is "to bring men and women into a life of communion with God, victory over sin and fruit bearing, through the presentation of the Bible message con-cerning the life that is Christ." Wildwood has ever experienced in real estate activity, basing his predictions on ton Inn are Miss Edith Casey, G. W. Brown, Miss Edna Kent, Miss Agnes Haggarty, A. L. Kusner, Commodore and Mrs. James cerning the life that is Christ."

It is further stated in their prospectus that it is not a mere Bible or misionary conference, although the Bible and missions have an eminent place in the program, nor have an eminent place in the program, nor is it a school of methods. Among the leaders and speakers an-nounced are Dr. C. I. Scofield, editor of the Scofield Reference Hible; Prof. W. H. Grif-fiths Thomas, of Toronto; Charles G. Trum-bull, editor of the Sunday School Times; Dr. Robert E. Specr, Mrs. E. M. Whittemore, founder of the Door of Hope Missions, and others. Dr. J. Alvin Orr, of Pittsburgh, will be the presiding officer. shire include Mr, and Mrs. A. H. Troth, Miss Ella Wainwright, Miss Elizabeth Wainwright, Mr, and Mrs. Kenneth Hoff. man, Mr. and Mrs. William Prophet and Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Pick. Stopping at the Arcadia are Mr. and Mrs. F. Willis Clark, of Youngstown, O.; Mr. and Mrs. John W. De Long, of German-town; Mrs. W. B. Cannon, Camden, and

The daily program is to include in the morning a platform period, mission group period, Christian life problems. The after-noon will be given to rest and recreation. In the evening there will be held an outdoor

The picture of him cleaning the city rigorously with a big broom in now being dashed on the screen of many of the moving-picture theatres. This is part of the olan of co-operation to clean the city and ceep it so. This phase of the campaign was started by Joseph C. Dougherty, manager of the Bijou Theatre. Before each show the parons read "We are advocates of cleanliness as regular patrons of this theatre know. Therefore we heartly concur in the new

"dinance that youyour sidewalk and store sweeping."

Many thousands of persons will see this eminder daily in every section of the city. The plan has met the approval Datesman of the Department of Director Dates Public Works. "I'm glad that some one started the the theatres," he said

FISHING PRIME THIS SEASON DANCE AT AVALON AN EVENT FOR STONE HARBOR VISITORS "Shark Scare" Pointless, as Beach Is Beaut"ol Decorations and Many Bril-Protected

STONE HARBOR, N. J., July 15 .- With the exception of a single day of rain, the weather for nearly a month has been exceptionally fine. The shark scare has not influenced the bathing here. The protected section of the beach in the vicinity of 96th street continues to be the centre of attraction for visitors and excursionists. Fishing continues excellent from the new Boardwalk, where a basketful of kingfish is ning light luncheon and refreshments were "only jist ordinary," as one sportsman put | served and the occasion proved to be the

it. Large catches are reported from the channel and the basins, Mrs. Davis Webster and daughters, of young folks. cken, were guests of Mrs. Potts The first of a series of weekly card parties was held Tuesday evening at Hotel Avalon. These are to continue the remainder of the season and are fast becoming unusu-

Jones. Harry Olewine and wife, of Harrisburg, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferree Every Japanese bungalow in the 108th and 113th street colony that is ready is occupied, as are many of those which are unfinished. There is a long waiting list and it is the opinion of those interested that twice as many of these unique bunga-lows could be easily disposed of if it were possible to build them and furnish them this seaso.

Miss C. L. Bowman and party from Holmesburg occupy the St. Mary's bunga-low on the Channel.

, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dailett and family, of Wayne, are down for the summer, rent-ing the Shoemaker cottage on 9th street, Samuel C. Chase, of Massilton, Ohio, is spending two months at Hotel Avalon. Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Leopold, of Lans-Jow on the Channel. Daniel McCruden and wife, of German-town and Prof. E. L. Ingram, of the Uni-versity of Pennsylvania, have taken apart-ments here for the season. Mrs. McCaughan was hostess for Ladies' day at the Yacht Club this week. Mrs.

SUMMER RESORTS

CAPE MAY, N. J.

Florida :

Reese P. Risley is listed for next Thursday. Among those in the house party of Miss Francis Jones are the Misses Mary Nunez, Nanley Stanton. Abington Dorothy Atkinson and F. Florence Snyder, of Swarthmore, lowne, are registered at the hotel for the eagon. The song services being held in the marine room of the Avalon Casino are gaining in popularity each week. The Rev. R. M. Hunsicker, D. D., editor of the Baptist Commonwealth, of Philadelphia, preached last Sunday, and the Rev. J. C. Killian, of the Chapel Car, is booked for next Sunday.

SUMMER RESORTS

CAPE MAY, N. J.

OF GREAT LOCAL INTEREST

liant Electrical Effects

AVALON, N. J., July 15 .- Friday evening last the most successful society ball of the season was given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Hall in honor of their daughter, Miss Mildred Hall. The handsome marine ballroom was gorgeously decorated for the occasion with cedar, roses and wistaria, which together with the tricolor electrical effects and pretty Avalon girls, made the scene one of heauty and splendor. Later in the eve-

most gorgeous ever attempted at Avalon and one long to be remembered by the ally popular for both young and old. Clemens Titzck, of Haddon Heights, and family have opened their cottage on 21st street boulevard. They will remain all

J. Effreth Watkins is again in his Avalon

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dallett and family,

CAPIC MAY Smartest of American Beaches CAPE MAY HOTEL (3) (1) (1) New Modern Fireproof Resort Hotel, facing A directly on the Ocean Every comfort. Finest bathing besch in the world Deep ses and inland fishing. Sailing, Motor boating, Good automobile roads. Golf. Tennis Direct train service NOW OPEN For booking arrangements write or phone E. D. PAGE, C. A. Wood, Lessee, Hofel Warrington, 161 Madison Ave., N. Y. Tel. 2710 Murray Hill.

Best fishing and crabbing on the coast. High-class amusements. Concerts every afternoon and vesper service and a platform meeting in the chapel. THE GODS OF MARS FREE DINNER OFFERED TO ALL WHO WILL ACCEPT

George Long Invites Men, "Drunk or Sober," to Party at Inasmuch Mission

George Long will give a free dinner and entertainment at the Inasmuch Auditorium, 1011 Locust street, on July 22.

In celebration of the seventh anniversary of his conversion, he has issued an invita-tion to men, "drunk or sober," to come to his party.

The party begins at 2 o'clock with an enertainment by the Wandering Minstrels The free dinner begins at 3 o'clock. In the ing, at 7:30 o'clock, Mr. Long will tell is life story.

BIDDLE WARD COUNCILS

Bible Classes Plan to Reach All Parts

here the her musical season ever attempted by any re-sort of its size and age in this country. To and the Entertainment Committee o the Board of Trade has engaged the serv-ices of Walter Pfeiffer, first violinist of the Philadelphia Orchestra and conductor of Philadelphia Orchestra and conductor of the Franz Schubert Bund Symphony Or-chestra in Philadelphia, who will lead an orchestra at the New Casino Auditorium, giving two concerts daily, from 3 to 5 and from 8 to 10 o'clock, until September 15. The orchestra consists of 25 first-class musicians: 20 of them belong to the Phila-delphia Orchestra, two belong to the New York Symphony Orchestra, while the other three are musicians from Philadelphia with excellent reputations.

With Mr. Pfeiffer are Concertmeister

Faul Meyer who is too well known to need an introduction; Bruno Einhorn, who has been solo 'cellist in Leipzig and Berlin and since Philip Schmitz left the Philadelphia

Orchestra, holds his chair in that organiza-tion, and Louis Wisman, solo fluist, a native of Philadelphia, who was with the Bluethner Orchestra in Berlin until the

The Wildwood Civic Club has begun its ummer sessions. The home and summer ections have combined and are bent on making Wildwood bigger, brighter and bet-ter than ever. Each Monday the club will give a silver tea. On Thursday, July 13, the club held its annual luncheon at the Wildwood Manor. 20 : Lillian Stockton, president of the Federated Women's Clubs of New Jerney, was among the guests of Senator John A. Ackley, of Vineland N. J., has taken up his boardwalk apart-ments with his family for the season. The Senator said he saw no reason why this should not be one of the best years that

Philadelphians registered at the Derby

some of his recent property sales. Among the Philadelphians at the Edge

I. Bulmer.

excellent reputations.

European war broke out.

WILDWOOD PLANNING

GREAT ORCHESTRA AS

SUMMER ATTRACTION

and git a pile of dough fer i while I has to sling a pick and toss ovel just to git me bare cats."

The man still smoked. Enraged, Dugan kicked the bootblack box on which the man's well-shod foot was rest-ing, into the street and pulled the cigar from his mouth.

The stranger knocked him down.

The stranger knocked him down. When Joe struggied to his feet he saw a friendly brick. He reached for it, but be-fore he could inflict any damage a cop ar-rived and took him before Magistrate Imber. "It's time to bring about equal salaries for men of the same age," said Joe, "and I was just arguing me point on this when this swell guy blew smoke in me face. I'm going to try and change the whole working condition of the country and I tell you......, "It takes too long," said the Judge. "We

"It takes too long," said the Judge. "We cannot run the country to suit ourselves. What you need is a rest from the sun. You can prepare your campaign while rest-ing for five days in the County Prison."

Band This Evening at Belmont

The Fairmount Park Band, under the aderahip of Richard Schmidt, will play this afternoon and tonight at Bels Mansion. The program follows:

Strauss

Meiodies from "Doctor de Luxs", ... Hoschna "Star-Spangled Banner,"

Concerts in Hunting Park

The Energetic Band, under the leadership of Arthur Rosander, will play this after-noon and tonight at Hunting Park. The The program follows:

PART 1-AFTERNOON. 4 TO 8 O'CLOCK.

"Stars and Stripes Forever" Offenbach Kuckman ...Straum "Orpheus" - "Knochout Drops" - Concart-"Treasure" Internission - "Humers of Donaybrook"...

Allander of Lander Horisort Allander States Willow Horisort Theory Tunes Development & Fo 10 O'CLACK The Whip The Whip Change for a Day Holaman Ch

Intermission.

"Sparklets" Ef Mr. Francis Smith. Hust-Suscaled Baumar." Salected Rombers

Philadelphia Band at City Hall

as Philadelphia Band, under the leader-of fillas E. Hummel, will play tonight City Hall Plaza. The program follows: palles music from "La Balles de Sala." Belesting from De Kevrit's opera "Mail Martall Sale for societ. "Arbocklanico Polica"

Suil Monthlese and inter-worst of all, the doorway leading to the pits where I had hidden my princess was alone again where that terrible creature might discover me. You do not know her. "None can imagine her feroclous cruelty who has not witnessed her daily acts for more than half a year. It has taken me nearly all this time to realize even the things that I have seen with my own eyes." "I shall not leave you then, my princess." ajar. With a bound I was before it and thrusting it open rushed within. Dejah Thoris had vanished. I called her name aloud again and again, but there was no re-She was silent for a moment, then she sponse. I think in that instant I hovered upon the verge of insanity. I do not recall what I said or did, but I know that for drew my face to hers and kissed me. "Go, John Carter," she said. "Our son is there, and the soldiers of Helium, fightan instant I was selzed with the rage of a maniac. "Issus!" I cried. "Issus! Where is is there, and the solitiers of Hermin, many ing for the princess of Hellum. Where they are you should be. "I must not think of myself now, but of them and of my husband's duty. I may not stand in the way of that. Hide me in the

"Issus? I cried. "Issus? Where is issus? Seach the temple for her, but let no man harm her but John Carter. Car-thoris, where are the apartments of Issus?" "This way," cried the boy, and without waiting to know that I had heard him he dashed off at breakneck speed farther into the bowels of the temple. stand in the way of that. Finds he in the pits and go." I led her to the door through which I had entered the chamber from below. There I pressed her dear form to me, and then,

As fast as he went, however, I was still I pressed her dear form to me, and then, though it tore my heart to do it, and filled me only with the blackest shadows of terrible foreboding. I guided her cross the threshold, kissed her once again, and beside him, urging him on to greater speed. At last we came to a great carved door, and through this Carthoris dashed a foot ahead of me. Within we came upon such a scene as I had witnessed within the temple once before—the throne of Issus the threshold, kissed her once again, and closed the door upon her. Without hesitating longer I hurried from the chamber in the direction of the great-est tumult. Scarce half a dozen chambers had I traversed before I came upon the theatre of a flerce struggle. The blacks were massed at the entrance to a great chamber, where they were at-tempting to block the further progress of a body of red men toward the inner sacred prednets of the templé. with the reclining slaves," and about it the ranks of soldiery. We did not even give the men a chance to draw so quickly were we upon them. With a single cut I struck down two in the front rank. And then by the mere weight and momentum of my body I rushed hrough the two remaining ranks and sprang pon the dais beside the carved sorapu a body of red men toward the inner satiral precincts of the temple. Coming from within as I did. I found my-self behind the blacks, and without waiting to even estimate their numbers or the fool-hardiness of my venture. I charged swiftly across the chamber and fell upon them from the rear with my keen longsword. The repulsive creature squatting there in terror attempted to escape me and leap into a trap behind her. But this time I was not to be outwitted by any such petty ubterfuge. Before she had half risen I had grasped As I struck the first blow I cried aloud: "For Helium!" And then I rained cut after cut upon the surprised warriors, while the her by the arm, and then as I saw the guard starting to make a concerted rush upon me from all sides I whipped out my reds without took heart at the sound of my voice, and with shouts of "John Carter" John Carter" redoubled their efforts so ef-fectually that before the blacks could redagger and, holding it close to that vile dagger and, holding it close to that vile breast, ordered them to halt. "Back!" I cried to them, "Back! The first black foot that is planted upon this platform sends my dagger into issue'

For an instant they hesitated. Then an fectually that before the blacks could re-cover from their temporary demoralization their ranks were broken and the red men had burst into the chamber. With Carthoris at my side I fought for the red men of Barwoom and for their total emancipation from the throttling bondage of a hideous superstition. Back and forth across the room we surged, until the floor was ankle deep in blood and dead men lay so thickly there that half the time we stood upon their officer ordered them back, while from the outer corridor there swept into the throne-room at the heels of my little party of sur-vivors a full thousand red men under Kantos Kan, Hor Vastus, and Kodar. "Where is Dejah Thoris?" 1 cried to the thing within my hands.

that half the time we stood upon their hodies as we fought. As we swung to-ward the great windows which overlooked For a moment her eyes roved wildly about the scene beneath her. I think that it took a moment for the true condition to make any impression upon her-she could not at first realize that the temple had fallen before the assault of men of the outer world When she did there must have come too ward the great windows which overloosed the Gardens of Issus, a sight met my gaze which sent a wave of exuitation over me. "Look!" I cried. "Men of the First Born, look!" For an instant the fighting ceased and with one accord every eye turned in the diraction I had indicated, and the sight they ever wave one no man of the First a terrible realization of what it meant to her-the loss of power, humiliation, the ex-posure of the fraud and imposture which she had for so long played upon her own direction I had indicated, and the sight they saw was one no man of the First Born had ever imagined could be. Across the gardens, from side to side, stood a wavering line of black warriors, while beyond them and forcing them ever back was a great hords of green warriors astride their mighty thoats. And as we watched, one, flercor and more grimly ter-rible than his fellows, rode forward from the rear, and as he came he abouted some flerce command to his terrible legion. It was Tark Tarkas, Jeddak of Thark, and as he couched his great 40-foot, metal-ahod lance, we saw his warriors do like-wise. Then it was that we interpreted his command. people. There was just one thing needed to com-plets the reality of the ploture she was seeing, and that was added by the highest noble of her realm—the high priest of the religion—the prime minister of her gov-erament.

ernment. "Issue, Goddess of Death and of Life Eternal," he cried, "rise in the might of thy righteous wrath and with one single wave of thy omnicotont hand strike dead the blasphemers! Let not one escape. "Issue, thy people depend upon thee. Daughter of the Lesser Moon, thou only art all powerful. Thou only can save thy people. I am done. We await thy will. Strike !" And then it was that she word upon command. Twenty yards now separated the green men from the black line. Another word from the great Thark, and with a wild and terrifying battleery the green warriors And then it was that she went mad. screaming, gibbering manisc writined in my grasp. It bit and clawed and scratched in impotent fury. And then it laughed a wourd and terrible laughter that frome the blood.

charged. For a moment the black line held, but only for a moment, then the fearmone beasts that have equally terrible riders peaced com-After them came utan upon man of CONCLUDED ON MONDAY of the City

Representatives of the Drexel Biddle Bible Classes will meet in Holy Trinity parish house next Monday evening and will organize ward councils, so as to have an organization in every ward in the city, clty. The Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tomkins will pre-

James S. Clark will be the speaker at the men's class meeting in Holy Trinity tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. George M. B. Taylor will speak at Moyamensing Prison tomorrow afternoon and at the Sunday Breakfast Association in the wening.

evening. The Sunday evening twilight service at the Bible Class Home, at Lansdowne, to-morrow evening will be in charge of Miss Clara E. Thompson and the "True Love" Bible Class of Fourth Baptist Church. Martin Luther will visit the classes of Falmerton and its vicinity tomorrow.

RELIGIOUS BREVITIES

Sunday afternoon meetings for men-eid at the North Branch of the Y. M. C. s held at the North Branch of the T. M. C. A. not stop during the summer months. This oursement was made today, as the result of wats from many young men, strangers in the , who fraced the meetings were to be dis-tinued. Good speakers, good music and the i kind of fellowship will be furnished. Ono M. C. A. man, speaking of the meetings. . "This is a good place for the young man, middle-ased man and the sider man to learn principles of clean, straight living." The John V. Ellson, pastor of the Lehigh Ave-Baptist Church, will be the speaker tomor-afterneon at 4 o'clock. His subject is "The With 1000 Devils."

"How Hetty Green Lost Her Soul" is the sub-t of the sermon which the Rev. George simers Richmond will preach tomorrow lught the Eldridge Lecture Hall, 1811 North Logan creasing interest in the Hunday afternoor a discussion led each week at the Unitra C. A. by Harry Phillies is causing birso dance. Mr. Phillips will speak tomorrow mon at 3:30 o'coor on "Nerodemos tre Who Stood." He will appeal to man to by their dreams, visions and failure. Fol-of apparent oppealition and failure. Fol-a the tails proper the men will discuss the twith relation to the modern social and ous problems.

During the absence of the Hev. George D. tune, Dantor of the First Church of the Breth-en, Carlinde and Dauphin streets, who has goue a theories for a strength which he occupied by here Monitals at the pulpit will be occupied by here. The strength of the C. C. Ellis, of Juniata others, will strak be the morning on the sub-ections and the strength of Goil? In the ventors he will strak to the subject. "Does It as to be Good" Destre Subject. These It ture is isological to the subject.

Bantiss

CHESTNUT STREET BAPTIST CHUBCH

Chestnut at, west of 40th GEORGIE D. ADAMS, D. D., Pastor, 9-45 a. m.- Brotherhood of A. and P. 10:30 a. m.- Worship and Sermon by Pastor, 2-30 p. m.-With School. 8:00 p. m.-With School.

Brethreit

FIRST CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN (Dunker), cor. Carinie and Dauphin sta. Sunday Bohool, 10 a. m. Preaching, 11 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Prayor Meeting each Wednesday evening

Lutheran TABERNACLE, full and Spruce-Wm. J. Mill lar, Jr., 10:45, 7:45, 8, 8, 2:30 p. m.

Young Men's Christian Association YOU CAN DISCUSS the modern religious and social problems with your followmen at the Central Y. M. C. A. forum next Sunday at 2.59 p. m. Harry Phillips, loader.

BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATIONS

THE SALVATION AMSY. Inc. Columni R. E. Hull in command. Trimmonics, Bell, Spruce 652.3. Band 0750 de Kayatoos

PHOTOPLAY CAST

CONTEST OPENS Continued from Page One

at various intervals thereafter. Watch the Amusement Section each Saturday. Voting begins Monday. Instead of clip-ping a coupon from the paper, the voter will be required to cut off the 'words "Evening at the top of the first page, write the nearing at the top of the first page, write the near of bis or ber candidate in the the name of his or her candidate in the margin above, and mail it to The EVENING LEDGER Photoplay Cast Contest, P. O. Box 564, or bring it to the LEDGER office. Each heading counts 10 votes. No heading will be accepted of a date earlier than Monday, July 17. The contest will close August 31.

STEAMSHIPS

TRIPS BY WATER

Full information on the above, or any other vater or rall trip, gladly furnished. Steamship and Tourist Department

The Fourth Street National Bank

143 S. 4th St., Phila., Pa.

STEAMBOATS.

IDEAL FAMILY EXCURSION

fron Steamer THOMAS CLYDE To AUGUSTINE BEACH

100-MILE RIDE for 50c

STOPPING AT CHESTER DAILY-PENNSGROVE WEEKDAYS ONLY

Only heat to Augustine Beach. Landing in out of Grove. Sale salt water bathing-569 DANCING ALL DAY on boat & grounds. Plenty tables, benches and shade. Artesian water, Fare Trip 50c Children 10 25c Leaves Arch St. Wharf 8:30 A. M. Dally, Sunday 3:00 A. M. JAMES E. OTIS, Mgr., 3 ABCH STREET

"TRIPLE DECK STEAMER QUEEN ANNE

To Riverview Beach

SPECIAL BEDUCED RATES Children, 20c Adults, 35c

EVERY DAY EXCEPT SATURDAYS, BUNDAYS AND HOLIDAYS REGULAR BATES-Adults, 58c; Children, 25c

Bout Leaves Arch St. Wharf 8:30 A. M. topping at Hillingsport & Chester, Sun., 9 A.M. SELECT EVENING TRIPS

UP THE BEAUTIFUL DELAWARE Every Thurs., FrL. Sat. and Sun. Evening Adults, 35c Children, 20c Bogs Lauvas Arch SL. Whart Sild N. M. DANCING NO LIVEOLS

The book is free. Call at the Ledger Office, Independence Square, or Ledger Central, Broad and Chestnut, for your copy at once before the supply is exhausted.