EVENING LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1915

COURSE, we are all going out St. ] payidsway today for the long-promwhich is to be held on the of the Ferree Brinton place and ish is being given for the benefit of idren's Country Week Association at the Tri-County Suffrage party, I cerhope it will be a success, for I ave been out to Paradise Farm, and it. do your heart good to see how children enjoy the week in the try, which costs those who send so little and gives the wee'sendees much. It hardly seems credible to s of us who have lived mid the green tures and under spreading oak and stnut trees that there are little chilwho have never seen the country, have never been out in the fields with the cows and sheep, who do not know the at smell of new mown hay nor the arrance of flowers in their native : but there are so many of them t is really pathetic, and the joy that this ity gives is surely worth the little of self-denial required to help the

There are to be all sorts of excitein the way of novelties. Alast how ed is that word when used in conwith a lawn fete, for the ingenimind seems to have reached its limit the score of anything new in that "there ain't no such animal." Howwer, these affairs are always fun, and rau see all your friends and you talk and ip and have a gay time generally; and, besides, it boosts the get-together it of the nation, so to speak, so let mall help on the good work, say L.

One of the very clever hits of the aftrnoon will be the performance of George ard Shaw's "Press Cuttings" by a ked number of amateurs, among whom ma Margaret Bradway, Jane Nisbett, Mrs. Nishatt Mitchell, Stewart Clarke, A. M. Kerrigan, Jr., and Maurice du Marals. the latter, by the way, made a great hit hat year in the French version of "The Man Who Married a Dumb Wife." I am cuite looking forward to this production, I assure you.

The teas are coming thick and fast now, and this afternoon the goal of society will " Chestnut Hill, where Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wright Baird will introduce their ter, Gainor Baird, at a most atractive tea. Gainor is very popular in the younger set. She is tall and neither very dark nor very fair, has rather light rown hair and a very charming expres-Receiving with Gainor will be s reat many debs, and, do you know, it lways seems to me the larger the receiving party the more attractive the tea. among this afternoon's bevy of buds will be Pauline Denckla, Isabella Wanamaker, Elimbeth Miller, Sophie Baker, Mary Brooke, Mary Packard, Elizabeth Packard, Lois Jackson, Katharine Lea, Lorine Graham, Elizabeth McMichael, Nancy Tunis, Mary Levering, Margaretta foltz, Margaret Harris, Emily Welsh, Marian Wurts, Alice Janney, Meta Janney, Katharine Hancock, Anne Meirs and nor's cousins, Uytendale Baird and nor Pepper, who both made their debuts last season.

The proverbial little-brother story has ten so run to the ground it seems hard believe that there really are any aughty little brothers around interfering with sister and her best beau, but o exist, alas and alack! as I heard hat week, to the everlasting undoing of all sister's schemes. For sister and the best beau had decided they would not speak of their little "affaire du coeur" for ame time at home for private reasons of their own. Imagine their horror one evening when, father and mother gone to the theater, younger sister off at a party and small brother in bed, they had ned it expedient for the best beau to call, and were seated comfortably in a soluded corner of the porch far, far from the madding crowd, saying sweet whings to each other, when suddenly a mall pink-pajamaed figure appeared and wes voice shouted "Oh, ---! Oh, ---! ---- You kissed her. I'm going to all mamma!" What could they do? was no bribing of small brother. use he was too likely to tell anyhere, and it would have made matters the if, when he did tell, he said that the had told him to keep quiet. Well, the and of it all was they had to tell her and mother before they meant to. Pertunately all went well, and pretty soon they'll let me tell you, too, I think.

not be given up. Mrs. William Anthony Platt will not be present at the dinner dance given for Miss Harris on Friday eve-ning at the Philadelphia Country Club nor at the tea on Saturday at the home of Mr. Francis Taylor Chambers at Penliyn Mrs. Arthur Biddle will take Mrs. Platt's place in introducing Miss Harris, with the Misses Chambers. Mrs. Austin Stevens Heckscher has sent out invitations for a small dance to be given on Saturday night in honor of Miss Suman Lynch Bruce and Mr. Sanuel Chass. whose engagement was recently announced.

Miss Edith T. Gracis, of Washington, Miss Edith T. Gracis, of Washington, entertained yesterday at tea at the Plaza Hotel, New York, in honor of Miss Olivia M. Gazzam, of this city. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Joseph K. Choate. The guests included Mrs. Richard T. Worroll, Mrs. Bayard Haisted, Miss Dorothy Haight, Miss Eva Ingersoll Brown, of New York, and Miss Martha Carrington, of Charleston, S. C.; Mr. George Brokaw, Mr. Reginald Sturgis, Mr. Lee French, Jr., Mr. Thomas Waish, Mr. Mediay Scovil, Mr. William Inness, Mr. Lawrence Sheldon and Mr. Henry Morgan Post.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Andrews Harris, Jr., of West Chestnut avenue, will introduce their daughter, Miss Margaret W. Harris, at a tea on Wednesday, October 11. Those who will assist in receiving include Miss Emily P. Weish, Miss Gainor Owen Baird, Mins Mary Hutchinson Lovering, Miss Patty Borie, Miss Dorothy Emien Newboid, Miss Pauline Dorothy Emien Newboid, Miss Pauline Denckia, Miss Mary F. Packard, Miss Elizabeth W. Packard, Miss Anne W. Meirs, Miss Charlotte Eleanor Pepper, Miss Meirs, Miss Charlotte Eleanor Pepper, Miss Meta M. Janney, Miss Allce B. Janney, Miss Elizabeth Trotter, Miss Dorothy Dry-den, of Newark, N. J., and Miss Natalle Bishop, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Tunis and their daughters. Miss Hilda Tunis and Miss Nancy Tunia, of Media, Pa., have returned to their home from Northeast Harbor, Me., where they have been spending some time this summer. Miss Nancy Tunis will be one of the season's debutantes. this

Mr. and Mrs. Gurnes Munn, of Wash Mr. and Mrs. Gurnee Munn, of Wash-ington, D. C., are spending some time as the guests of Mrs. Munn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rodman Wanamaker, at their home on Washington lane, Chelten Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. Wharton Sinkler and fam lly, of Thornbury, Washington lane, Elkins Park, who have been spending some time at Gloucester, Mass., returned to their home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin C. Lovering, of Rydal, who have been spending several weeks at Jamestown, R. L. have returned to their home. Mr. and Mrs. Corbit Lover-ing and their daughter. Miss Dorothy Lov-ering, of Wyncote road, Jenkintown, who have also been occupying their cottage at Jamestown for the summer, will return home the end of this month.

Mrs. Sarah Hastings, of Harrisburg, Pa., nding several days at the Belle

Mr. and Mrs. James Sill and their daugh ter. Miss Marguerite Sill, of Accomac road and Bent road, Wyncote, who have been spending several weeks at Christmas Cove, Me., returned home last week.

Mrs. E. C. Jennings and her daughter Miss Dorothea Jennings, of Greenwood avenue, Wyncots, who were the guests for several weeks of Mr. and Mrs. John Gribbel at their summer home in Camden, Me., are in Denver, Col. They will make several visits in the West before returning to their home November 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Parker, of 162 West Ninety-third street, New York, are being congratulated on the birth of a Mrs. Parker was Miss Mabel daughter. Celsey, of Chestnut Hill.

The engagement of Miss Beatrice Ivy Leggett Reid to Mr. Earl W. Ewing, of ermantown, is announced Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bashman, of 502

1628 Bridge street, Frankford.

MILITARY WEDDING

come Bride of Lieutenant

Tebbbs, Jr., U. S. M. C.

Wood and Miss Marietta Robinson will be the flower girls. All the ushers being army men, the wed-ding will be a military one. Lieutsnant Tebbs will have his brother, Mr. William Tebbs, of Cincinnati, as best man, and the ushers will be Captain B. W. Sibley, Captain Nelson P. Vulte, Captain H. F. Wirgman, Lieutenant Littleton Waller, Jr., and Lieu-tenant F. S. M. Erskine, all of the United States Marine Corps, and Captain W. E. Duval, of the Coast Artillery Corps, U. S. A., a brother of the bride. Master Grafton Duval, another brother, will carry the pil-lows on which the bridal pair will kneel.

WEATHERLY-BALL

FINDEISEN-Mekke

New York.

MRS. JOHN S. C. HARVEY Mrs. Harvey is one of those who have been ardently promoting the Tricounty Suffrage and Children's Country Week Association fete, which is being held today in St. David's at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferree Brinton.

Brooks and the bridesmalds will be Miss Eleanor Jones, Miss Adiyn Palmer, Mrs. O. Bismark Kleswetter and Miss Inadora Findeisen. The flower girls will be Miss Mar-garet McKee, a sister of the blide, and Miss Charlotte Findelsen.

Mr. Findelsen will have Mr. O. Bismark Kleswetter, of Noble, as best man, and the unhers will be Mr. Albert Findelmen, of Frankford; Mr. Roy McKee, Mr. Howard McKee, Mr. James McCutcheon, After an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Findei-sen will be at home in Frankford, Pa.

BAUER-ENDICOTT.

A marriage of much interest will take A marriage of muon interest on take place this evening at 7 o'clock in St. Paul's Memorial Church, Overbrook, when Miss Minnis Bradford Endicott, daughter of Mrs. Henry Bridges Endicott, of Merlon, will be married to Mr. Guy Sinig Bauer, of Lansdowne.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. William R. Turner, rector of the church. The bride will be given in marsister, Mins Anna Endicott, as maid of honor. Her other attendants will be Miss Lily Endicott another sister: Miss Marion Faust, Miss Mary Ker Christian, Miss Katherine Wood, Mrs. Donald Irwin and Mrs. Robert Nichols.

Mr. Donald Irwin, of Overbrook, will act as best man, and the following men as ushers: Mr. Waldo Phillips, Mr. Spencer Haikett, Mr. J. Milton Hagy and Mr. Robert Wilson

LAING-PINIC A wedding of interest in the northern section to take place this evening in the Hebron Memorial Presbyterian Church, Twenty-fifth and Thompson streets, will be that of Miss Dorothy Annette Fink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy A. Fink, and Mr. John J. Laing, of Brooklyn. The Rev. Wil-liam Main Schall, D.D., will officiate. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will have as her maid of honor Miss Blanche K. Reynolds, and the best man will

CHAPTER XVI-(Continued)

A them hazarded the remotest guess as to the value of the gaunt rock they were staring at, and chance helped him to baffle further inquiry.

A trumpeter on board the Orient was blowing his lungs out to summon them to luncheon, when Captain Fitzroy put a final query.

"I can quite understand," he said to Robert, "that you have an affection for weird place."

"I should think so indeed." muttered the stout midshipman, glancing at Iris.

"But I am curious to know," continued the commander, "why you lay claim to the sland? You can hardly intend to return here.

He pointed to Robert's placard stuck on the rock.

Anstruther paused before he answered. He felt that Lord Ventnor's dark eyes were fixed on him. Everybody was more or less desirous to have this point cleared up. He looked the questioner squarely in the face. "In some parts of the world," he said, "there are sunken reefs, unknown, uncharted, on which many a vessel has been lost without any contributory fault on the part of her officers" "Undoubtedly.

"Well, Captain Fitzroy, when I was sta-tioned with my regiment in Hongkong I ancountered such a reef, and wreeked my life on it. At least, that is how it seemed to me then. Fortune threw me ashor here, after a long and bitter submergence You can hardly blame me if I cling to the tiny eneck of land that gave me salvation." "No," admitted the sallor. He knew there was something more in the allegory than the text revealed, but it was no busiess of his. "Moreover." continued Robert smilingly.

"you see I have a partner." "There cannot be the alightest doubt about the partner." was the prompt reply. Then every one laughed. Iris more than any, though Sir Arthur Deano's gayety was ed, and Lord Ventnor could taste the forced, and Lord Ventner could takte the acidity of his own smile. Later in the day the first lieutenant told his chief of Anstrather's voluntary state-ment concerning the court-martial. Captain Fitzroy was naturally pained by this un-pleasant revelation, but he took exactly the same view as that expressed by the first lieutenant in Robert's presence. Nevertheless he pondered the matter, and selzed an early opportunity of mentioning it to Lord Ventor. That distinguished nobleman was varily surprised to learn how Anstruther had cut the ground from how Allstruther has feet. "Yes," he said, in reply to the sailor's request for information. "I know all about it. It could not well be otherwise, neeing that next to Mrs. Costobell I was the prin-cipal witness against him."

"That must have been d-----d awk ward for you," was the unexpected com

"Indeed! Why ?" "Because rumor linked your 'name with that of the lady in a somewhat outspoken

WBY. You astonish me. Anstruther certainly made some stupid allegations during the trial; but I had no idea he was able to spread this malicious report subsequently." "I am not talking of Hongkong, my lord, but of Singapore, monthe later." Captain Fitzroy's tone was exceedingly Indeed, some people might deem it dry.

His lordship permitted himself the rare luxury of an angry scowl. "Rumor is a lying jade at the best," he maid curily. "You must remember, Captain Fitzroy, that I have uttered no word of scandal about Mr. Anstruther, and any doubts concerning his conduct can be set at rest by perusing the records of his case in the Adjutant-General's office at Hong-Kong." "Hum!" said the sailor, turning on his heel to enter the chartroom. This was no way to treat a real live lord, a personage I have no I have no

CRAFTER XVI-(Continued) NSTRUTHER was satisfied that none of them hazarded the remotest guess as the value of the gaunt rock they were aring at, and chance helped bim to baffie ward take of his services. It is in freedom on Rainbow Island than to be handed over to the authorities as an secance convict, which must be his im-mediate fate no matter what magnanimous view the Government of India might after-ward take of his services. Oddly enough, the barenet did not seek Mir Jan's answer was emphatic. He ok off his turban and placed it Anstruther's feet.

"Sahib," he said, "I am your dog. If, ome day, I am found worthy to he your lithful servant, then shall I know that faithful Allah has pardoned my transgression only billed a man because---" "Peace, Mir Jan. Let him rest.

"Why is he manded Iris. He told her. "Really," she said, "I must keep up my studies in Hindustani. It is quite too

And then, for the benefit of her father, she raitled off into a spirited account of her struggles with the algebraic x and the

she ratilied off into a spirited account of her struggles with the algebraic x and the Urdu compound verb. Sir Arthur Deans managed to repress a sigh. In spite of himself he could not help liking Anstruther. The man was magnetic, a hero, an ideal gentleman. No wonder his daughter was infatuated with him. Tet the future was dark and storm-tossed, full of sinister threats and com-plications. It is did not know the wretched circumstances which had come to pass since they parted, and which had changed the whole aspect of his life. How could he tell her? Why should it be his minerable lot to snatch the cup of happiness from her lips? In that noment of silent agony he wished he were dead, for death alone could remove the burden laid on him. Well, surely he might bask in the sunshine of her laughter for another day. No need to embilter her joyous heart until he was driven to it by dire necessity.

So he resolutely brunhed aside the wosbegone phantom of care, and entered into the abandon of the hour with a sent that delighted her. The dear girl imagined that Robert, her Robert, had made another Robert, her Robert, had made another speedy conquest, and Anstruther himself was much elated by the sudden change in Sir Arthur Deane's demeanor.

Sir Arthur Deane's demeanor. They behaved like school children on a plonic. They roared over Iris's troubles in the matter of divided skirts, too much divided to be at all pleasant. The ship-owner tasted some of her sago bread, and vowed it was excellent. They uncarthed two bottles of champagne, the last of the case, and promised each other a hearty toast at dinner.

Nothing would content Irls but that they should draw a farewell bucketful of water from the well and drench the pitcher plant with a torrential shower.

Robert carefully secured the pocketbooks, money and other effects found on their dead companions. The baronet, of course, knew all the principal officers of the Sirdar. He surveyed these mournful relics with sorrow-ful interest.

"The Sirdar was the crack ship of my feet, and Captain Ross was iny most trust-ed commander." he said. "You may well imagine, Mr. Anstruther, what a cruel blow it was to lose such a vessel, with all these people on board, and my only daughter among them. I wonder now that it did not kill me."

not kill me." She was a splendid sea boat, sir. Al-though disabled she fought gallantiy against the typhoon. Nothing short of a reef would break her up." "Ah, well," sighed the shipowner, "the few timbers you have shown me here are the remaining assets out of 5300,000." "Was she not insured?" inquired Robert. "No: that is, I have recently adopted a scheme of mutual self-insurance, and the

"No: Unat is, I have recently adopted a scheme of mutual self-insurance, and the loss falls pro rata on my other vessels." The baronet glanced covertly at Iris. The words conveyed little meaning to her. Indeed, she broke in with a laugh: "I am afraid I have heard you say, father dear, that some ships in the fleet mid you heat when they ran ashore."

paid you best when they ran ashore." "Yes, Iris. That often happened in the old days. It is different now. Moreover,

Oddly enough, the barenet did not seek

(CONTINUED TOMORROW)

Published Today

A Sheaf

fiction.

By John Galsworthy Under this title the author of "The Freelands," "The Dark Flower," etc., has gathered another group of his thoughtful, sympathetic and beautifulessays and sketches-fellows of those which in "The Inn of Tranquility" and "A Motley" have attracted to him readers as warmly attached as those of his

$1.50 net.

Financial Chapters of the War By Alexander Dana Noyes

This book, by the financial editor of The Evening Post, discusses in a manner free from technicalities financial events in the European warwhat actually happened on the world's financial markets when the war began; how the belligerent powers have raised their stupendous war loans; what the depreciation of exchange rates on their markets means; how far and why New York has displaced London as the financial center of the world; what will be the financial condition of Europe and America after the war.

$1.25 net.

Poe's Helen By Caroline Ticknor

A book devoted to the romance between Edgar Allan Poe and Mrs. Sarah Helen Whitman, their engagement, its breaking, etc .- in short, the whole Whitman episode in Poe's life. It includes Poe's loveletters, his poem to Helen, Mrs. Whitman's defense of Poe, letters from Malarme, the French translator of "the Raven," and a great deal of other contributory matter, much of it new.

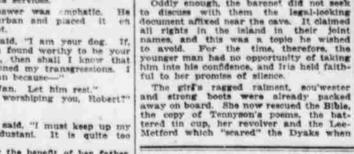

FRIENDS' CENTRAL

nearly onught Anntrother and M

Robert also gathered for her rn an ant of Dyak nais, belta and arms, uding Taung S'Al's parang and a s tan. There were her trophics, the sp toms of the campaign. itan.

ophna of the cannaign. His concluding act was to pack two of the empty oil tims with all the valuable lumps of auriferous quarts he could find where he shot the rubbish from the cave benanth the trees. On top of these he placed some antimony ore, and Mir Jan, wondering why the mahle wanted the stuf, carried the consignment to the wailing boat. Lieutenant Playdon, in command of the last party of sailors to quit the isintd, evidently expected Mir Jan to accompany them, but Anstruther explained that the man would await his return, some time in June or July.

them, but Ameruther explained that the man would await his retarn, some time is in June or July. Sir Arthur Deans found himself specu-lating on the cause of this gritraordiffary resolve, but steadfast to his policy of avoiding controversial matters, said noth-ing. A few words to the captain procured snough stores to keep the Mahommedan for six months at least, and while these were being landed the question was raised how best to dispose of the Dyaks. The commander wished to consult the convenience of his guests. "If we go a little out of our way and " land them in Borneo," he said, "they will be hanged without troubling you further if I take them to Singapore they will be tried on your evidence and sent to petial servitude. Which is it to be?" It was Iris who decided. (CONTINUED TOMORROW)

NANCY WYNNE.

Personals

As interesting engagement which has not been announced is that of Miss Edith Clethier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark-en Clothier, of Haverford, to Mr. William J. Sanderson, Jr., of Eastfield Hall, Wark-worth, Northumberland, England.

Mrs. J. Hutchinson Scott will hold the first macting of her supper club at the misvue-Stratford on Saturday evening. November 11. The supper club will be make the same committee as heretofore. Strates E. Coxe. Mr. Edward Croser, Mr. Carles E. Coxe. Mr. Edward Croser, Mr. M. S. Easby, Mr. John C. Grooms, Mr. Howard H. Henry, Dr. Robert G. Le Conte, Mr. J. Willis Martin, Mr. Richard Wahn Meins Mr. John C. Narris, Mr. Louis Rod-and Page and Dr. E. H. Siter.

<text><text><text><text> At the marriage of Miss Hasal Mills bink daughter of Mrs. Cyrus Abda Dolph, if the marriage of Mrs. Cyrus Abda Dolph, if the Parko Place, Fortland, Ore, and Mr. Switch Place, Fortland, Ore, and Mr. Switch Place, Fortland, Ore, and Mrs. Switch Place, Fortland, Ore, and Mills of the parko Place, Fortland, Ore, and Mills of the matron of honor will be in the state of the part of the intervention of honor will be in the date of the part of the the intervention of honor will be in the state of the part of the state in the state of the state of the state in the state of the first of the bridge of the state of the first of the state of the state of the first of the state of the state of the first of the state of the state of the first of the state of the state of the first of the state of t

At the request of the family of it that the plant, it, the entertainments it the entertainments its make

South Twentisth street, announce the en-gagement of their daughter, Miss Sadie Bashman, to Mr. Samuel C. Burstein, of he Mr. F. William Frederickson, of city. A reception will follow at the home of the bride, 2502 Ingersoli street, and after a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Laing will live BEVIASKY-ESCHLER

ATTRACTS ATTENTION HEVIASKY-ESCHLER The marriage of Miss Ray D. Eschler, daughter of Mrs. A. H. Eschler, of 515 South Ninth street, to Judge Bevlasky, of Charlentown, W. Va., took place today at the home of the bride. Mrs. H. Eschler acted as matron of honor and the best man was Mr. Harry Eschler. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Occar Levin. A breakfast at the Bellevue-Stratford fol-lowed the ceremony. Miss Eleanor Louise Duval to Be-The marriage of Miss Eleanor Louise Duval, daughter of Major John A. Duval, U. S. A., and Mrs. Duval, and Lieutenant Richard Henry Tebbs, U. S. M. C., will take place this evening in St. Mary's Memorial Church, Wayne, at 6 o'clock. The brids will be given in marriage by her father and will wear a white satin gown, which will be trimmed with exquisite lace and tuile. Her vell will be arranged with orange blossoms, and she will carry Bride roses and orchids. A cousin, Miss Sarah Floyd Wayne, will be maid of honor, and Mrs. James Elverson, Jr., another cousin, will be matron of honor. Little Miss Sarah Wood and Miss Marietta Robinson will be the flower girls.

of some political importance, too, such as the Special Envoy to Wang Hai. Evidently, Iris was no mean advocate. She had al-ready won for the "outcast" the suffrages of the entire ship's company. The girl and her father went back to the island with Robert. After taking thought, the latter decided to ask Mir Jan to remain in possession until he returned. There was not much risk of another Dyak invasion. The fate of Taung S'All's expedition would not encourage a fresh set of marauders, and the Mahommedan would be well armed

I have not told you the extent of my calamities. The Sirdar was lost on March 18, though I did not know it for certain until this morning. But on March 25 the Bahadur was sunk in the Mersey during

CHEMISTER AND ADDRESS

MARION RICKARDS AND HER "DADDY

Things to Know and Do

Word party-I am a word of six 1 tors. My whole means a "well-wishe My 2, 5 is not "out." My 6, 3, 5 means mar or noise. My 1, 3, 5 means a wing San. My 1, 4, 6 means did feed. My 6, 6 means dreadful. Can you guess my

"MAKE IT SHORT"

So many times, my dear children, the editor of a newspaper or somebody else says to me, "Make it short."

This means that I have to take my beautiful thoughts and squeeze them until they fit in a certain space in a newspaper.

This is called CONDENSING.

How often you hear, "He was a man of few words." "He is one of those quiet fellows who never says very much."

Why is it we ADMIRE some one who says little? Simply because it is one of the hardest things in the world to keep our MOUTHS SHUT!

Try not to repeat unless you repeat with greater effect. "Now, now, NOW is the time to save your country" is better than "Now is the time, this very instant is the time; yes, even NOW is the time to save your country."

I would rather write twice as much as I do, because it would be EASIER. I think I have told you before, but here it is again: Write as if you were writing a telegram and had to pay three cepts for each word. THEN you will learn to "make it short."

But make your meaning clear.

FARMER SMITH, Children's Editor. P. S .- Write me a SHORT note. Tell me what YOU think I look like.

BILLY BUMPUS SEES THE DOCTOR snors as loud as you say I do, it ought to wake ME up."

By Farmer Smith By Farmer Smith Whenever Mrs. Billy Bumpus wished to make her good husband curious she would keep still for a long time. She wouldn't meak to him or even look at him. One morning at breakfast she neither spoke to him nor looked at him, and by and by Billy began to get the fidgets. "What's the matter," he said. "Matter with what?" asked his wife. "The matter with you," said Billy. "I didn't know there was anything the matter with anything. In short, there is nothing the matter with nothing," said Mrs. Humpus. "Think you're smart! Don't you?" asked Billy. "The most terribis thing in the world is for a woman to even try to deceive her husband. What IS the matter?" Billy per-misted.

FINDELHEN-MCKEE One of the most attractive of the early fail weedings will take place this evening to 'clock in the Church of Our Saviour, Old Tork road, Jenkintown, when Miss Myr-tis Florence McKee, daughter of Mr. and Mr. Andrew K. McKee, of 113 Wynoste road, Jenkintown, will become the bride of Mr. John Orsen Findelsen, of Frankford. The correnory will be performed by the New John Groton, restor of the church, and he will be namined by the Rev. John Marte, of Frankford. The bride will be marter to marriage by her futher. The maid of hence will be Miss Emily husband. What 10 the maintenant of the second stated. "Bince you're so anxious to know." an-sward Mirs Goat. "I will tell you. I didn't get a wink of sleep last night and my cars are sore from listening to your should be arrested for disturbing the peace. "My cars burt-they are sore from that noise you make in your sleep."

orn said; "Fo

wake ME up." "Well, if this keeps up I shall be a wreck -just a wreck." Mra. Bumpus began to cry. "I shall see a doctor today and per-haps he will give me some morphine or chloroform or something dreadful that will put me to sleep so sound I won't hear your mores."

We wonder! Mary Wright, Spring City, Pa., paid a recent visit to "our" Willow Grove. Just listen to all the excitement Mary managed to find! "My cousin and myself, went on the amusements all by ourselves because mother and my aunt did not want to go with us. We went on the "Trip to the Clouds," the "Little Scenic," the "Mountains," the 'Coal Mine," the Trip Through Venice' and the "Whip." I almost forgot the 'Merry-Go-Round' and the moving pictures." From our own personal knowledge of Willow Grove we can truthfully say we do not think Mary "missed much." ores. "Morphine is very dangerous, I might "Morphine is very dangerous, I might take too much and nover wake up-never?" "Don't cry," said Billy. "Til go to a doc-tor and get some sucre powder. Do you suppose there is such a thing? Tou take a map while I go." Mrs. Bumpus stopped crying. Billy soon disappeared out the door on his way to see Doctor Goat.

FARMER SMITH.

I wish to become a member of your Rainhow Club. Please send me a beautiful Rainhow Button free. I agree to DO A LITTLE KINDNENS EACH AND EVERY DAY, SPREAD A LITTLE SUNSHINE ALL ALONG THE WAY.

Are accounterestantes and a second a fog, and three days later the Jemador turned turtle on the James and Mary shoal in the Hooghly. Happily, there were no lives lost in either of these cases." Even Iris was appalled by this list of computies. in possession until he returned. There was not much risk of another Dyak invasion. The fate of Taung S'All's expedition would not encourage a fresh set of marauders, and the Mahommedan would be well armed to meet unforeseen contingencies, while on his, Anstruther's, representations the Orient would land an abundance of stores. In any event, it was better for the native

Samuel Dunk ...

SLAUGH

AVIA CHIEF

A DESCRIPTION OF MARKEN

