YOUTHS MAY 'PLAY HOB' AGAIN WITH GOLF TITLE ASPIRATIONS OF 'VETS' IN MERION NATIONAL

Juveniles, Dark Horses, 'Bush League Stars' and Favorites Mingle in 'Anybody's' Championship

By SANDY McNIBLICK
These are unhappy times for the veterans at golf, seasoned warriors, ex-champions and the like.

The sun has now set on that cheerful season when all the outstanding stars of the year had to do was to throw his bag on the first tee in order to win the championship.

There will be a larger delegation than ever of youngsters at Merion two weeks hence when the championship is under way.

One of the favorites is Douglas Clarke. The best part of his game is his putting, which he says himself that the way he makes his hardest shots is by "knowing" he can make them and by "wishing" the proper line on them.

Another prominent favorite at this date is Nelson Whitney, New Orleans, a former Southern champion and recent winner on the national links.

Philadelphia's greatest hopes are centered in Cameron Buxton, but the local champion has been going wobbly lately.

Mr. A. K. Billestein is one of the first women if not the first to enter a man's championship in these parts.

George Klauder is slowly but surely drifting back to his old anchorage at the Bala Golf Club.

THE WELL-KNOWN BACK SWING CHAPTER II
Many golfers become terror-stricken at the sight of their own swing when they think of taking a lesson.

The name must be rhythmic, shorter when the back swing is quick, longer when the back swing is slow.

Commonest error of the golfer is beginning his forward swing before the back swing is complete.

Non Est Paralysis
A visit to Huntingdon Valley this week brought a sort of protest over an article appearing in a contempt, to the effect that the club was in the grip of infantile paralysis.

Speaking of infantile paralysis, raw oysters and uncooked cantaloupe, Norman MacLean, still in his teens, had a healthy day of it this week.

Common rumor gives MacLean a 40 for the first half and a remarkable 34 for the last nine holes.

Come On, Ye Barkers
Sandy McNiblick has been so busy catching up on his golf during that dandy tournament of the Bala Club that I have not had time to write for you.

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Showing speed and a splendidly aggressive game, Joseph J. Armstrong, the Philadelphiaan, added another of the ranking lawn tennis men to his list of defeated opponents for the season.

In this contest the remarkable chop-stroke drives of Armstrong always had Pell more or less guessing.

Nabors or Sheehan to Work in Tigers' Final Game at Shibe Park

Hughey and Ty will say good-bye to Shibe Park and the Quaker City fans for the season at the conclusion of the skirmish with the Athletics this afternoon.

Sheehan has twirled a number of good games against Detroit, and it given a trial today is likely to show some of the form that made him so effective against Hughey's tribe last season.

Frank Baker won't be in the lineup for at least another two weeks, Donovan made this announcement after conferring with Baker's physician.

Cleveland is trying to duplicate the record of the Athletics on the first Western trip, when they failed to win a game.

Tomorrow and Friday will be busy days at Shibe Park. Cleveland opens the final Western series with the Athletics and a double-header in the schedule.

BOXING SEASON OFFICIALLY OPENS AT NATIONAL TONIGHT

By LOUIS H. JAFFE
THE official opening of the 1916-17 boxing season in Philadelphia will occur tonight when Jack Blackburn meets Young Ahearn in the wind-up of an all-star show at the National A. C.

Blackburn is a veteran in the ring and it will be remembered that he boxed a lightweight, heavyweight and middleweight in three bouts staged in a month.

Blackburn met George Mensie at 133 pounds and followed up with matches against John Wille, a Chicago heavy, and Jack O'Brien, at 158 pounds.

With the middleweight division in a muddled predicament, no definite champion being at the head of the class, both Blackburn and Ahearn are anxious to place themselves near the top.

Mickey Brown has taken on a few pounds and will not be handicapped much in weight in his fight with the 'old' limit.

Hustling the Evening Ledger all summer at Philadelphia he was out training for setting the record for the longest time in a Philadelphia ring.
