

L'ITALIA E LA GERMANIA IN GUERRA; LA RUMANIA FA GUERRA ALL'AUSTRIA

Gli Alleati Dichiarano alla Grecia Che Essi Non la Difenderanno Contro l'Invasione Bulgara

LA FINE DEGLI ABSBURGO?

ROMA, 28 Agosto. Grandi avvenimenti si sono verificati nella ultima 24 ore. L'Italia ha dichiarato la guerra alla Germania e la Rumania ha dichiarato la guerra all'Austria.

SULLA FRONTE ITALIANA.

Ecco il testo del rapporto del generale Cadorna pubblicato ieri dal Ministero della Guerra.

Sulla fronte del Trentino il nemico ha mostrato considerevole attivita' con la sua artiglieria e i suoi mortai da trincea non solo, ma anche con la fucileria. Però non si e' avuto alcun attacco di fanteria.

Nella zona di Gorizia e sul Carso l'artiglieria nemica ha diretto i suoi tiro contro i ponti dell'Inonzo e le posizioni di fanteria.

La dichiarazione di guerra dell'Italia alla Germania, fatta ieri, completa il cerchio di ferro per quale si trovano presi ora gli imperi centrali.

A Roma hanno luogo oggi dimostrazioni di simpatia per la Rumania che finalmente ha dichiarato la guerra all'Austria e si e' schierata a fianco degli alleati dell'Intesa.

La decisione definitiva della Rumania e' stata raggiunta ieri in un consiglio della Corona. Essa mettera' in campo da 5 a 600,000 uomini contro gli imperi centrali, giacche' si aspetta che la Germania dichiarerà la guerra alla Rumania.

Si dice che l'esercito rumeno e' stato messo agli ordini del generale Averescu, già ministro della Guerra.

Si aspetta ora quello che fara' la Grecia. Un telegramma da Atene dice che il re Costantino ha nominato comandante in capo dell'esercito ellenico il generale Moschopoulos, che nutre sentimenti amichevoli per le potenze dell'Intesa.

Un comunicato diramato oggi dall'Agencia Stefani dice che l'Italia ha dichiarato la guerra alla Germania perche' questa ha materialmente aiutato l'Austria, inviandole forze di terra e di mare a mettersi alla testa della offensiva.

Ad eccezione della conquista di Gorizia nessun'altra notizia della guerra aveva sollevato tanto entusiasmo in Italia come la notizia della dichiarazione di guerra alla Germania.

A Roma una gran folla si raccolse subito in Piazza Cavour dove si formo' un lunghissimo corteo che percorse le vie principali della citta' gridando "Abbasso la Germania! Viva gli Alleati!"

Solo poche ore prima che fosse dichiarata la guerra alla Germania era stato pubblicato un decreto col quale si conferiva il Palazzo Venezia, che per secoli era stato in possesso dell'Austria, un vero covo straniero nel cuore di Roma, dove tutte le trame a danno dell'Italia venivano ordite.

Il palazzo era proprieta' del papa, ma nel 1566 era stato regalato dal papa Pio VI alla Repubblica di Venezia.

Arrangements are being made today for the funeral of Joseph Callen, 19 years old, of 5117 Pine street, son of Edward Callen, Philadelphia real estate operator, who was drowned at Ocean City yesterday.

Miss Dorothy Deal, 16 years old, of 5109 Pine street, a cousin of the drowned boy, was rescued by the guard in an exhausted condition, but soon recovered.

City Treasurer Clarence S. Scull, of Ocean City, had a narrow escape from drowning. He and his wife were carried beyond their depth and were brought in by other bathers.

GIRL BATHER LOST IN RIVER Philadelphia Steps Into Deep Water. Rescue Attempt Fails

Miss Emma-Gould, 22 years old, Race street near Twenty-second, stepped into deep water while bathing in a river near Beatystown, N. J., late yesterday afternoon and was drowned.

Miss Gould had been bathing with her sister and a young man. Wading out into the water farther than her companions, she suddenly screamed and sank.

LACK OF WATER KEEPS BIG FACTORIES AWAY

Chief Davis Urges Conservation of Supply and Plans Many Improvements

Carlston E. Davis, chief of the Water Bureau, has pointed out a reason for immediate conservation of the water supply while means are being found to increase that supply beyond a stage of having to worry about it.

In the various hot periods in this city in the last two months there has been almost a water famine, Chief Davis said, especially in that part of Philadelphia south of Vine street and between the rivers.

His first suggestion is that water meters would make water users economical. He believes that a great deal of the present trouble is due to waste, and says water meters would stop that because people will not waste what they must pay for.

Chief Davis wants money enough to pay for improvements that will place the source of supply far ahead of the present one and remove any fear for concern. He wants $5,000,000 to do work he thinks must be done very soon.

Chief Davis is leaving that part of it to the Mayor and the Finance Committee of Councils. It cannot be done before February. The meters ought to be installed now, he thinks.

DEMOCRATIC PROGRAM FACES SENATE REVOLT

Regulars Must Fight Underwood, Owen and Smith, of South Carolina

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Faced by a three-cornered party revival, Democratic Senate leaders today renewed their efforts to force through the "regular" legislative program in time to permit President Wilson to go to Shadow Lawn, Long Branch, for the notification ceremony next Saturday.

Every parliamentary expedient was put into play by the "regular" leaders to prevent further delay on the emergency revenue bill and to block the insurgent movement for consideration of the immigration and corrupt practices bills.

The revolt, led by Senator Underwood, of Alabama, against the caucus agreement on the revenue bill, with the opposition of other Senators to the proposed amendments, threatened to delay a vote on that measure until tomorrow or Wednesday.

Smith, of South Carolina, will make a final effort to compel action on the immigration bill at this session. The "regulars" were confident they could muster enough strength to break down both these movements.
