

GERMAN SPIRIT SHATTERED, SAYS HAIG IN REPORT

Somme Battle Has Yielded British 26,735 Prisoners, Commander Says

LAUDS ARMY'S WORK

Tenants Thrown Back on Fourth Defense Line by British Blows

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Between July 1, the opening of the Somme battle, and the end of September, the British forces on that front took 26,735 prisoners, according to the latest report. Twenty-eight German divisions, and during twenty-nine of them to withdraw from the battle, exhausted or shattered. These results were announced in a summary of the Somme operations by Sir Douglas Haig today, given out by the official press bureau. The Germans have been thrown back on the fourth-line defense.

The British commander points out that the actual results of the battle must not be measured by the number of prisoners and positions taken, but by the effect upon the strength of the Germans in numbers, material and in morale. He emphasizes the heavy German losses in vain counter-attacks.

The text follows:

"At the end of September the situation, summarized, was as follows:

"Since the opening of the battle on July 1, we have taken 26,735 prisoners and have engaged thirty-eight German divisions, of which twenty-nine have been withdrawn in an exhausted or broken state.

"We hold a half-mile of upland south-west of the Somme, and occupy every height of importance, and so have the direct observation of the Germans east and north-east.

"The enemy has fallen back upon his fourth line behind the low ridges just west of the Haucourt-Tranque road.

"The importance of the three months' effort is not to be measured by the distance we advanced, or by the number of enemy trench lines taken, but must be looked for in the effect upon the enemy's strength in numbers, material and morale.

"The enemy used up his reserves in repeated costly and unsuccessful counter-attacks without causing our allies or ourselves to relax our steady and methodical pressure.

"In this action troops from every part of the British Empire and the British Islands were engaged. All behaved with the discipline and resolution of veterans.

"Our aircraft have shown in the highest degree the spirit of offensive. They have patrolled regularly far behind the lines and dropped bombs and incendiaries in the air with hostile machines, and many with enemy machines on the ground.

"For every enemy machine which succeeded in crossing over from it is safe to say that 100 British machines crossed the enemy's front.

"A German corporal's report described our advances as surprising bold, and their work had been conspicuous for skill and judgment as far as daring."

TEUTON ALLIES DRIVE FOE BACK ACROSS THE DANUBE

Stoeberbatchoff has crossed the Zlota Lipa River. The important railway city of Brzeskany, forty-six miles southeast of Lemberg, is threatened with envelopment. Its suburbs are under bombardment.

The British, on the other hand, from unofficial sources, and today's statement published by the Russian War Office makes no assertion of the crossing of the Zlota Lipa River.

ALL OF EAUCOURT L'ABBAYE NOW IN HANDS OF BRITISH; FRENCH MAKE NEW GAINS

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A violent battle is raging all along the Parisis battlefield in Humana, from the region west of the fortress of Turtukan, south of the Danube, to the Black Sea. Upon its outcome depends, in the opinion of military critics here, the success or failure of the whole Teuton Balkan campaign.

All reports from the Romanian front agree that the initiative is in the hands of the British. Yesterday the Berlin claims that up to late yesterday the attackers failed to pierce Mackensen's front in the Dobrudja. Interest centers chiefly upon the battle between the Romanians who have crossed to the southern bank of the Danube, south of Bucharest, and the Bulgarian forces protecting the Varna Railway. Latest reports from Teuton and Bulgarian sources indicate that the Romanians have been driven back across the river.

Bitter fighting is officially reported to be under way.

No official word has been received up to early today since the Berlin report that British monitors had destroyed the bridges over the Danube behind the Romanian lines. Military observers here conclude that the position of the crossing forces is precarious unless they are in sufficient strength to hold their hastily entrenched lines until reinforcements arrive.

The Russo-Romanian army in Dobrudja is attacking Mackensen's forces without pause in order to prevent reinforcements being sent to the Danube front.

PETROGRAD, Oct. 4.—Russian gunboats have sailed down the Danube River and are bombarding the Bulgarian left flank near Raszova, in Dobrudja. It was officially announced today.

The Russian warships are co-operating with the Russo-Romanian forces now attacking Field Marshal Mackensen's army south of the Constanza Railway. The battle is going on along the line extending from Raszova through Balakovo to Pervom.

SOFIA, Oct. 4.—Bulgarian forces have occupied the Roman town of Malakakastan near the Danube. It was officially announced today.

The War Office admitted at the same time that "considerable units" of Romanians crossed the Danube and invaded Bulgaria's eastern border. Bulgarian monitors destroyed a pontoon bridge.

The river was bridged by the enemy near Rishava.

Bulgarian artillery has stopped the enemy's offensive on the Besaul-Amsaces-Pervom line.

A previous official statement from the Bulgarian War Office said that Romanian troops were transported across the Danube in boats. Apparently after the first force was transported in this manner positions were thrown across the river and reinforcements passed into Bulgaria.

BRITISH MAKE IMPORTANT ADVANCE IN MACEDONIA; CRUSH BULGAR ATTACKS

LONDON, Oct. 4.—The British forces forming the right wing of the Allied army in Macedonia have scored an important advance during the last twenty-four hours, the War Office reported today. They captured part of the village of Jenikai, south of the Seres road, and broke up all subsequent Bulgarian counter-attacks.

Fresh Bulgarian troops were thrown into the battle late last night and since then a stubborn battle has been in progress. The statement reports "severe losses" suffered by the Bulgars.

ITALIANS CAPTURE LOFTY PEAKS IN TRENTINO; TAKE ARMS LEFT BY FLEEING FOE

ROME, Oct. 4.—Italian Alpine troops have gained a new and important foothold in the Trentino district, the War Office announced last night. Italian infantry in the Cimone-Brenta Valley climbed the steep slopes of the second peak of Col Brion (8442 feet high) under a heavy fire and captured the summit. The first peak is already in the hands of the Italians.

In the early days of the offensive the allied attacks were delivered on a front extending from a point north of the Albert-Bapaume highway to a point north of the Aisne. The British attack almost to the west extended the British attack almost to the Aisne Brook. The French reached south of Chaulnes and captured the village of Chilly.

A heavy rain that hindered operations for two days ceased falling yesterday noon and artillery began tuning up particularly south of the river.

The French forces north of the Somme scored another important success to the north of the Aisne. They captured the British in the drive against Bapaume, then captured an important German communication trench at Morval and in the St. Pierre Vaast wood, capturing 200 prisoners. The success was announced by the War Office today.

Orphan Boy Killed by Auto

HARRISBURG, Oct. 4.—Joseph Hosack, eleven years old, son of the Jenkins orphanage, was killed just night by an automobile driven by W. S. Flicker, of Newport, the police say. He was returning from school at Middletown, when struck.

His body was tossed 45 feet and the car went 125 feet before the brakes were fully applied, and then it skidded 40 feet. After coming to a stop, the car was turned over and a ordered Flicker arrested, and a warrant was immediately issued.

GLI ALPINI PRENDONO DUE ALTE CIME NELLA ZONA DELLE DOLOMITI

Anche Argirocastro, Dopo Santi Quaranta, E' Stat Occupata dalle Forze Italiane Operanti in Albania

MACKENSEN MINACCIATO

ROMA, 4 Ottobre.

Le truppe alpine italiane hanno conquistato due alte cime nella zona del Trentino, una delle quali s'alta 2785 metri 699 piedi, lasciando gli austriaci che nella loro fuga hanno lasciato nelle mani degli italiani una quantità di armi, di munizioni e di altro materiale da guerra.

Ecco il testo del rapporto del generale Codorno, pubblicato ieri sera dal Ministero della Guerra:

L'artista nemico ha bombardato

insistemente i villaggi della valle dell'Adige e dell'altopiano di Astago.

Arserio specialmente ha sofferto per questi bombardamenti.

Le nostre operazioni offensive nelle montagne del Trentino ci hanno dato nuovi successi. Alla testata della valle del Chemon le nostre truppe, dopo essere arrampicate su difficili precipizi

sotto il nostro fuoco del nemico, sono riuscite a conquistare il secondo picco del Cobreno a sud-est del primo, alto 2601 metri che era già in nostro possesso.

Nell'altra valle del Cordevole, nella sponda del lago corrente la nostra truppe hanno respinto decisamente un violento attacco di bombardieri nemici, infliggendo loro gravi perdite.

Nella Carnia, tra il Monte Gogliano

e Pizzo Collina, i nostri regari, aveva con una rapida impresa, ma nuova accerchiato un alto picco tenuto dagli austriaci, raggiungendo la sommità a 2766 metri. Il nemico fuggì lasciando nelle nostre mani armi, munizioni ed altro materiale da guerra.

Sulla fronte del Carso l'artiglieria nemica ha aumentato la sua attività, bombardando ancora a favore degli alleati.

Le nostre linee sulla sinistra del Valsone. Un aeroplano nemico ha lasciato cadere bombe su Agordo, ma senza causar danni.

Un telegramma da Atene dice che 2000 soldati italiani si sono portati alla guarnigione di Santi Quaranta, hanno proceduto alla liberazione di Argirocastro, importante cittadina dell'alto Epiro che era occupata da forze greche.

Le autorità militari greche ebbero poche ore di tempo per lasciare la città, ma le autorità civili greche poterono rimanere ai loro posti.

Mentre una grande battaglia e' impegnata tra le linee russe e le truppe della fronte della Galizia e su quella della Volotia, nella Penisola Balcanica, le operazioni militari vengono ancora a favore degli alleati.

"I heard a shriek; bolted into the kitchen; saw mother's dress afame; grabbed the Pyrene and with a few swift strokes saved her life"

Without Pyrene there would have been another story—one too horrible to relate. One that occurs all too often.

Next week a great fire prevention campaign begins. The last day of the campaign, October 9, is National Fire Prevention Day.

You can do at least this one thing—make your own home safe. Get Pyrene now. Have it in your home. Then observe the day by showing every member of your family the quick, safe and easy way to extinguish fires.

3076 New Fall Suits (None Ever Shown Before) Go on Sale Tomorrow

To mark the formal opening of a new season and a great season at Wanamaker & Brown's, Market at Sixth Street.

That every suit is new, that all are finest pure wool and that most of them are worsteds is very good news.

But the all-important fact concerning this unexpected offering is that they are to be sold at prices that will fill an already busy store to overflowing with buyers from everywhere within reach of Oak Hall.

500 Suits of Full $15.00 Value for $11.75

1500 Suits of Full $20.00 Value for $14.50

1000 Suits of Full $25.00 Value for $16.75

Every big manufacturer of clothing in the East knows Wanamaker & Brown to be the largest clothing clearing house for men and young men in Philadelphia or elsewhere.

Whenever the time arrives in the business of any of these manufacturers that they are overstocked, they look to Wanamaker & Brown for relief.

The manufacturers from whom we purchased these suits (for the solid consideration of quick cash) declare they over-reached themselves in buying new Winter woolens six months ago, when the mills urged them to lay in vast quantities of goods in order to be prepared for any contingency that might come. They have supplied their regular market, but still had these fine suits on their hands.

Now they have our money and we have their suits, which we are sending out in this great October Sale, in rapid-fire order, at the same ratio of saving to you that the manufacturers gave to us.
