

BUSINESS AND SPORT GREET THE MAN WITH THE CAMERA WHEN ON THE LOOKOUT FOR NOVELTY

TODAY'S PLAYERS TAKE YESTERDAY'S PLAYGROUND
The Belmont Cricket Club headquarters, at Forty-ninth street and Kingsessing avenue, once the home of champions of the flat bat and the leveled crease, is being razed that the children of the neighborhood may use the site as a recreation center.

CHAMPIONS OF THE NET COMPETE AT CYNWYD
Golf does not attract all the devotees of field sports to our suburban athletic arenas. Here we find ourselves looking on at the stars of tennis, the players being, left to right, Williams, Griffin, Mikami and Kumague.

A QUAKER SUFFRAGIST

Mrs. J. Harlan Landis, of Lewistown, Pa., the only Quaker-garbed delegate to the Atlantic City convention. Next to her is Mrs. C. J. Campbell, another delegate, beside whom stands Mrs. Jessie C. MacIver, of Toronto, the knitting suffragist.

Photo by Evening Ledger Universal Animated Weekly.
"WE NEED YOU, HUGHES!" THEY SAY
But they mean Colonel Sam, for they are Canadian women, not suffragists of Republican proclivities.

A "MOSQUITO" AND A BULLDOG
The Sunbeam II, owned by Robert M. Ingersoll, is approaching dangerously close to the battleship New Jersey. But the colossal craft is lying at anchor off Gravesend and doesn't heed the maneuver.

Photo by Evening Ledger Universal Animated Weekly.
ENVY OF PHILADELPHIA ANGLERS
It's a 515-pound sea bass, the largest catch of 1916, and was made off Catalina Island, California.