

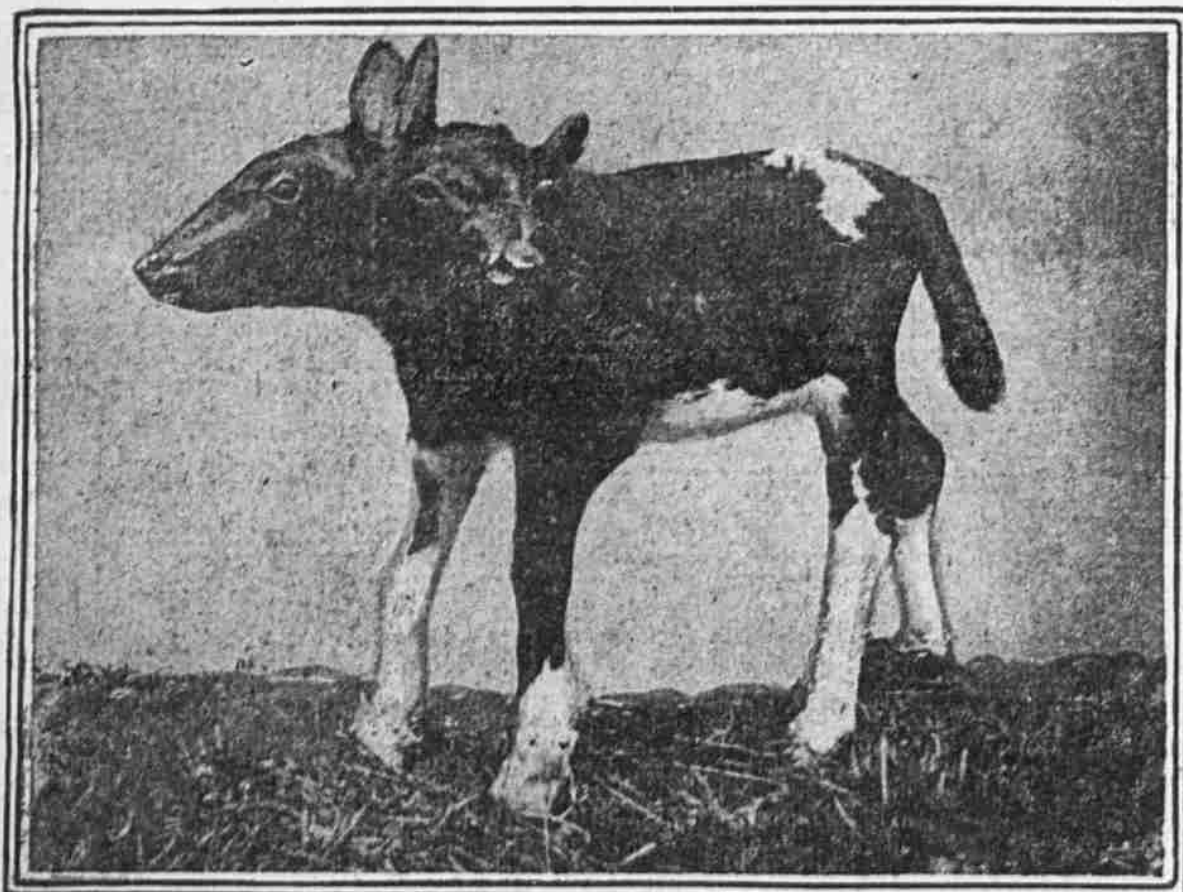

GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA

P. R. T. HEAD SURVEYS THE STRIKE SITUATION
Thomas E. Mitten is shown entering his car after a tour of the city. He is accompanied by Police Lieutenant Hamilton.

CAR BARN'S PEACEFUL DESPITE STRIKE CALL
A leisurely group at the Eleventh and Luzerne streets barn, one of the largest in the city, a short time after the strike order was issued. Policemen on guard had nothing to do.

A NEW JERSEY COW'S PRESENT TO HER OWNER
This two-headed calf, now on exhibition at Wildwood, was born on June 11 last at Newport, N. J., on the farm of E. C. Lore. Mother and child are both well.

HOT-WEATHER SNAPSOTS
J. Horace Cook, superintendent of school buildings, looks serene despite the humidity.

AN ARMY CUSTOM IS DULY OBSERVED BY NEW MILITARY CAMP
The Order of Independent Americans has set up its camp this week on the grounds of the Motor Speedway at Warminster. The opening ceremonies included a little blanket tossing.

BARRED FROM THE SHOW BY THE PARALYSIS QUARANTINE
Thousands of the city's youngsters under 16 have been thrown into consternation by finding "movie" doors closed against them, in accordance with Doctor Krusen's request. This is a scene at a Dickinson street picture palace, where a group of boys are feeling that the situation is one where "a feller needs a friend."

FIRST BOY HELD UP AT FERRY UNDER PARALYSIS QUARANTINE
Health Inspector W. K. Claypoole is shown stopping a youth in the midst of a throng of commuters who have just left the ferryboat from Camden. The boy, who admitted he was under 16, had no certificate and he was sent back to the New Jersey side.
