

MONDAY
July 17, 1916

ILLUSTRATED
Evening Ledger

MONDAY
July 17, 1916

SIGHTS AND SCENES FROM THE BORDER WHERE PHILADELPHIA REGIMENTS ARE GETTING IN CONDITION

—Photos by Evening Ledger Staff Photographer with 1st Brigade.
BATTERY A AT DRILL ON THE GROUNDS, FORT BLISS

KEEPING IN CONDITION BY DAILY HIKES
To harden them up, man and mule are put through a course of sprouts on the plains in the shadow of the Sierra Madre Mountains.

MEXICAN GENERAL DIGS DITCHES FOR PHILADELPHIA SOLDIERS
General Jose de la Luz Blanco, former Villa commander, utilizes his days of exile by bossing a gang of his countrymen at work on the grounds of the 1st Brigade.

REGULARS SHOW GUARDSMEN HOW TO USE A MACHINE GUN IN TRENCHES

COMPANY E, 2d REGIMENT, HIKING FOR ITS HEALTH

REGULARS PRACTICE WITH THE REGULARS

ADVANCED FIELD WORK WITH A MULE BATTERY