

ILLUSTRATED

Evening Ledger

SATURDAY
August 19, 1916

CAMERA GLIMPSES OF FIGURES AND HAPPENINGS THAT ARE PROMINENT IN THE DAY'S NEWS

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.
MR. AND MRS. CHARLES E. HUGHES TURN MINERS
The Republican candidate for President of the United States and his wife spent an hour in a copper mine near Butte, Mont. The photograph shows them in the elevator which carried them deep down into the earth.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.
NEWPORT SOCIETY WITNESSES EXCITING MATCH IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT
Itchy Kumagae, the Japanese tennis champion, who came to this country to take part in the annual championship tournament, is seen at the left with his cap on during the match in which he won the right to participate in the finals today. He meets William M. Johnston, of California, in the match for the Casino Cup today.

NEW DINING ROOM OPENED FOR BUSINESS GIRLS OF PHILADELPHIA

BUSINESS WOMAN'S LEAGUE OPENS CLUBROOM FOR WORKING GIRLS
A cafeteria, including a rest room, an emergency aid room and a reading room, has been opened by the Business Woman's League at 1118 Walnut street. The photograph shows a number of young women reading during the lunch hour. In the circle at the left is a glimpse of the dining room.

Photo from Underwood & Underwood.
CANADIAN MILITARY CHIEF VISITS SUBMARINE
General Sir Sam Hughes is seen emerging, with some difficulty, from the captured German submarine mine-layer U-C 5, now lying harmlessly at London. One of the mines can be seen on the deck behind General Hughes.

Copyright, International Film Service.
PRESIDENT OF GERMAN REICHSTAG
Dr. Johann Kaempf, as president of the German representatives, holds practically the same position as does our own Vice President Marshall.

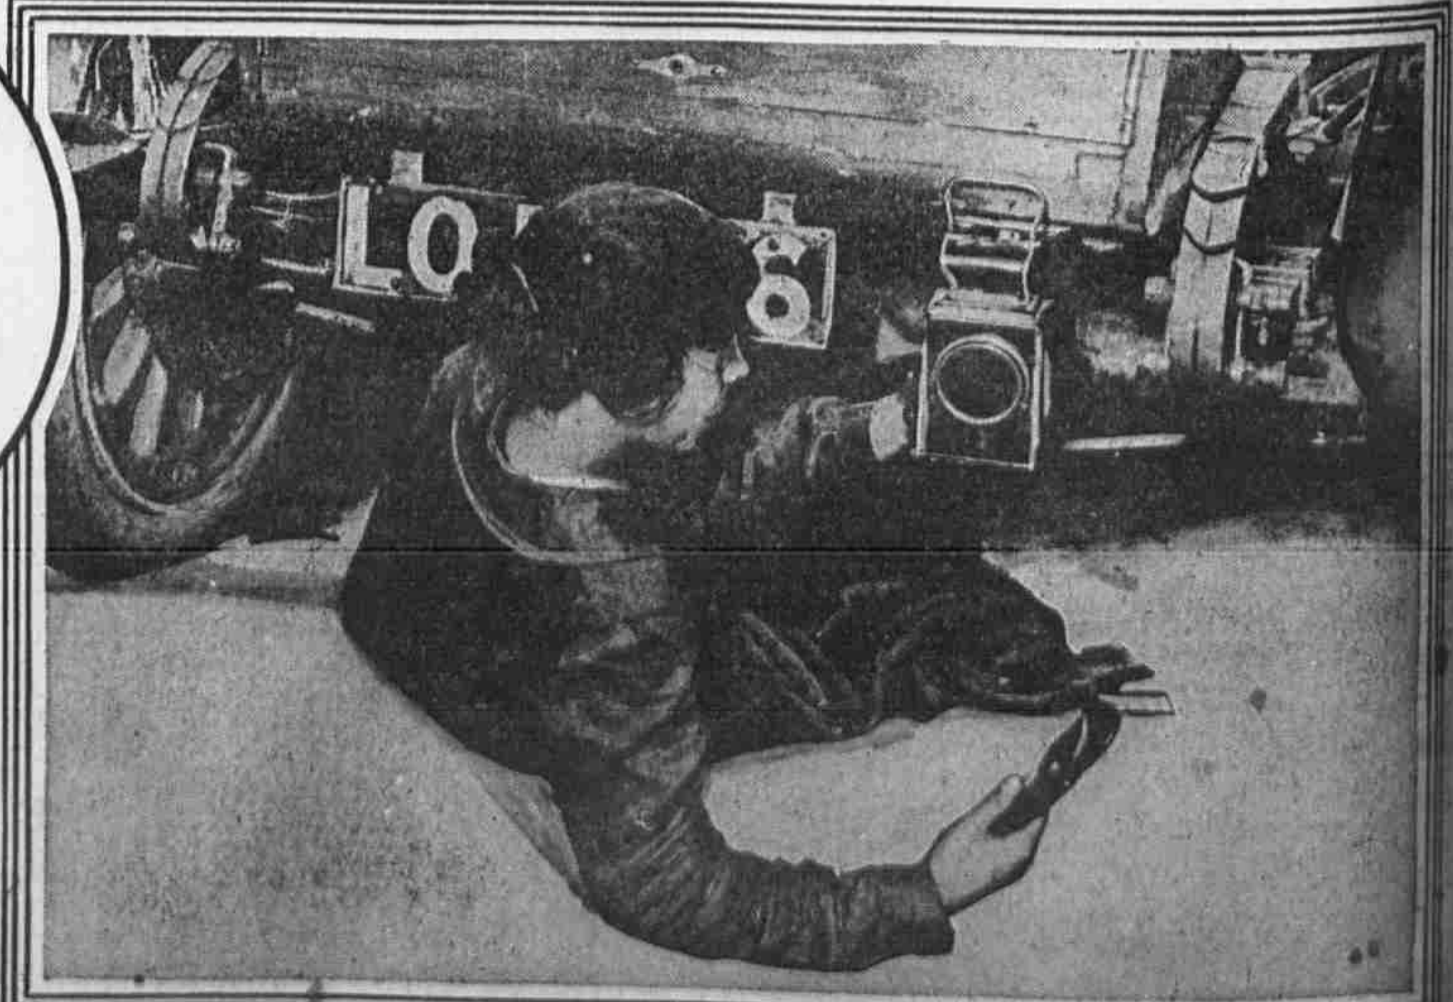

Photo by Hale.
BRITISH WOMAN MECHANIC AT WORK
More than 600,000 women are actively employed in "men's jobs" in England, and the question of what is to become of the men if the women refuse to relinquish their economic independence after the war is troubling the British political economists.