

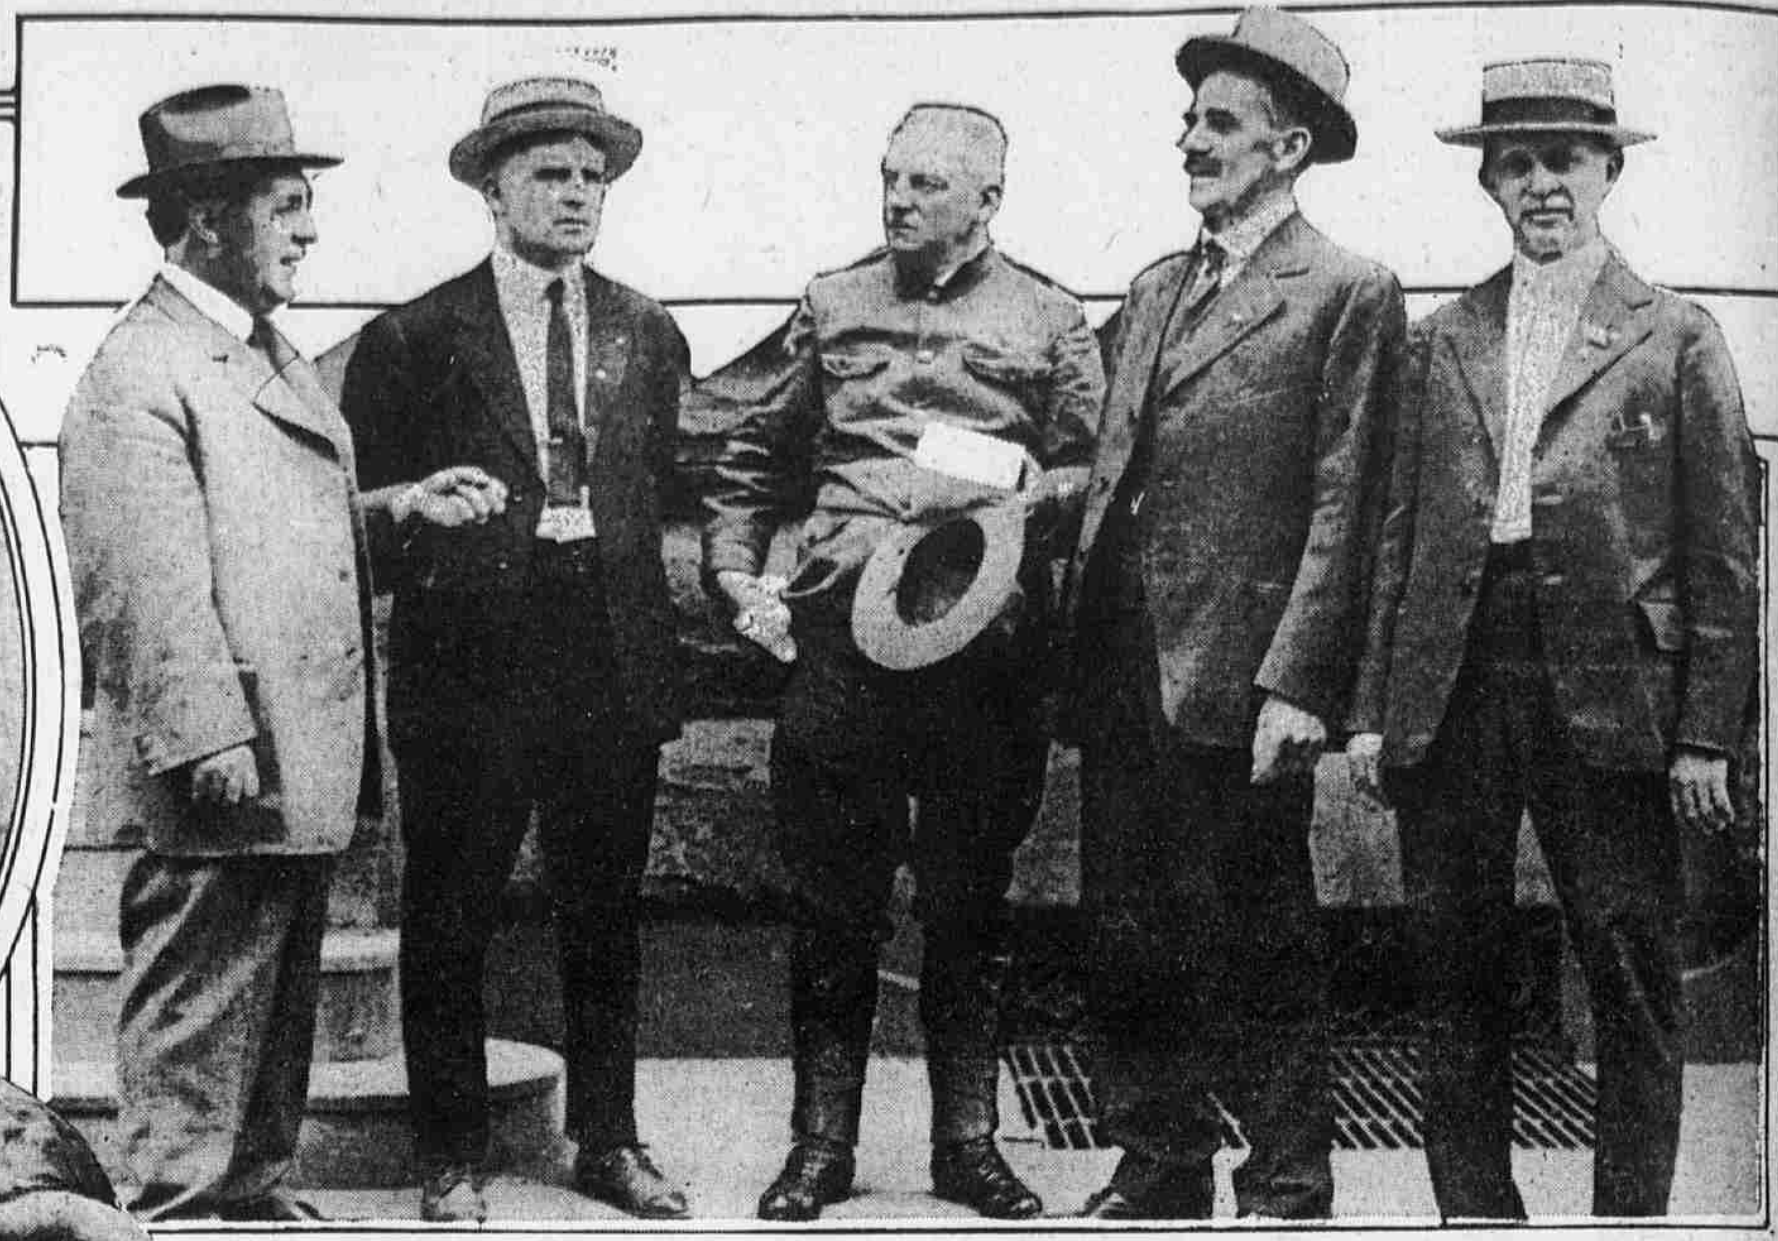

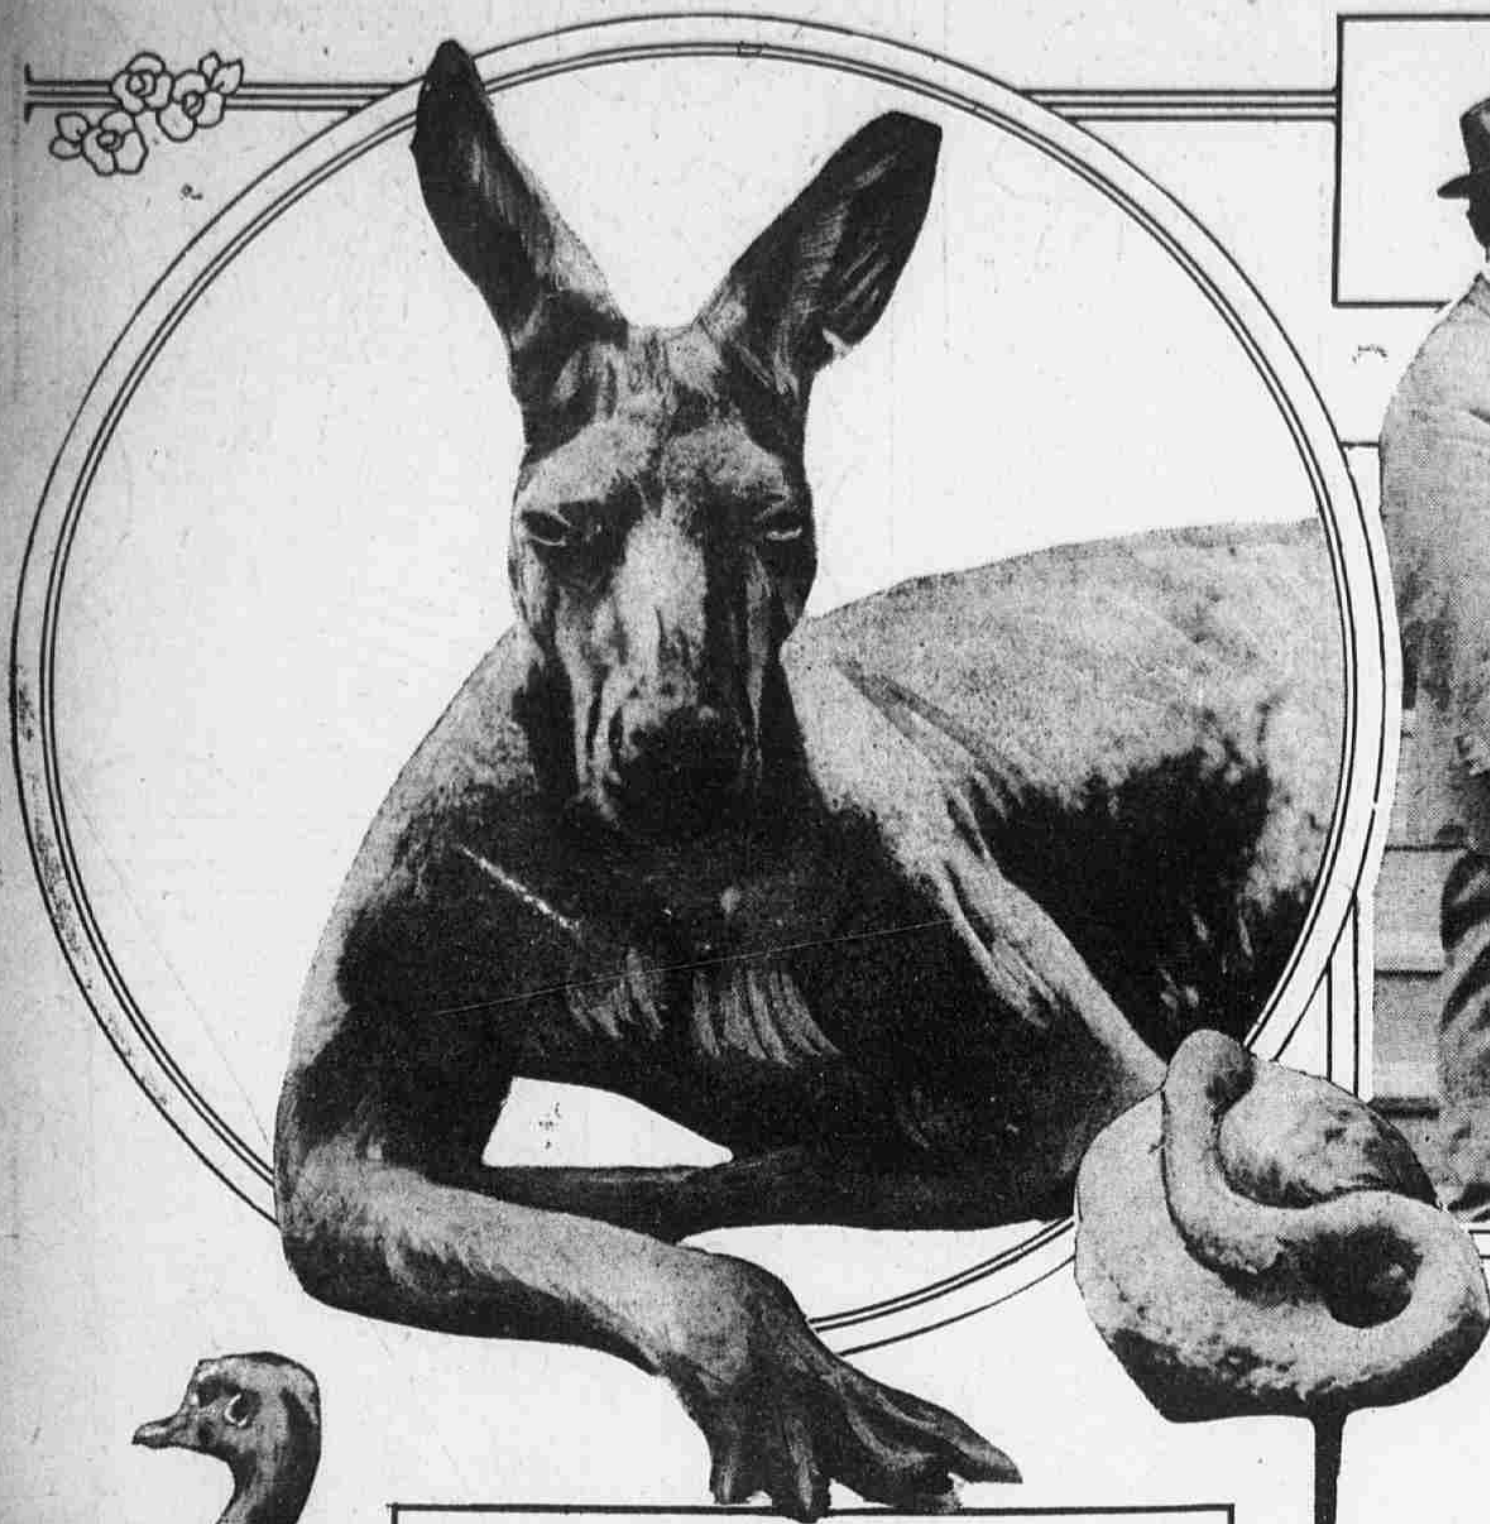

GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED EVENTS OF A BUSY DAY

SOME OF THE LEADING FIGURES IN THE CONVENTION OF PATRIOTIC SONS
Left to right are E. E. Clarke, Charles Brumfels, Dr. Herman Bessey, H. E. Buffington and H. L. Wynne, composing a group discussing today's convention opening.

WHAT IS IT?
The chest and forearms give it a remarkably human aspect, but the head shows it to be a kangaroo. He is taking a hot-day doze at the Zoo.

HOW THE FEATHERED INHABITANTS OF FAIRMOUNT PARK SPEND A HOT DAY
The ostrich, as seen at the left, stretches himself out in this original attitude which permits any stray breeze to reach every feather. The flamingo, on the right, simply folds himself up, anchors himself to a single leg and takes a nap.

1500 CHILDREN OFF TO WILLOW GROVE FOR THE DAY IN CARE OF AMERICAN RESCUE WORKERS

GERM ARMY, STEEL HELMETED AND NEWLY FITTED OUT, AGAIN MARCHES FORTH TO FACE THE BULGARS

A REAL LADY OF THE SEA AND HER HOUSE
She is the figurehead from the old ship John, which was wrecked off the mouth of the Delaware 150 years ago. On the right is the 'Ship John' lighthouse, known to all Philadelphia mariners, built to prevent such wrecks in future.
