

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

WEDNESDAY
September 13, 1916

PICTURESQUE HAPPENINGS IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY PORTRAYED BY THE CAMERA MAN

By Ledger Photo Patrol.
THE FALL MATINEE GIRL EMERGED TODAY
All the theaters being open, feminine patrons got a chance to show their new autumn clothes this afternoon.

By Ledger Photo Patrol.
FINE WEATHER WE'VE BEEN HAVING, EVEN IF IT IS A BIT DRY
A glimpse of Market street at the hour when pedestrians are thickest. The fall temperature is making street traffic noticeably brisker and is luring forth the family buyers.

By Ledger Photo Patrol.
PHI BETA KAPPA COUNCIL BRINGS MEN OF EMINENCE TO THE CITY
In the rear are President Hollis Godfrey, of Drexel Institute (right), and Prof. George D. Hadszits, of the University of Pennsylvania. Others notable in the group are Prof. Clark S. Northrup, of Cornell; Prof. L. W. Reid, of Haverford; President Charles W. Thwing, of Northwestern; Dean E. A. Birge, of Wisconsin; Rev. Oscar M. Voorhees, of New York; Prof. E. A. Grosvenor, of Amherst; Editor Albert Shaw, Prof. Samuel Hart, of Wesleyan; Prof. F. W. Shepardson, of Chicago, and Treasurer Davis Layton, of New York.

Photo by International Film Service.
THE JITNEY DOES THE WORK WHILE THE NEW YORK TRANSIT STRIKE IS ON
The telephone company brings its girls from widely separated sections of the city on improvised buses, which are welcomed as a relief from crowded cars.

By Ledger Photo Patrol.
WATERWAYS DELEGATES EMBARK FOR RIVER TRIP TO TRENTON
Here is a scene on the deck of the Queen Anne, showing the deeper waterways advocates and their womenfolk starting for the Jersey capital, where they will be extensively entertained and spoken to.

By Ledger Photo Patrol.
IF ONE MUST SWEEP DUST ACROSS THE STREETS, WHY NOT SPRINKLE IT?
Showing how, despite many appeals and repeated warnings, business houses still permit their employes to sweep the floor debris from their stores directly across the pavements, to be inhaled by all passing pedestrians.