

CLIMBING ST. LOUIS BROWNS OPEN FINAL EASTERN SERIES WITH ATHLETICS TODAY

MONTE CARLO'S RICHEST TROPHY IS PATTERN OF LU LU TEMPLE; GOLD URN FOR FAIR GOLFERS

Umbenhauer Cup Makes Gorgeous Prize—Bare Upper Lip Alexander's Downfall

By SANDY McNICOLL
Above the blue waters of the Mediterranean, on the rocky slopes of the Coliseum, there is put up for play through the links of the beautiful gardens near the links of the beautiful gardens near the Monte Carlo's famous Casino one of the most trophies of the world. It is the International Challenge Cup, a bewilderingly ornate trophy which is offered by the Monte Carlo Golf Club for competition. The enormous trophy was welded, hammered and chased out of solid gold and silver and represents a smaller replica of the magnificent prize of the Prince of Monaco, which stands to the height of about 12 feet.

When finished the urn will be presented to the Lu Lu Temple Country Club by W. W. (Bill) Umbenhauer, to be played annually in the invitation tourney of the club for women.

The tourney this year will open the fall season for the fair sex and will be held on September 15. The cup will be known as the "William W. Umbenhauer Cup" and is alleged to be the only solid gold cup for golf competition in this country.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the tourney, which will be the first invitational golf meeting ever held for women on the Lu Lu course. More than 50 female members of the club have been appointed on committees to see that the tourney is a success and that nothing is overlooked for the comfort of the guests. The stringent rules are greatly anticipated by the tourney and are working eagerly for its success.

Umbenhauer, who is the actor of an ancient Austrian family, has done more than most of the nobles for the success of golf at the Lu Lu Temple Country Club. The game has become in a short time at the club the leading religion of the members. George C. Klauer, chairman of the greens committee at Aronimink and a member of the Golf Association committee for the interests of the public course, will play golf this afternoon at the Cobble Creek course with Mrs. Clarence H. Vanderbeck, woman champion of America, and Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, of national fame and many times local champion.

Quite a gallery gathered at the course in anticipation of the play of these well-known golfers. The result of the play will be in the nature of the first verdict from the best players on the new municipal course.

Upper Lip Flickers
A. C. Alexander, club champion of Bala, was the first to flicker, and he did so with a last week which raised the curtain on the local fall schedule, now realizes his bitter mistake in leveling his mustache to the epidemic. The beautiful golden effect which he had carried with him through many a bitter match was shaved off just before the tourney.

Alexander's upper lip flickered ever and anon in the nervousness in the moments before he led off, and when he sliced his first drive he began to realize that all was not as it should be.

Fielder Jones and his triumphant band of Browns will be the attraction, and two teams that have made records in the last few weeks will clash. The Browns have won 22 out of the last 24. The Mackmen have won about as many as the Browns dropped. They have the same marks, however, with reverse English.

After equalling the mark for consecutive defeats, the Mackmen have come back and had an even break since, taking one from Detroit and two out of four from the Yanks.

Despite the speed of the Browns, the Athletics should make a good showing in their own halfwick. With Myers and Bush to toss in against the invaders, it will be no cinch for the visitors. The Yanks learned this to their sorrow last Saturday, when their pair went in and twice drubbed the New Yorkers.

With this duo on the mound the Mackmen are bound to be dangerous, and they demonstrated that, with anything like big league support, they can turn in victories. Mack probably will use Bush this afternoon, with Myers as the second choice. Every victory means much to the St. Louisans, who have pennant dreams. Wins to the Mackmen do not mean so much. For this reason the fast-going westerners are anxious to take advantage of the weakness of the Mackmen, and hope to sweep the three-game series. This is their ambition, but they have to reckon with Bush and Myers.

Jones has his large staff of high-class heavies working in great form, and with Eddie Plank, Davenport, Koob, Wellman, Groom, Parks and Hamilton all in shape to take their regular turns, the Browns have little to fear from this quarter. Slater has been playing a bang-up game, and even as a third baseman continued to play his high-class game of ball.

Plank or Davenport most likely will work for the Browns, with the odds favoring Plank. Jones wants to get the jump, for wins here, while the White Sox, Indians and Red Sox are fighting it out, will give Jones just the chance he needs to climb.

If Plank and Bush do the hurling, then some pitchers' battle can be looked for.

CHURCH DEFENDS TITLE

Jersey Tennis Champion Defeats Byford in Straight Sets

LAKE FOREST, Ill., Aug. 16.—George M. Church of Tenafly, N. J., successfully defended his holding of the western lawn tennis championship here yesterday by winning a straight-set victory over Byford Byford of Chicago, the champion of the eastern. It was a sweeping victory for the westerner. He had a driving service that Byford could not handle well, while his playing on terrific drives from the challenger's easy array of ground strokes.

No Brotherly Love Here

"There are two players that can beat me any time, and I don't know why," says Clarke, "and they are my brother and Max Marston. I haven't won a match from either."

B. Warren Corkran probably will be able to play, provided the Tobyhanna troopers with which merry company he now is, break up in time for the going. All B. Warren has to do to beat his brother is to throw the clubs out on the first tee. He can beat brother in the old-fashioned way, with a midiron.

They tell a story of a golf match that happened at Bass Rocks, which shows the meanness and diversity that crops out in the game of golf, even in the summertime. A golfer took a shot at one of the holes from the tee, which went far out of bounds. It got mixed up in the fence and he shot another.

What was his horror to discover that the ball had gone right in the hole and he had a triumphant "1" for the hole plus his penalty shot.

But just then his caddy bawled out that the first ball was not out of bounds. It was plumb under the rail, and the golfer took a "2" to hole out. His second ball, of course, did not count, and the golfer had to accept the score he made on the first ball.

Another reason why golfers throw their clubs in the river.

MURPHY DRIVES TWO WINNERS IN RACES OF GRAND CIRCUIT

Directum I and Miss Harris M. to Try for New Records Today

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 16.—The Murphy-driven horses started yesterday as favorites for Grand Circuit racing events and each won in straight heats. Javy Ell Mack battled with Drummer for the Civic Center pacing stake, being forced to cut his record to 2:03 1/4 to keep ahead in the middle heat. Mithrful was the other Murphy winner, she having no trouble in leading all the way in each of the three heats.

Directum I and Miss Harris M., champion pacers will start today to lower their world's records of 1:55 1/4 and 2:01 1/4, respectively.

BINGLES AND BUNGLES

Bob Shawkey has had a great season—greater by far than his record of seven victories against six defeats shows. His pitching day in and day out has been beyond reproach.

The Phillies picked up three games in four days, while the Braves gained two full contests. The Red Sox face their big test now in the invasion which begins today. If Carrigan's club can beat back all opposition he will be safely through the main course. But he must stop each contender in turn, as he can look for no great help from Philadelphia and must stop, not from the Yanks, unless they go forth and give battle with a little more zip.

The last Western invasion starts today, headed by Cleveland. Pops and Pip each picked up a home run and a single, the two homers was the blow that left Mr. Williams, of our Mackmen, with that tired feeling.

Carrigan will need a fair margin at least before he plunges westward in September, and with Pops, Shore, Leonard, Hays and Foster primed and poised, he should have that margin safely well guarded before August closes out. The hope about the Giants having the best club in the National League with Hays and Bales added, was awarded a swift kick over the side by the Phillies, who are now in fine shape to work their way back to the top. Boston and Brooklyn still have a number of games left with the Giants and neither is likely to make it four in a row, despite the downward plunge of McGraw's club in Philadelphia.

The Robins missed the chance of their ambitions at the rate of three out of four. Their once commanding lead, that might have been stretched, has now been cut to three games.

FIELDER JONES AND HIS BROWNS ARE HERE TODAY

Fast-Going St. Louis Team Hopes to Advance Closer to Lead in Athletic Series

BUSH MAY OPPOSE PLANK
The Athletics return home today. There will be no brass band out to meet them, no delegation to escort them from the station or a gathering of the faithful to give them the glad hand. But regardless of the reception, Connie Mack and his Athletics will play out their schedule.

Fielder Jones and his triumphant band of Browns will be the attraction, and two teams that have made records in the last few weeks will clash. The Browns have won 22 out of the last 24. The Mackmen have won about as many as the Browns dropped. They have the same marks, however, with reverse English.

SCRAPS ABOUT SCRAPPERS

It took much wrangling, but finally Freddy Kelly, on behalf of Henry Hinckley, agreed to issue a card for a match with Frankie White. The contest will take place in the arena at the Hotel Hamilton. Both are Italians and have great followings in their respective neighborhoods. White will be in shape for his tilt with Johnny Mealy at the track's reopening.

Johnny O'Leary has split with Darby Kelly, according to word from Buffalo, since his match with Ever Hammer in Boston about two weeks ago. The boxer has been in his own business. He has signed himself up to fight in a return match for 15 rounds in Kansas City, September 1. O'Leary may meet the stable of Harry Pollock, Fred Weisk's manager.

With the reopening of the Model A. C. Matt Kelly will get back into ring regulars. "Problems" will be in the line for Matt, who started his career with a string of knockouts, and the first was in September probably on the Model. Kelly's opponent at the Model is Charley Redman. They met once before.

A report was current this morning that a local gambler, who looks like one of the best, was running around loose shortly. He was the youngster, who was one of the Philadelphia boys who got into the game. He is described with his present management.

Evening Ledger Decisions on Ring Bouts Last Night

RYAN A.C.—Terry Ketchell drew with Joe Tuber, Al Eric defeated Charley Hays, Pete Howell stopped Battling Murray in the fifth, Frank Foster knocked out Harry McDevitt in the third and Eddie Bates beat Matty Burns in two rounds.

BOSTON—Johnny Dundee knocked out Johnny O'Leary in the ninth round. NEW YORK—Jimmy Cushey won from Walter Mohr.

Joe Tuber and Terry Ketchell apparently are two of the best-matched bantams in Philadelphia. For the second time in a month the youngsters got up an even battle at the Ryan pugilists. For the second time in a month the youngsters got up an even battle at the Ryan pugilists. For the second time in a month the youngsters got up an even battle at the Ryan pugilists.

The report of Johnny Dundee's knockout victory in nine rounds over Johnny O'Leary in Boston last night came here today as a big surprise. Dundee never was reputed as a knockout puncher, and O'Leary never missed a real tough baby weight in several matches here. Dundee is so fast he is probably to pick out one good one last night and let it go.
