

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

SATURDAY
August 12, 1916

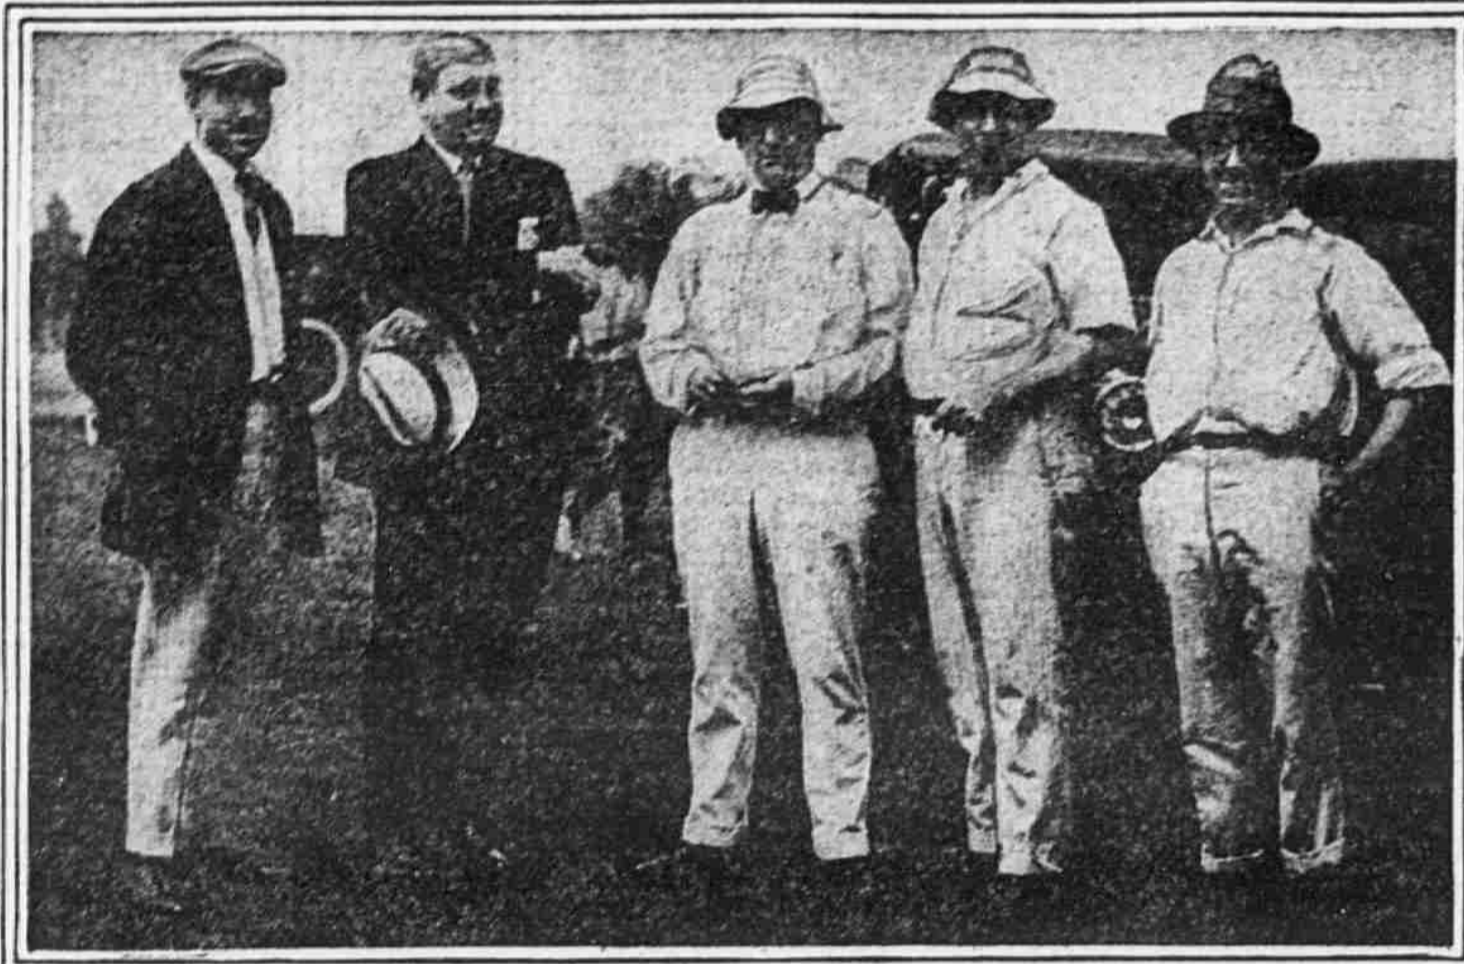

OUTDOOR GLIMPSES OF PEOPLE AND THINGS AS FURNISHED BY THE CAMERA MAN

GEORGE G. PIERIE
Famed as the singer of "The Darby Barn." Ordinarily he is a "Registration Commissioner."

HEADQUARTERS OF THE BALA GOLF CLUB
Where some 150 entrants have been performing in a tournament this week.

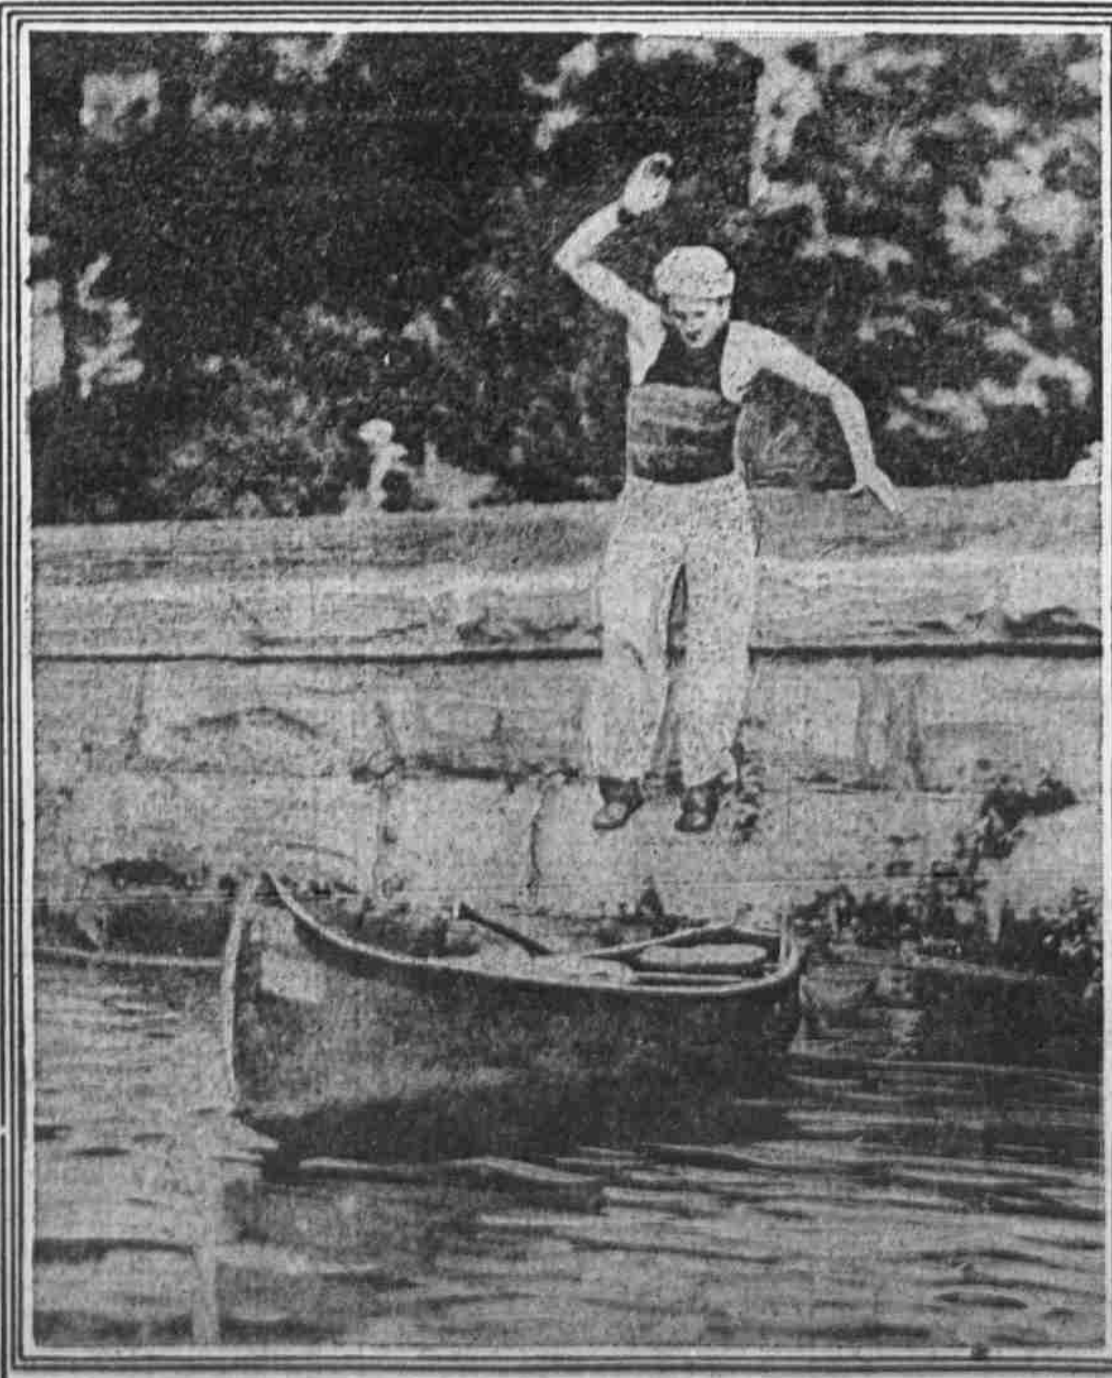

HAPPIEST WHEN THEY ARE SIGHTING ACROSS A TEE
Left to right, Albert C. Alexander, C. J. Corr, A. M. Ehret, Walter Supplee and R. J. Lewis.

MAGISTRATE ROBERT CARSON
They call him "Judge," though he makes no effort to look like one, this picture reveals.

ONLY REGULAR GIRL CADDY IN THE COUNTRY
Not many golfers have so attractive a caddy as J. Franklin Meehan, whose daughter, Helen, plays a good game herself.

DON'T TRY THIS IN DEEP WATER
Some of the chronic canoeists on the Schuylkill adopt this method of getting into the boat from the bank, but it's not a feat generally recommended.

WEST PHILADELPHIAN AT WILDWOOD
Miss Edith Clarke in a comfortable and attractive costume much admired by her friends.