

A LOOK AT THE PHILLIES' BENCH AND A VISIT TO THE NEW GERMAN NAVY YARD RESIDENTS

A "CLOSE-UP" OF THE PHILLIES IN THEIR DUG-OUT SHOWS THEM FULL OF CONFIDENCE AND WITHOUT A TRACE OF NERVOUSNESS

SAILORS OF THE GERMAN RAIDERS BROUGHT TO LEAGUE ISLAND TO BE INTERNED START AT ONCE TO INSTALL THEIR PETS AND TO MAKE THEMSELVES AT HOME
Pork on the hoof seems to appeal peculiarly to the Kaiser's seamen, perhaps because at home the price of it has been lost in the clouds.

Wigwagging from the Prinz Eitel to the Kronprinz Wilhelm on the latter's arrival.

The pets, of which there is an infinite variety, ranging from owls to goats, will occupy a large part of the nine acres allotted to the Germans.
