

CAMERA NEWS OF PERSONAGES AND THINGS THAT LOOM LARGE IN THE EVENTS OF THE DAY

OUR NATIONAL GUARDSMEN AT OUR NATIONAL SPORT

The first and second battalions of the 2d Regiment are revealed by the Evening Ledger photographer at El Paso engaged in a baseball game. The upper pictures show the Ty Cobbs of Colonel Turner's command at bat, while Captain J. Walton Clark, the 2d's Grover Alexander, is snapped while delivering a fast curve.

COMBINE AIR AND WATER AS MOTIVE POWER

Herbert and Mark Reeves, sons of Mark B. Reeves, architect and builder of this city, have built a canoe and fitted it up with a three-horsepower aeroplane motor engine. They are enjoying the pleasures of the Wildwood beach in their novel craft.

ROYALTY ATTENDS VON MOLTKE'S FUNERAL
