STORMY OCEAN FAILS TO KEEP BATHERS FROM SURF AT ATLANTIC CITY

But Life Guards Are Kept Busy Helping Timid Ones Resist Onslaughts of Big Waves

GLOOM IN FANDOM

ATLANTIC CITY, July 20.-The tropica sturbances, as they are called in the eather reports, falled to mar the enjoy-ent of the visitors to this city, but, in fact, ment of the visitors to this city, but, in fact, gave them much to look at that was unusual. With a vicious surf that pounded the pillings of the piers and jetties and the highest tides of the year, the ocean was more beautiful in its anger than when calm, and many people stood on the walk for hours and watched the huge combers and breakers. The stormy ocean did not interfere with the bathers' enjoyment, a large growd being in the water at all hours yesterday, but there was many an afternoon. terday, but there was many an afternoon map taken after the exertion of fighting the

Although the tide came up close to the Boardwalk in many parts of the city, but little sand was washed away, as the water came in in a wash, with but little force when it got close in shore. Stany of the old pilings at the wrecked end of a former pop-ular pler were uplifted and washed ashore. Driftwood floated ashore, evidently much of it coming from a great distance.

With the breezes wafted in from the sean, a fairly clear sky and with no rain, this sect of a storm will always be welcomed here. Many people lost their heads wher unexpected high waves toppied them over in shallow water, so the life guards were kept busy convincing the people thus frishtened that they were in no danger.

The harolo rescue of the crew of the acht and some of the coast guards by two pant and sore of the coar guards by two life guards of this city was witnessed by many early lesers, who were promenading or the walk when the accident occurred. The bravery of two of the men who look after the safety of visitors here was highly commended by those who were present. Many of the patriotic women who are here for the summer are showing that their sculs are with the soldier boys now at the border by taking up shooting. Trapshooting at the end of one of the piers has become a society fad, and every day social leaders can be seen handling guns and making soores that are really remarkable for a mateurs. The Boardwalk shooting cal-The Boardwalk shooting galleries nave also had a big increase in busi-ness, with the fair sex as the reason for the scial orders issued by the railroad com panies about the movement of trains com-ing from Pittsburgh and the West show that the weekly excursions from those places will be twice as large this year as the ones run last year. That class of visit-ors walways welcome here, for they always remain during the life of the return ticket, storms or bad weather never driving them away. And when they do come down here they are liberal spenders.

Hotel registrations are especially heavy for the end of this week, and at quite a few popular houses the entire accommodations are already engaged for the month of August. With seven weeks of capacity business assured for this city, it will be a who rely on a successful summer to tide them over until the next year.

There is much gloom in fandom here, for the baseball park at the Inlet has been closed by the Pennsylvania Railroad. Although only occupied by scrub nines, many of whom, however, put up good ball games, it afforded many a man a chance to go there and "root" in the afternoons with as much vigor as if he were seeing a big league game. The railroad company recelved no compensation for the use of the grounds and was afraid of being compelled to pay damages in case any one was infor pay damages in case any one was in-jured during the game. For the present baseball fans will have to be content with watching games on the city's playgrounds or an occasional game on certain sections of the beach where bathers do not congregate.

The Glass Bottle Blowers' Convention in this city still continues and many social diversions are being planned by the active Entertainment Committee. At a meeting yesterday the financial report was read and there was much joy when it was stated that there was more than $300,000 in the Sectional Philadelphia is enjoying itself to the utmost this week as excursions, run by business men of different localities, are coming down every day Germantown had its inning esterday, bringing a big crowd of happy one-day excursionists, and today all Kensington's population is spread along the beach and the side avenues leading

DOCTORS DENY PARALYSIS CAUSED MEDIA CHILD'S DEATH

Meningitis Is Diagnosis, but Family Takes Other View

MEDIA, Pa., July 20.—Chester Stoeckthe family say was infantile paralysis, but what the physicians amounce was a form of meningitis. The body was buried this morning and the family has been placed under quarantine. The child was the son of Robert Stoeck

The child was the son of Robert Stoeck-lein. He was taken ill Wednesday and it is said the throat was paralyzed. Dr. C. H. Schoff, the physician, declared positively that the case was not one of infantile paralysis. Dr. E. M. Harvey, physician, for the State, said the quarantine was im-posed because there is an epidemic of men-ingitis and because of possibility of infan-tile paralysis. Violet, another child of the family, is ill.

FIRE WRECKS CANDY STORE

Proprietor and Daughter Escape Flames After Warning

Fire destroyed the home and the candy store of Max Burstein, 643 Porter street, at 3 o'clock this morning. Burstein and his daughter Anna, 4 years old, walked out of the place soon after the flames were discovered by Policeman Kensil, of the 4th street and Snyder avenue station. Anna Burstein, Burstein's wife, and their young son Jacob, who has been ill, were not at home at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mastiroff, "who occupied the second floor, escaped by climbing out on the galvanized awning under their window. The loss was estimated at $1200.
