

THE CALL OF FIELD AND STREAM IS STRONGEST WHEN THE DOG DAYS SET IN

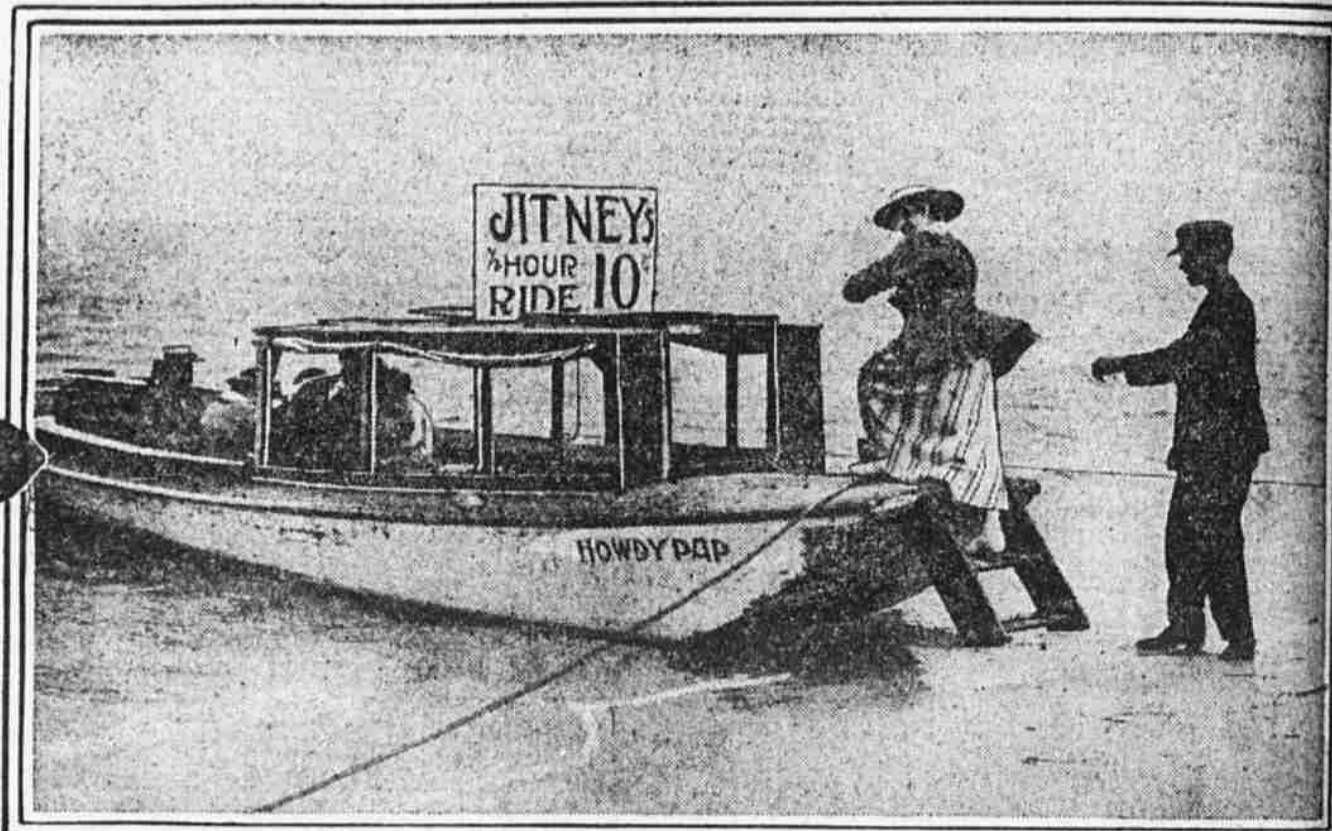

Photos by Underwood & Underwood.
JAP TENNIS STARS WHOM EXPERTS ARE WATCHING
Makami and Kumagae (left to right) were the sensations of the hour at first, but contact with real champions has somewhat dimmed their luster.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS WELCOME THE STORY HOUR
Left to right are the Misses Cox, McKayby, N. Cox, Watson, chief; Halington, Edwards, Simpson, Mellow and Armstrong. They are Philadelphia lassies who are holding a camp at Lafayette.

"THE DAYS OF REAL SPORT"
A solitary fisherman on the Schuylkill. This picture might also be called "The Triumph of Hope Over Experience."

THE JITNEY IDEA PERSISTS IN SURVIVING
This boat at the shore will take you out for a ride o'er the ocean wave for 10 cents on the principle of short ride, short price.

A PHILADELPHIA QUARTET ON WILDWOOD BEACH
Misses Stratzel, Gruninger, Loney and Henschel "just before the plunge"

THIS CORNER FOR THE GOLFERS
R. P. McNeely is one of the most inveterate of Hunt-Ingdon Valley habitués.

TWO MORE GOLF "LYNXES"
George W. Elkins, Jr., and Richard S. Mott are proof of the fact that the germ has no respect for age.