

MARION HARLAND'S HELPING-HAND CORNER-GOOD FORM-FASHIONS-QUERIES

IS A MAN FONDER OF HIS WORK THAN HE IS OF HIS WIFE?

Though She May Possess the Charms of Cleopatra and the Faithfulness of Penelope, the Wise Wife Knows That Work Comes First

It's a wise wife who knows her proper place in her husband's affections. She must be unto him the uncompromising confidante of all he cares to tell her, but no more.

I have begged him to change his position, but he won't give it up. Please tell me what to do. J. S. C.

One thing I would most strongly advise and this is to stop begging him to leave his work. Any woman who looks the matter squarely in the face will realize that work is the greatest interest in a man's life.

Don't cry for the stars because your natural conceit—aided and abetted by the flattering things he told you when he was courting—makes you think that you are first in his affections. You just aren't.

And don't try to topple over his idol. He thinks that position is the right one or he wouldn't keep it, and he gives it his best thought and effort that you may benefit from it.

He is probably tired when he comes home at night. He wants his nap and his pipe. A fussy woman in the background is not conducive to rest and quiet.

Dear Madam—Can you tell me what the name Lucy means? Your other child will be named in the Fashion Expert column on Saturday.

Remedy for Moths. In trouble I come to the Corner. We recently bought a home and found it infested with moths of two or three varieties.

Ants in the Refrigerator. Can you help me free my house of large black ants? They live in the walls of the refrigerator, and come into the provision chamber through the crevices where the lines of the door join.

Use a Fork. Dear Deborah Rush—Is it ever allowable to eat watermelon with a fork or spoon—(that is, to eat it as one would a quartet)? CHARLEY.

Finances Is Always Invited. Dear Deborah Rush—Is it usual for a girl who is engaged to be invited to the house of her fiancé's friends before she has introduced to them? I am eighteen years old and am engaged to a young man of twenty-five.

Cleans Bronze

To clean bronzes, wash with fine whiting or powdered saffron until the face is smoothed, then rub with the plumbeous and saffron, which will give the warm color.

Cookery Hints

Meat must only be reheated, and use good gravy or stock, and season it. It is necessary to allow the meat to lie in the gravy or stock before reheating.

Autumn Style Hints

Neats are most important of all faces. The crowns of the newest hats are higher. White corduroy is used a great deal for sport coats.
