THE BLOW THAT TOOK THE HEART OUT OF THE ROBINS

Luderus scored a knockout in the fourth inning when he sent one of Marquard's fast ones over the right field fence for the second and deciding run of the first game. Luderus is seen jogging over the plate with Marquard and his chief consoler and adviser, Jake Daubert, conferring in the center of the battlefield. Marquard's other lieutenants are helplessly watching the Phils' captain dent the home station.

CHAMPIONS BEHIND IN QUALIFYING ROUND AT MERION

MERION GOLF CLUB, Sept. 4 .- Chick Evans, open champion of the United States, and Bob Gardner, the amateur champion, were far behind the leaders today in the qualifying round of the amateur golf championship of the United States. Evans had an S2 and Gardner an 73. Both played their first round over the east course, where the scores were uniformly high. Philadelphians in the tournament fared well. Gcorge Hoffner, the youthful comet from Woodbury, who was a semifianlist in the Philadelphia championship, led the whole field at the west course for most of the morning.

GOMPERS SAYS LABOR WILL FIGHT STRIKE PROBES

LEWISTON, Me., Sept. 4 .- Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a Labor Day address here this afterneon, served notice on the nation that organized labor would fight to the last to prevent laws compelling Federal investigation into labor difficulties before strikes are called. Gompers bitterly denounced the Republican party, held up the Democratic party as the "only true political friends of labor," and declared the A. F. of L. had been instrumental in getting the Wilson Administration to recognize Carranza as head of the Mexican Government, and in preventing armed intervention in Mexico.

New Code of Laws to Govern Railroads Coming Up at Next Session

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 .- National leaders of labor, at their headquarters here today, called this the greatest Labor Day in history. Coming contemporaneously with the settlement, temporarily, at least, of the greatest industrial demand that ever threatened the nation, national leaders of labor declared that this Labor Day heralded the coming of increased power for labor.

With the eight-hour day for rallway operative employes recognized and legalized by Congress and the Administration, labor leaders say their victory, won within a comparatively few days, is the first positive step toward granting a national eight-hour workday. Determined, continued fights are now being planned for other legislation for an eight-hour day.

With the absence of Samuel Gompers. president of the American Federation of Labor, who will make an address in Lewiston, Me., there was no official labor event in Washington today. Members of the local unions attended out-of-door exercises day.

ADVANCEMENT IN YEAR

Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, was spokesman for labor by issuing a statement summarizing labor's advancement in the last year, "It is impossible to record fundamental gains during the year because of organized labor's agitation, or to individualize probable gains during the coming year." he said. "The best we can do is to observe tendencies. Prominent among these is the workers' selzure of the cry for 'preparedness' to emphasize a danger in industry more dangerous than battlefields.

"Government statistics show that 30,000" men are annually killed and 700,000 are annually injured.

"It has been stated that there are more than three million cases of illness annually among industrial workers, caused mainly by long hours, low wages, dust, bad air. fumes. smoke, poisonings and similar causes, and that through typhold fever and malaria alone, $900,000,000 annually is lost to this nation-enough to equip the largest army and navy in the world, and then have a balance sufficient to pay the tuition of every American boy now in college.

NEW LAWS PLANNED

A complete new code of laws to govern the railroads of the country is to be sidered by Congress at the short session which begins in December. A thorough investigation of the present projected and needed Federal legislation regarding interstate commerce will be begun at once by the recently created joint congressional committee on the subject. Senator Newlands, chairman of the joint committee, said today that work would begin immediately after the adjournment of Congress, expected by Thursday.

"The joint subcommittee named to study the railroad situation," said Senator Newlands, "has already organized and will begin its investigations at once. The committee will continue to work throughout the recess of Congress and will endeavor to submit a report as soon as Congress reconvenes in December. Of course, the committee will consider legislation necessary to prevent a recurrence of the strike crisis just averted. The legislation passed on Saturday deals with only a part of the problem and was put through as an emergency measure. The committee will go over the entire railroad labor situation as over the entire railroad labor situation as well as other branches of the subject." Under the law signed by Freedent Wil-on yesterday, the legal eight-hour day pay haps on railroads does not become effective until January 1, 1917, and before that date Congress may have before it a complete revision of the railroad law at the country. It is certain that the hearings of the point committee will be seised upon as an opportunity for airing the entire eight-hour day controversy, with the railroads, the labor organizations and the shippers of the country participating. Up to date the railroad representatives in Washing-ton have sought to peapone the openities of the investigation, but hoy are exocuted to aid in expediling the hearings as a result to aid in expediting the hearings as, a re of the passage of the sight-hour law,
