

HAVE YOU
REGISTERED?

ILLUSTRATED
Evening Ledger

SATURDAY
October 7, 1916

SOME PERSONS AND SCENES THAT ARE FIGURING PROMINENTLY IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS TODAY

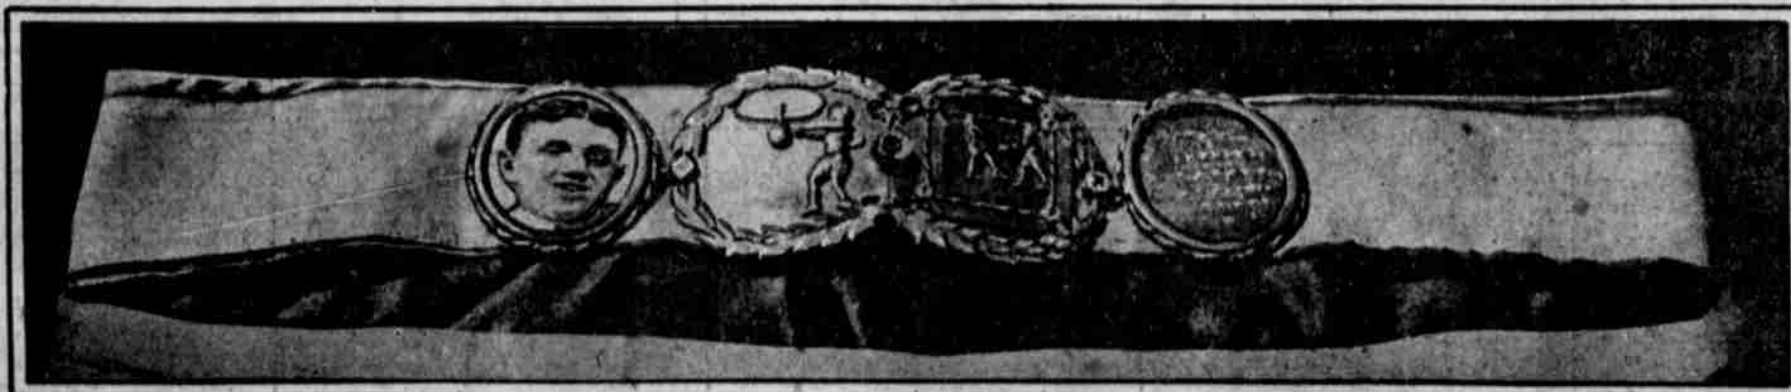

The Boston Red Sox, twice champions of the American League and winners of last year's World's Series with the Phillies, defend their title against the new National League pennant winners, Wilbert Robinson's Brooklyn trolley-dodgers, or Superbas, on Braves' Field, the home of the Boston National League Club, today.

Capt. Andrew Whitaker, Northeast High School.

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM "OFF WITH THE BALL"

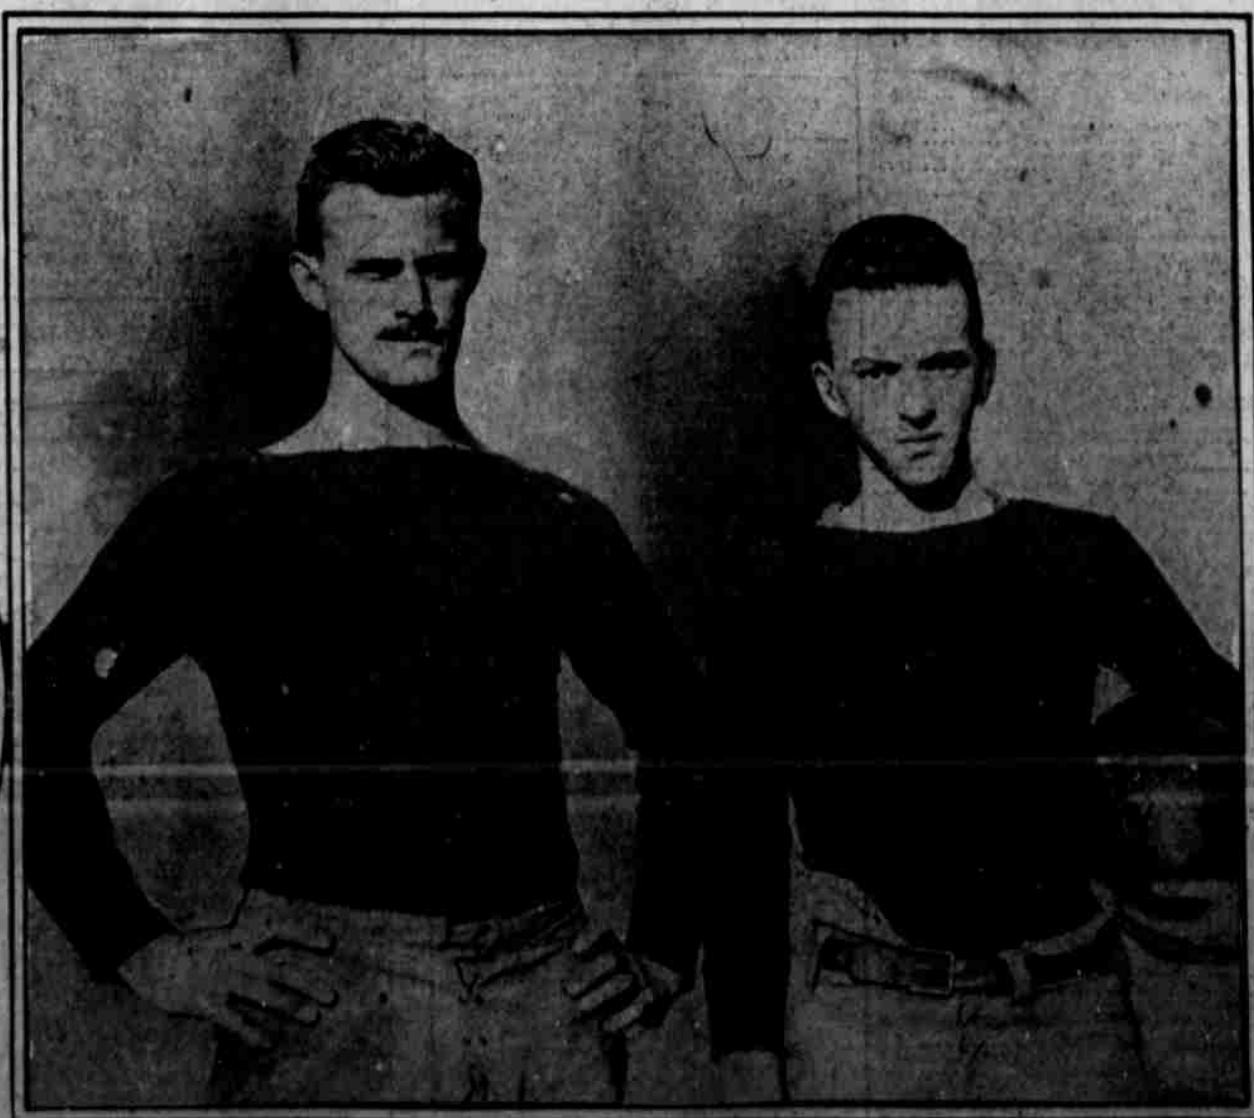

"JOHNNY" KILBANE'S DIAMOND-STUDED CHAMPIONSHIP BELT
If you have never seen a prizefighter's winning surcingle before, this will give you an idea of what it looks like

Capt. A. C. Farmakis, Central High School.

"Signs of the times."

COACH S. B. SUTTON AND CAPTAIN WILLIAMS, OF GERMANTOWN ACADEMY

Light, U. of P. quarterback today.