BARNES ELIMINATES "ALEC" SMITH, 8 AND 7

Whitemarsh Crack Reaches Third Round of Professional Golf Championship

NEW YORK, Oct 12.—Out of the eight movivors in the Professional Golfers' Association champiomship tournament on the links of the Silwaney Country Club, no fewer that four are native-bern. They are Yom Kerrigan, of the home club; Jack Dowling, of Scaradale; J. J. O'Brien, of Mansfield, and Walter Hagen, of Rochester, the Metropolitan open champion.

On the other hand, those redoubtable warriors, James M. Barnes, of Whitemarsh, and Jack Hutchinson, of Allegheny, came through asfely. Barnes is the tall Briton who has gathered in money in virtually trary tournament in which he has competed this season, while Hutchinson has the invisible record of finishing second in both the national and western open championships this year.

enviable record of finishing second in both the national and western open championships this year.

Barnes advanced at the expense of "Alec" Smith, a former national and Metropolitan champion. Smith could not seem to do anything right, and although Barnes was a trife slack himself, the Whitemarsh man had no trouble in getting a lead of five up at the end of the morning round. In the afternoon both men improved, Rarnes in particular, as he was out in 36. By that time the end was in sight, and it was all over after two more holes. Smith had his sultcase all packed, declaring that he was bound for French Lick Springs where he expects to join "Gil" Nicholis, who is taking a short vacation prior to another ampaign of indoor goif.

The closest match of the day brought together those two home-breds, Jack Dowling and Emmet French, of York. In the early lours these two brought off several brillian shots, French's best effort probably being at the first hele, where he almost holed in mashie shot for a two. This hole is 169 yards. They finished the morning cound all even and the match was not decided until the pair had gone to the home treen, Dowling finishing one up.
