ed the graduates and students said.

The motives which actuated the members of the board of trustees of Jefferson Medical College to enter into these aggetiations were an unselfish desire to further the great cause of medical education in Pennsylvania, and to increase the usefulness of Jefferson Medical College to the medical profession and its students, by securing to them the benefits of large endowments which it was hoped might result from a union. No arrangement was, or ever will be, favorably considered by the board of trustees which will result in lessening the importance of Jefferson Medical College in the medical world, or which might cause its graduates to be less proud of its position and influence than they now are.

If the agreement shall be finally con-

If the agreement shall be finally consummated, it will be only on a basis that will redound in additional usefulnose, prestige and glory for Jefferson and its graduates. Should the support accorded to the institution by its alum-ni and others be sufficiently generous, it might entirely obviate any ne-cessity for further consideration of radical alteration in the conduct of its affairs.

REPUBLICANS LEAVE TO OPEN CAMPAIGN

Members of State League Clubs Attend Convention in York

More than 500 Philadelphia Republicans, most of them followers of the Vares, left Broad Street Station at 9:30 o'clock this morning to attend the formal opening of the Republican presidential campaign in Pennsylvania at the annual convention of the State League of Republican Clubs at York.

Mayor Smith and Congressman Vare headed the Philadelphia delegation, which left on two special trains. Every political club in the city, including those affiliated with the Penrose-McNichol machine, was represented on the train, and delegates from these clubs will sit in all of the sessions these clubs will sit in all of the sessions of the convention.

More than 13,000 prominent Republicans from all parts of the State are expected to attend the convention and will hear the opening addresses of the campaign by national and State speakers.

The State League of Republican Clubs is dominated by the Vare-Brumbaugh machine, but the followers of Senator Penrose will attend the convention. The senior Senator himself, however, was not invited and did not leave with the others this morning Before leaving. Mayor Smith, in a formal statement, expressed the conviction that the convention will have a tendency to wipe out factional lines within the Republican party in Pennsylvania.

out factional lines within the Republican party in Pennsylvania.

"There will be many active party men present who have been divided by factional strife within the party for some time," said the Mayor, "and I sincerely hope that this meeting, which I shall attend, will be instrumental in bringing together all Republicans who have the interest of their party at heart."

As a damper on the Mayor's prediction of harmony, however, Governor Brumbaugh, who, with United States Senator Borah, of Idaho, and Philander C. Knox, candidate for United States Senator, will share the speaking honors, will make a bid for the support of all Pennsylvania Republicans in his efforts to establish himself as the G.O. # ONLY 14 CHALMERS CARS PER DEALER ARE LEFT IN THE GREAT $56,000,000 "RUN"

I am but one of 1600 Chalmers Dealers. There are only 20,000 of the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers left. So if I had to take my chance on an even allotment among the 1600, I'd probably get only 14 more of them.

The run on this car has been mastodonic.

I'm lucky to have one left, because the Chalmers Company set out to build only $22,000,000 worth last fall.

These were all built and delivered before the first day of summer came.

Then we got the Chalmers executives to add 10,000. These were pretty well cleared up before the first day of September.

Now we have just got them to build 20,000 more —making 48,000 of the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers all told—just $56,000,000 worth of one model.

So you see it has been like a regular "run" on a bank. Only instead of a bank it has been a car. And a truly magnificent car, too. I attribute the "run" to the wonderful quality in

I find men and women are buying better and better cars every day. Just go down among your acquaintances and note how many of them are driving better cars than they used to. Probably 75 per cent of my sales have been to people who have owned lower priced cars. There's peculiar and interesting kind of a pride in owned a regular car. A man said to me the other days

"I bought a 'price' car a year ago. It was a one-year car. It looked fine and drove well for a while. I got 10,000 miles out of her, but she couldn't stand the racket. I'm all done trying to buy price tags. I used to say I'd never pay more than a certain sum for a pair of shoes.

"I ventured $2 beyond the price one day and, thoroughly to my surprise, I got such a better fit, so much more comfort, so much more in looks, and so much more in wear, that I just figured I'd been a blame fool all these years.

"It's the same way with cars. You get just about what you pay for in a cheap car. It's like advice. I'm paying $300 more for this Chalmers than I paid for my old car. But I can see right away I'm really getting $500 more in car and quality. Besides I'm driving a regular thoroughbred."

There are lots of men like my friend. People don't shop around much in buying meat for the home. A rib roast is a rib roast. If one butcher has rib roast at 2 cents a pound less than the other, it's safe to venture that it's 2 cents a pound inferior meat.

Quality—and the quality scale of life—that is what the American people are seeking today as never before, in my casual observation.

And a great help is a quality car like the 3400 r.p.m. Chalmers. Forget that the price is only $1090 Detroit. The price is not determined by the President of the Company, nor by the Chief Engineer. The price is determined by cost accountants. That accounts for the odd figure $1090.

The sum of $1,000,000 has been added to Chalmers factory equipment since the birth of the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers about a year ago. Added why? Just to make each car a little better than the one that went out the factory door ahead of it.

P. S.—To remind you—the Chalmers Company is building 20,000 more of them. This model will be continued without change in design into
