RRYN MAWR HORSE SHOW OPENS WITH BIGGEST ENTRY LIST

Historic Exhibition on Main Line Promises to Eclipse Brilliant Record of Predecessors

PRIZES EXCEED $10,000

The Bryn Mawr Horse Show opened to-gay on the grounds of the Horse Show Association at Bryn Mawr with an entry list greater in most events than ever before and in some respects exceeding anything the association has known. More than 110,000 in prizes will be awarded to win-ners during the four days of the show, which will close on Tuesday.

which will close on Tuesday.

A cloudy sky with the hint of showers huns over the grounds when the show eyened this morning, but a mild atmosphere and the hope of clearing later lured sut a good-sized throng of spectators and only a few raincoats. Fall costumes have not made their appearance yet, though before the show is over most of the new ideas in dress for both men and women will be

The show will maintain its standard as the best exhibition of hunters in the country, and this year will entablish a new record as having the largest entry of draft horses. The exhibition is noted as the largest hunter show already.

The American Clydesdale Association has made the Bryn Mawr show its official exhibition, and the Percheron Society of America has taken similar action. Both associations will offer a number of special prizes in addition to the horse show prizes awarded by the Bryn Mawr association.

No children will be admitted to the show until Saturday. The State Health Depart-ment has directed that admission be denied children under sixteen years of age until after September 29. The order has caused the shifting of four classes, which were called originally for Thursday, until Satur-day and Monday.

day and Monday.

More than $10,000 in awards will be given. The biggest prize will be the gold challenge cup, offered by Joseph E. Widener. It is valued at $1000, and the first leg was won dast year by Mr. and Mrs. John R. Valentine, of Highland Farm. Bryn Mawr. Challenge cups in the harness and saddle classes will also be offered.

New members of the board of directors this year are J. N. Conyngham, Wilkes-Barre, representing the Clydesdale Association; J. E. White, of Leesburg, Va., representing the Percheron Society, and J. Stanley Reeve, of Haverford.

SOCIETY AT HORSE SHOW

PUTS END TO DULL SEASON

BRYN MAWR, Pa., Sept. 28.—Despite the fact that the sun had refused at first to smile on the opening day of the Horse Show, a goodly number of society folk, in morning frocks and sweaters, appeared early on the scene to see the first events. Owing to the fact that so many persons have prolonged their stays away into the autumn, the season has been very dead so far, and it was a joyous relief to see so many familiar faces around the oval and familiar faces around the oval and Among the early arrivals were Miss Char-lette Rush, who wore a brown cloth suit, a brown velvet toque and a seal fur scarf. An interesting group included Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mather and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown. Miss Elizabeth Miller entertained her two its, Miss Becky White and Miss Mar; Miss sarnes and Miss Sylvia Barnes. Eleanor Robb appeared in a pink sweater and smart brown straw hat. Miss Gladys Earle looked well in a blue sweater and tanor straw sailor.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Chew arrived sarly, Mrs. Chew wearing a resedu green sport suit and smart black velvet hat. With them were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strawbridge. WANTS CUSPIDORS AT SHORE

Mrs. J. Harrison Smith Wants Board walk Improved-Bacharach Disapproves

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 28.—Pretty and ornamental cuspidors in the form of sand boxes along the Boardwalk are necessary, according to Mrs. J. Harrison Smith, who is stopping at the Traymore Hotel.

She advised Mayor Harry B. Bacharach and Health Officer Doctor Taibott by letter that the city should provide such receptacles for comfort and to beautify the big woodenway.

Mrs. Smith. who is a strong advocate of patriotism and hygiene, said in her letter that Atlantic City was a beautiful city and that people came there to rest and regain their health, and it was important to have the sand boxes in order that the health of the community he preserved.

Mayor Bacharach said:

"I do not see the necessity for the cuspidors. A pretty big cuspidor of sand outlines the Boardwalk. I have never seen the ordinance forbidding spitting on the Boardwalk violated. I doubt whether they would ever be used and if the City Commissioners will take any action relative to the matter."

LITTLE GIRL KILLED

BY AN ICE WAGON

Youthful Companions Make Unavailing Efforts to Drag Her From Peril

The efforts of five-year-old Paul Summer and his eight-year-old sister, Loretta, to save little Veronica Summer, three years old, proved futile today when the latter was crushed to death by an ice wagon near her home, at $12 Pine street, Camden. The little girl's mother was standing it a doorway holding a sweater, which she wanted the child to wear while playing. An ice wagon was coming down the stree as the little girl started to get the sweater. The mother shouted to her to wait. Veronica misunderstood and darted in front of the horses. It was then that Paul and Loretta ran to save her. The boy reached out to catch her dress, but was brushed saide by his older sister, who was afraid that he, too, would be killed.

Songs from the Heart of Merry Old Ireland

THE Land of the Shamrock has produced and inspired some of the best-loved "songs of the heart" that have sung their way into our affections.

Chauncey Olcott, among other famous artists, has made some Columbia Double-Disc Records that will touch the very heart-strings of every son of the Emerald Isle. These records by Olcott and others are particularly fine examples:

A 1310 I LOVE THE NAME OF MARY. Chauncey Olcott, Tenor. WHEN IRISH EYES ARE SMILING.

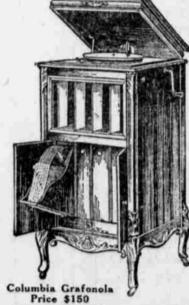

A 1857 MACUSHLA. Hardy Williamson, Tenor. MOTHER MACHREE, Hardy Williamson, Tenor. WHERE THE RIVER SHANNON FLOWS. A 1916

A LITTLE BIT OF HEAVEN. Broadway Quartette.

Whether or not you were born in Ireland, these records will have a message for you: a message of beauty and warmth and perfection, in tone, recording and reproduction.

Look for the "double music-note" trade-mark you will know from these records what it means in music.

We say that advisedly, because every Suit and Overcoat in our store would love to look a flock of sheep in the face—the fleece in the one and on the other would recognize their common kinship.

And our intimate personal knowledge of wool and woolens never stood us in better stead than in the months and months we spent selecting the fabrics that make these Perry selections the absolute criterion of worthiness in Men's and Young Men's Clothes this Fall and Winter.

Take a look at those in our Windows!
