

Photo by Lanza.

WHOLE DURN BYRNE FAMILY PLAYS BASEBALL AND PLAYS IT WELL
Here are eleven Philadelphia Byrnes, each of whom is or was a star performer in professional or amateur ranks. Right to left are Uncle Joe, Nephew Joe, Brother Ed, Brother Ignatius, Brother John, Brother Tom, Brother Harry, Brother Jim, Cousin Harry, Cousin John and Brother Bill. They are well known in Roxborough and South Philadelphia.

Photo by Int. Film Service.
NEW YORK FARMERS USE DRASTIC MEASURES IN MILK STRIKE
Showing how men who refuse to join the Dairymen's League get their milk poured on the ground near Brewster, N. Y.

BELGIAN AVIATOR TRIES HIS HAND AT "FRIGHTFULNESS"
He painted this Medusa head on the bow of his 'plane as a warning to foemen.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
FLORA REVALLES, RUSSIAN DANCER, STUDIES THE MOTION OF SNAKES TO GAIN IDEAS FOR HER NEW SERPENT DANCE

Photo from EVENING LEDGER—Universal Animated Weekly.
SHELL THAT BARELY MISSED A QUIET MARYLAND HOME
It was a wandering missile from the Indian Head testing grounds. The little girl of the house was found using it for a hobby horse.

Photo by Int. Film Service.

JUDGE AND MRS. ELBERT H. GARY SPREAD PEACE MESSAGE IN JAPAN
The head of the Steel Corporation and his wife appear here with Baron Shibusawa, at whose villa they were entertained.

MOUNDSMEN WHO WILL AGAIN TRY TO FLOAT A WORLD PENNANT OVER THE SACRED CODFISH

End to right are Bostonian pitchers with names familiar to Philadelphia, such as Foster, Jones, Shore, Ruth, Leonard, Gregg, Mays and Pennock.

SOLDIER GETS INSTANTANEOUS SNAPSHOT OF AERIAL SHELL EXPLODING
This bomb was dropped on an Allied artillery camp near Salonica. A cavalryman got a picture of it, but was not permitted to say what it did.