WHEAT GOES DOWN ON HEAVY SELLING

Strength Is Shown at Start by Longs Adding to Their Holdings-Clearances Small

CHICAGO, Sept. 14. — Heavy selling broke the wheat market today after it had shown strength. Early in the session longs added to their holdings, having derived oucouragement from a continued demand for the cash article at stiff premiums in all markets, including those of Canada. There also was some important new buying then. Enthusiasm of the buils was checked by conditions in the Balkans.

Clearances from the seaboard were small. Shipments from Argentina for the week were estimated at $00,000 bushels, against 1.080,000 bushels last week.

1,080,000 bushels last week.

There were reports that sales of abou 200,000 bushels of durum had been mad to the Greek Government.

There was a good deal of excitement. The close was well above the bottom. Expor-sales were estimated at 1,000,000 bushels. Cargoes at Liverpool were firm. Cables confirmed heavy import requirements

Italy's needs will exceed those of the past season, when they amounted to $7,320,000 bushels, as harvesting returns are disappointing. Holland will require at least 24,000,000 bushels compared with 14,820,000 bushels in the season just ended.

FURS IN VARIED STYLES

ATTRACT AUTUMN BUYERS D. B. DeMany, of Mawson & DeMany, 1115 Chestnut St., Tells of Opportunies

Furs in bountiful quantities and in deeigns both pleasing and artistic feature the exhibit of Mawson and DeMany, furriers, at 1115 Chestnut street, who are having one of the most successful annual September sales they ever had.

Resides the display of fur coats and sets, the most successful feature of the sale, according to David B. DeMany, is the fact that twenty per cent reduction is allowed on any purchase made until the end of this month. To add to the convenience offered customers, he said, furs purchased this month will be held in storage until the customer may wish them, upon the payment of a small deposit. Bills for purchases made this month will not be rendered until December 1, upon request. The discount plan, Mr. DeMany said, was proving very successful. owed on any purchase made until the end

The display includes an enormous assort-ment of Hudson seal and moleskin coats, which Mr. DeMany said will be in vogue. Many of these have the new Puritan col-lars, which are both artistic and warm at the same time.

Many of the coats are flare or loose etyle, while coats with tight-fitting waists also are exhibited. Another feature is the contrasting borders, collars and cuffs, which will predominate next fall. Fox sets in attractive models are shown in various colors, including battleship gray, slate, blue, rose and waite. Many Russian sable sets also are attractively displayed.

BAND SEASON IS OVER, BUT WHY SHOULD PHONOGRAPH FANS WORRY?

Recent Recordings Furnish Fine Program Material for Concerts These Cool Autumn Evenings-Variety of Numbers Described-More Listed in Catalogs

By the Phonograph Editor

Although the park concert band season | rhythm is heard again, but only for a monded with Labor Day, owners of phonegraphs have the opportunity always at hand to have their band programs at home these early autumn evenings when the chill in the air makes the veranda too cool for comfort

A very interesting record is "Ruy Blas Overture," played by the band of H. M. Grenadier Guards, which has just been is-Grendler Guards, which has just been issued by the Columbia Company. Mendels—sohn said of the composition: "It gave me more fun than anything I ever composed." Though it only occupied him three days, the Muse worked hard and wonder music resulted. It opens with a burst of sound; trumpets announce the approach of royalty; the music takes on a majestic tone; and toward the end a solemn melody wanders up from the bass.

The Victor Concert Orchestra offers two parts of Grieg's ever-popular Peer Gynt Suite, No. 1, "Anitra's dance" and "In the Hall of the Mountain King." The third movement of this popular suite, scored for strings, accompanies the dancing of Anitra, the beautiful daughter of a Bedouin chief-with whom Peer Gyns now discussed as with whom Peer Gynt, now disguised as a prophet, is enamored. The music is charmingly expressive of the sinuous, lithe, graceful movements by which the dusky maiden rivets the chains of infatuation round the heart of the false prophet.

The American Symphony Orchestra plays a double Edison record, inclusive of the three parts of Alexander Luigini's "Ballet Egyptian," which was danced here in spectacular fashion by Pavlowa and her corps de ballet at the Metropolitan Opera House at the opening of the last musical season. Of all the many ballets Luigini composed, the "Ballet Egyptian" is the most popular. The ballet is in three parts, the first two given on one side of the record, and tho third on the other side. Parts 1 and 2 are in a rapid, whirling tempo all through. The basic theme has that mystic charm suggestive of Egypt, and the rhythm calls to mind a nimble corps of dancers flitting to and fro. Part 3 of the ballet opens with an andante movement, in which the harp is prominent. The ensuing theme is in a melancholy mood, slow and sedate. Later on the allegro double Edison record, inclusive of the rhythm is heard again, but only for a moment.

Two double records are performed for the Victor by the Hurtado Brothers' Royal Marfinba Band. These are on one "Cavalleria Rusticana." intermezzo, Mascagni, and "Fading Leaves," serenata. Carroll: and on the other "Artist's Life Walts," Strauss, and "American Airs," medley, including "Dill Pickles," "Sleep Baby, Sleep," "American Patrol," "Girl I Left Behind me," "Dixie," "Yankee Doodle." When Sobastian Hurtado, of Querasllenango, Guatemala, first began experimenting with the Marimba it had only one keyboard, with but sight notes in the scale. Mr. Hurtado added other keys and greatly improved the tone, gradually perfecting the instrument until it became capable of producing beautiful effects. His boys became interested, and some of them began to play the marimba at six and seven years of age. The young men soon became famous in Guatemala and finally decided to make a tour of Europe. Their success on the Continent was immediate and crowded houses greeted them in Paris. Vienna, Budapest, Berlin, London and many other cities. After their trhumphal tour the Hurtados returned to Guatemala, but were soon engaged for the Panama-Pacific Exposition, where they made a success, and were awarded the Medal of Honor.

Here is a record for the patriots of 16: "Medley of American Patriotic Aira," a new record from Columbia. The Columbia Band excels itself in this stirring rendition of the battle songs of our fore-fathers. If those who believe America is not "ready" will turn this medley loose anywhere in the U. S. A., they may have cause for embarrassment. We all low to hear these old patriotic airs. Even the baby is enough of a patriot to applicant them.

If the man from Missouri wants to be plaud them.

If the man from Missourl wants to be "sbown" a new waltz that will overcome his skepticism and make him feel right at home, he has but to listen to Columbia's late recording, "Missouri Waltz." This charming waltz was adapted from an original melody procured by J. C. Appel and arranged by F. K. Logan. Prince's Orchestra plays it in the usual Prince fashion, and it is predicted that "Missouri Waltz" will prove most popular with the dancers of every State in the Union.
