AMUSEMENT TANGLE GROWS.

The Sunday amusement question was tangled up more than ever yesterday. Seven men, who had been arrested for keep ng their places open and released when they promised they would keep closed this Sunday, lived up to their word and did not open all day. A number of other places, which the authorities declared would not be allowed to open and if they did would be forcibly closed, paid no attention to the threats and remained wide open all day, and here was not the slightest show of interrence. Games were played on two of the piers, shows were given in various parts of the city and bally-hoos and barkers were used to attract the attention of passers-by. The amusement men, who were compelled to sit Idle and watch others take in money, are angry over this new arrangement, and the chances are they will take the same risk next Sunday, and if arrested fight the area in the highest courts on the ground f unjust discrimination. Hotel owners are a unit in declaring that last week's receipts proved that this city will have a phenomenal senson. With six solid weeks of business yet to come, the profits derived from the visitors of last week will add to the total sufficient to make the year 1916 stand out as the cham-pion season in its history. The channel buoys broken from their

The channel buoys broken from their moorings by the storm of last week are floating down the coast and as yet no effort has been made to find them. A new company is being formed which proposes, erecting a big hotel in Ventnor, on the site of the old Carrisbrooke Inn, which was torn down a number of years ago. Ventnor has no hotels at the present time, being a residential section, and the promotors of the company declare a ho-tel situated in this guiet part of the island will attract visitors who want to be far will attract visitors who want to be far away from the madding crowd.

SMOTHERED IN LIMEKILN 17-Year-Old Boy Caught in Pit and Overcome; May Die READING, Pa., July 24 .- Unconscious READING, Pa., July 24.—Unconscious from inhaling poisonous gas in a limekiln near Morgantown Saturday night. Walter Harner, the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harner, of Birdsboro, Berks County, was brought to the Reading Hos-pital today. He is dying. Harner stopped in a limekiln when re-turning from a fishing trip. He was over-come by the fumes from the burning lime and was taken to his home. He appeared to have recovered until today, when he be-came deathly sick and lapsed into uncon-sciousness.

Shenandoah Miners' Charter Revoked POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 24 .- The char-ter of Local No. 2164, of Shenandoah, of the United Mine Workers of America, was revoked by President Matthews, of this, the Ninth District, for insubordination. The local, like two others that had been sim-liarly reproved, had, contrary to the rules of the organization and in defiance of the remonstrances by Matthews, been paying money to members under the claim that they had been out on a strike, whereas no strike had been declared.
