May. Mrs. Louis De Lone was a formidable opponent in the finals, but Mrs. Harvey's steady play gave her the decision. Just as the match was concluded on Saturday morning, Jaquith, the aviator who has been giving demonstrations in Atlantic City all summer, appeared in his hydro-aeroplane and alighted in the marshes, a few feet from the tennis court. He was instantly surrounded by a crowd of the curiously inclined. Arnold's was as gay as usual on Saturday evening, among those entertaining being Mr. and Mrs. Graham Archer, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson McCredy, Mr. and Mrs. John Neary, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ansell and Mrs. David Young.

Friends of Mrs. Ronald Barlow, who is in Cape May for the late summer, are sympathizing with her over the tragic death of her young son Lovel, who, ac cording to dispatches received from London, was killed on the fourteenth of the month while fighting gallantly with the British forces in France. Young Barlow, although a mere schoolboy, felt it his duty to fight for his country and left over a year ago for England.

Many members of the horsey set are or have been at Saratoga and for a brief season the spa is quite rejuvenated. Of course, "Eddie" Cassatt has been there with his string and also among our fellow-townsmen are the Evans Roberts. the Archibald Barklies, the Sam Riddles and Mrs. John Norris.

They were among the hundred or more guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen at most original entertainment given by them on Sunday evening. It was a musicale and the guests were seated in the hostesses' attractive garden at small tables lighted by candles-here a supper was served shortly before midnight.
