

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.
MME. BERNHARDT AS SHE APPEARS TODAY
The French actress has returned to the United States for another farewell tour. The photograph, taken at her apartment in a New York hotel, gives no indication that she is suffering from the loss of her leg.

TWO TRAINLOADS SHOW THAT PHILADELPHIA IS STILL BUYING AUTOMOBILES
Ninety flat cars, loaded with Buick automobiles from the Flint, Mich., factories, have arrived at the Thirty-third and Walnut streets yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad. The procession from the yards to the Buick garage gave the appearance of an automobile invasion of the city.

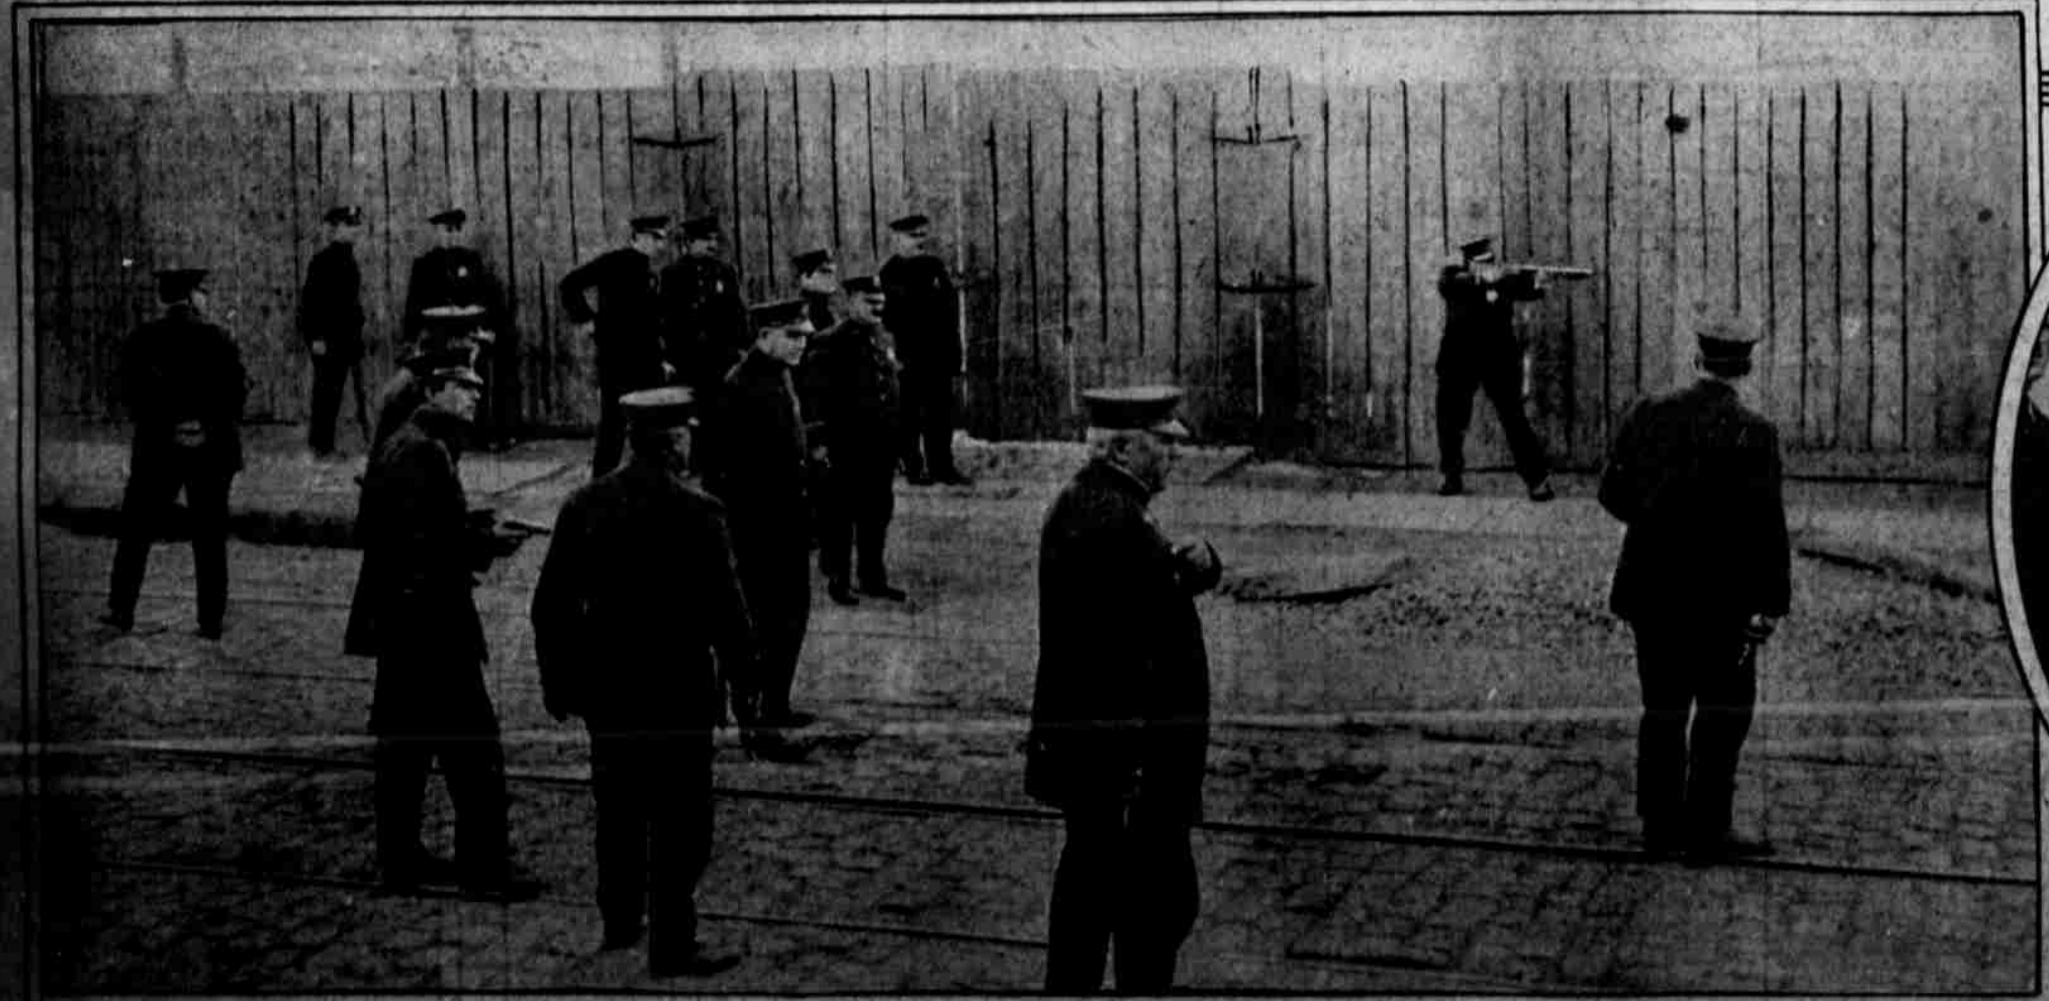

FRENCH WOMEN DO THEIR SHARE OF WAR'S WORK
Any one who has tried to lift unloaded cannon shells knows that it is no easy task. Nevertheless, these women of France are only a few of their sex who are engaged in the strenuous work of moving the steel missiles from place to place.

T. LARRY EYRE, PENROSE LIEUTENANT IN CHESTER COUNTY, IS AS "NIFTY" A DRESSER AS HE IS A POLITICAL BOSS

WHO WOULDN'T SMILE AFTER BEING FREED FROM TRENCHES! Photo by Central News
German soldiers captured at Ginchy were as happy as a crowd of school children, according to reports. The photograph would seem to prove the statements correct.

Copyright, International Film Service.
BAYONNE (N. J.) BECOMES AN ARMED CAMP IN FIGHT BETWEEN POLICE AND STRIKERS
Employees of the Standard Oil Company, when they attempted to break down a fence in order to get fire to the company's plant, were met by a squad of policemen armed with repeating rifles and automatic revolvers. Two of the bluecoats and several of the strikers were killed. One of the policemen is seen about to take a pot shot at a striker hiding behind a fence.

CHINESE WOMEN AS WILLIAM PENN'S GUESTS
Seven women, recently arrived for a tour of this country, were taken to the top of the City Hall tower, where they viewed the city.