

ILLUSTRATED Evening Ledger

TUESDAY
September 26, 1916

SIDELIGHTS REFLECTED ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY FROM HOME AND ABROAD

ENGLAND'S PERFECTED ANTI-AIRCRAFT DEFENSE IS BEGINNING TO PROVE ITS USEFULNESS. OF THE TWELVE ZEPPELINS WHICH INVADED THE BRITISH ISLES SATURDAY NIGHT TWO WERE BROUGHT DOWN. THIS IS AN ARTIST'S IMPRESSION OF THE HUGE AIRBOAT HALTED IN ITS FLIGHT BY A SHELL AND PLUNGING TO ITS DESTRUCTION BELOW. Drawn by an Evensing Lawson artist from cabled reports.

AMERICAN HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION IN CONVENTION HERE

More than 1000 delegates have arrived in Philadelphia to attend the eighteenth annual convocation of the American Hospital Association. The photograph shows, from left to right, Dr. Asa S. Bacon, Chicago, treasurer; Dr. A. H. Walsh, chairman of the committee on arrangements; Dr. Winford H. Smith, superintendent of Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, and president of the association, and Dr. H. K. Mohler, of the Jefferson Hospital, Philadelphia.

VARE MEN OFF TO CLUB CONVENTION IN YORK

Special trains took a delegation of 500 Republicans from this city today to York, where the presidential campaign in this State will be opened at the annual convention of the State League of Republican Clubs. Though Vare supporters predominated, there were Fenwick-McNichol delegations, too.