German-Bulgar Forces Advance in Rumanian Thrust

HALT FOE'S MARCH IN TRANSYLVANIA

Captured Two Towns in Invasion of Dobrudja District

Czar's Forces Expected to Check Move on Rumanian Capital

BERLIN, Sept. 5 .- Bulgarian forces have captured the Rumanian town of Dobric, 12 miles inside the Rumanian frontier, it was officially announced this afternoon. German airships have again bombarded Bucharest.

With the apparent object to halt the Rumanian invasion of Transylvania by compelling the withdrawal of troops from that front to defend Bucharest, the German-Bulgar army is pushing its advance into Rumania across the Dobrudja district. Sofia today reports that the invaders have advanced 30 miles into Rumania, capturing the towns of Kurt, Bunar and Akkadunlar. At one point, the Sofia report states, the Teuton-Bulgar forces are only 65 miles from Bucharest, the Rumanian capital. That the invasion of Rumania has already produced its effect upon the operations in Transylvania is evidenced in the report from Berlin that the Rumanians have been checked on both wings.

Russian cavalry has defeated Bulgarian cavalry in the first clash on Rumanian soil, Petrograd reports. Russian troops are arriving in Bulgaria by land and sea and a great battle between the opposing forces is expected to take place soon on Rumanian soil. Further successes for the Russians on the Sereth, in Volhynia, and in the Carpathians are reported.

Despite the clear intention of the Germans to halt the entrance of Greece into the war on the side of the Allies Bucharest, Athens reports that the Greek Cabinet has approved a declaration of war against Bulgaria. No confirmation of the report is obtainable,

BULGARS AND GERMANS ADVANCE 30 MILES INTO RUMANIAN TERRITORY

SOFIA, Sept. 5 .- Bulgarian and German troops that invaded Rumania have advanced about thirty miles into Rumanian territory, and one army is only 56 miles "A'S" ENTERTAIN from Bucharest, the Rumanian capital, according to the following official statement issued here today:

On our northern front we have crossed the entire Dobrudia frontier, driving back the enemy. We have oc-cupled Kurt Bunar, the enemy retreat-ing and leaving many dead behind. We have also taken Akkaduniar.

BERLIN, Sept. 5. The Rumanians have been checked on both wings in their invasion of Transylvania and are in retreat before German and Bulgarian forces invading southeastern Rumania.

Budapest dispatches today reported a halt in the Rumanian advance near Orsova, on the extreme Austrian right wing. After withdrawing to the west bank of the Cerna River the Austrians warded off all Rumanian attacks and the Austrian artillery tore great gaps in the Rumanian lines.

In the north, on the Austrian left wing, the Rumanians croased the Gyergo Szent Mikles pass, opposed only by Austrian rear guardz. But when they attempted to fight their way across the Marcs River, near the railway, they were abruptly halted by artillery fire.

Even in the center, where the Austrians attempted no strong stand, the Rumanian advance is now making very slow progress. The Budapest newspaper, As Est, reported that the Rumanians have been unable to follow up their advantage in this region because their transportation system has fallen down badly under conditions of modern warfars. In some cases two or three days after the Austrians have evacuated villages, the Rumanians have been unable to press

Crucial Series in National League Starts With Associations Best Hurlers

By CHANDLER D. RICHTER BRAVES' FEILD, Boston, Mass., Sept. .-Alexander the Great went to the mound in the first game of today's double-header white Jess Barnes, who has been unusually effective against the Phillies, was selected by Manager Stallings to keep the Braves in first place.

At least $5,000 spectators were expected today, but when the first game started less than 10,000 persons were on hand, as the day was too cool. The thermometer took a sudden drop this morning and the sun disappeared. A cold wind blowing across the field made it extremely unpleasant for players and fans, while fly balls bothered

The present series is the most important of the season in the National League, as it is generally believed that either the Phillies or Braves will be put out of the running ; the two teams started "riding" each other right from the jump.

"Rabbit" Maranville, the Braves' wonderful shortstop, sustained a fractured nose fielding a ground ball in the afternoon game yesterday, but he insisted on playing today The Phils got the first run of the game, when Niehoff stole home as Cravath pilfered second. The Braves assumed the lead in the fifth when Wilhoit pinch-batted and singled, scoring Ronetchy, followed by another tally made on Barnes's infield out Smith scoring. Three singles were made off Alex in this round. A sixth-inning rally of three hits, aided by Chappelle's throw, which hit Cravath, gave Moran's men three runs and the lead again. Stock, Cravath and Whitted were the men to cross the plate.

FIRST INNING

Smith made a gloved-hand stop and threw out Paskert. Niehoff singled to center and stole second. Stock sent a long fly to Magee, Niehoff taking third after the catch. Cravath walked. The double steal was successful, Niehoff scoring as Cravath stole second. Magee pulled down Whitted's long drive. One run, one hit, no errors.

Bancroft threw out Maranville. Snod-grass was called out on strikes. Luderus made a great catch of Bancroft's throw, retiring Chappelle. No runs, no hits, no errors.

15,000 SLAVES OF DOPE EVIL IN THIS CITY

CALL FOR THE INQUIRY To the Editor of the Evening Ledger: Sir—As a member of a committee of citizens who have been investigating the narcotic drug habit in this city I have been appalled by the increase in the use of these drugs which has occurred since the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court Uniting the efficiency of the Harrison antinarcotic law.

The spread of the drug habit con-stitutes, in my opinion, a real national The injurious effect of narcotic drugs on the moral and physical health of the victims is, I believe, an important factor in the amount of crime commit-ted in Philadelphia. Would it not be fitting that your would it not be fitting that your newspaper, as one interested in the welfare of the community, should make known to the public the true state of offairs in this city! If the situation were generally known and the danger appreciated I feel sure that such a pub-lic sentiment would be aroused that lic sentiment would be aroused that some remedy for the evil would be quickly provided. Yours truly, DR. HORATIO C. WOOD, Jr.

Doctor Wood is a member of the citizens' committee appointed about a year ago by United States District At-torney Francis Fisher Kane for the investigation of the narcotic-drug evil in Philadelphia. Doctor Wood also is chairman of the narcotic drugs com-mittee of the Philadelphia County Medical Society.

More than 15,000 persons in all walks o life, residents of Philadelphia and its im mediate vicinity, are slaves of the "dope" habit. These figures, vouched for by officials and physicians best qualified to make such estimates, and appalling as they are do not in any way convey 'he full import of the facts behind them.

For if the 15,000 were confined to the criminal class it might be said that the healthy members of the social organism were not imperiled. But among them, ac cording to the findings of an investigation now complete and ripe for action, are hun dreds of persons accounted respectable, in trusted with work requiring consummate skill and unquestioned character for the conservation of health and property-surgeons, lawyers, bankers, professional men of brilliancy, business men of ability-ability that is real but trembling on the verge of disaster to themselves and their clients, tients or associates.

The matter of supplying the addicts is largely in the hands of a criminal "dope syndicate," which dispenses that trilogy of modern tragedy-morphine, cocaine and heroin; what the emasculated Harrison act calls "opium or coca leaves or any compound, manufacture, salt, derivative or preparation thereof." The profits of this syndicate are at least $12,000 a day. Hundreds of pounds of "dope" are distributed clandestinely every month in Philadelphia. There is more than $1,000,000 worth of MERION CRICKET CLUB. HAVER-FORD, Pa., Sept. 5 .- More than 500 mornng fans were thrilled by the first round of match play today at the Merion Golf Club for the amateur golf championship of the United States. Chick Evans, open champion of America and considered abroad as America's finest player, was only 1 up at the end of the first 18 holes of the all-day grind. He was matched up with Nelson Whitney, the southern phenom, who recently won the invitation todrney at Southampton and figured prominently in the national last year.

The golf of the open champion was not very speedy as to score, mostly for the reason that he missed putts time and again. Evans certainly justified the title he bears Cady for the Red Sox. Brown played right as the country's "worst" putter. He will have to speed up his game considerably this afternoon in order to come through in his fond ambition, the winning of the amateur championship. He once was a finalist, but he never has been able to burst out in front.

Bob Gardner, the present champlon, had little trouble with John M. Ward, a former star shortstop of the New York Giants and Brooklyn Fed magnate, as well as veteran golfer. Gardner was 8 up, which was almost too much for the veteran Ward to overcome when he teed off this afternoon in the second round.

George Hoffner, Woodbury, one of the best local players that qualified, was 2 down at the end of the first round to Clark E. Corkrau, whose 79 was botter ahan Hoffner's 35.

tended the funeral services for ex-Governor Samuel W. Pennypacker in Christ Episcopal Church, Second street above Market, at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The funeral procession was led by the Rev. Louis C. Washburn, rector of Christ Church. Following in the line were Bishop Darlington, of the diocese of Harrisburg; Governor Martin G. Brumbauge, ex-Governors Tener and Stuart, ex-Judge Sulaberger and Justice John Stewart, of the Supreme Court. Following were Judges Dallett and Barratt. Mrs. Pennypacker, accompanied by her son and three daughters, followed the hono rary pallbearers. The casket in which the body of the ex-

Governor had been placed was of dark mahogany, and was covered to a depth of many inches with purple and white asters. Many persons prominent in the political life of the State were noticed among the friends who had assembled to pay their last respects to their former colleague and friend. Among them were Michael J. Ryan, William A. Mages, former Mayor of Pittaburgh; Provost Edgar Faha Smith Colonel Lawis E. Beitler, Thomas H. Garvin, chief clerk of the House of Representatives; Thomas L. Montgomery, State Librarian; Walter George Smith, member of the committee for uniform legislation; Bromley Wharton and Senator Ernest L.

Fifteen members of the Frederick Taylor Camp. Post No. 19, of the G. A. R., were also among those who attended the service. It became known yesterday that former Governor Pennypacker had written a history of his life from the days of his youth up to the time he left the assentive chair at Harrichurg. This autobiography was completed some minuths ago.

POLICE SEEK BOATMEN

SISTERS DIE IN RIVER While rivermen drag the Delaware for the bodies of Alice Mausaner, 17 years old, of 1910 Bridge street, Frankford (upper), and her sister Jennie, 19 years old (lower), today, police are searching for the occu-pants of a motorboat which over-turned the canoe of which the girls were occupants yesterday.

Hundreds of residents of Frankford lines the banks of the Delaware today and watched the police search for the bodies of Jennie and Alice Maussner, 19 and 17 years old, who were drowned yesterday when their canoe was upset by four men in a motorboate

The river opposite Lardner's Point, where the tragedy occurred, is dotted with craft of all kind. Their crews are helping those of the police boat Ashbridge and Stokley to search for the bodies. The white-haired father of the girls patrolled the river bank since early morning watching the surface of the river. He is on the verge of collapse. Tears have given way to quiet resignation. Frequently be declared that if he had the men who caused the death of his daughters he would show them no mercy. He said their action in upsetting the boat was nothing less than cold-blooded murder. FAMILY'S FRIENDS AROUSED

His indignation is shared by the section. It is likely if the men were found by the people there would be little time wasted in legal steps. The mother of the girls, who is at her home, 1910 Bridge street, does not realize that her daughters are dead. The woman is dazed by the tragedy. She half expects to see her girls come home happy and laughing as they left, The girls were good swimmers, and Jan-
