

COLLEGE HEADS MEET
SECRETARY OF WAR TO PLAN MILITARY STUDY

First Move Made in Nation-wide Scheme, at Conference in Washington, for Army
Training

FAVOR WEST POINT IDEA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—The first step toward a national military training will be made next Tuesday when Secretary of War Baker and the presidents of all important colleges and universities of the United States will work out a system of military training for all institutions of learning.

Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Amherst, nearly all the universities, Columbia, Western Reserve, Virginia Military Institute, Cornell, University of California, and Vanderbilt are some of the universities to be represented.

Secretary Baker plans to take a modified West Point plan as the basis for discussion, and from this work out a course of instruction that will be acceptable.

The college presidents are to be guests of the Secretary of War at the Army and Navy Club, this being the first time that any body of college presidents has been invited to the club.

INCONSISTENCY IN CITY
WORK HOURS DEPLORED

Firemen's Long Labor and Clerk's Short Day Contrasted by Bureau of Research

A bulletin issued today by the Bureau of Municipal Research calls attention to the fact that though policemen and firemen work for an excessively long time, clerks and other city employees "enjoy an abnormally short day."

"Hours of work," says the bulletin, "play a very important part in people's lives; with many of us our own hours of work crowd out almost every other activity that life offers. With a few, the hours of work of others are the major concern. But everywhere people are giving thought to this matter and from many angles, from the standpoint of health, of safety, of recreation, of parenthood, of profits, of efficiency, of precedent and what not.

"In the city service there are undoubtedly many instances of excessively long hours of work. It is a reproach upon our citizens that public service should necessarily entail an abnormal life.

"If this were a matter of absolute necessity it could be perhaps accepted with more equanimity. But as it is, there is now sheer injustice worked upon these employees. Certain large classes of the city's employees, notably the clerical service, enjoy an abnormally short day—five and six hours for the days in the week and three hours on Saturday being considered a normal day's time. While it should of course be remembered that it is results and not mere hours that taxpayers want from their municipal servants, the fact is that in many of the routine positions in City Hall the amount of service given by an employee depends upon the amount of time he puts in on his job. Formal office hours therefore become very important indices of work accomplished.

"It is entirely thinkable that, taking the city and county as a whole, the cases of abnormally long days would be entirely offset by the excessively short ones and that injustice could be eliminated by a reorganization within the service rather than by a draft upon the taxpayers."

SUPFRAGISTS PLEDGE $25,000

Montgomery County Members Promise Aid for State Campaign

Supragists of Montgomery County have pledged themselves to obtain $25,000 of the $125,000 needed by the State organization to continue its work in the next year.

A resolution to this effect was unanimously adopted at the quarterly conference yesterday of the Woman Suffrage party of Montgomery County, at Wilgus Hall, Hatfield. One hundred women attended the meeting, which was headed over by Mrs.
A. M. Snyder, of Ardmore, and opened the autumn suffrage campaign.

Reports of the national convention at Atlantic City were read by Mrs. George A.
Dunning, chairman of the Woman Suffrage party of Philadelphia and member of the Pennsylvania National Executive Council; Mrs. Snyder, who was a county delegate, and Miss Margaret P. Saunders, of Glen-side. Mrs. John O. Miller and Dr. Eleanor M. Hiestand-Moore also spoke.

Fisherman Killed by a Shark WEST PALM BEACH, Oct. 12.—J. L.
Hanson died in a hospital at Fort Pierce last night as the result of being attacked by a shark at Sewells Point, near Palm Beach. He was assisting some fishermen in hauling in a fishing net, when a large shark was found entangled in the meshes. Hanson jumped into the net and attempted to take the monster alive. In the struggle which followed the shark seized Hanson's right leg and severely mangled it. The man died from the shock.

Twenty-third Policeman Quits Force WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Oct. 12.—One more policeman joined the walkout here when Leo Dougherty, driver of the police control refused to obey Mayor Kosok's order to ride on the trolley cars. This morning three who have quit the force. Policemen have quit are circulating a petition for signers in which Mayor Kosok is asked to reinstate them. The Mayor is also asked to rescind his order that policemen ride on the trolley cars.

Girl Ends Life, Hunter Finds Body MARIANOV CITY, Pa., Oct. 12.—"An old and disquieted with life," read a note found to the breast of Elizabeth Bronk, eighteen years old, of this city, whose body was found on the mountain today. Beside her was a vital that had contained poison.
A hunter and his two dogs found the body. The girl has been missing since last Thursday. Her father has been ill and his death is expected.

Bishop Green Stricken in St. Louis ST. LOUIS, Oct. 12.—While attending a session of the House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church late yesterday, Bishop David H. Green, of New York, was stricken with a severe attack of autohemorrhage. He now is confined to his room in a hotel. His condition is not serious.

the Presbytery of Philadelphia.

TWO YOUTHS GAMBLED FOR LOOT, THEN ROBBED

Confess to Burglaries of Numerous Saloons—Loser Got Larger Share

Two youths who, the police say, have robbed saloons in different parts of the city and who had an iron-clad agreement to give the largest part of their spoils to the one who lost at cards, which were always played before a burglary was committed, were arrested today by District Detectives Creedon, McCullough and Malone, of the Fifteenth and Vine streets station. Both boys confessed after being questioned.

The prisoners, Stanley Gilbert, sixteen years old, who gave his address as 716 Race street, and Alexander Leenaki, seventeen years old, who said he lived at 1550 Staub street, were arrested in a garage at 1524 Cuthbert street, after being trailed by the detectives. In their possession was found paraphernalia carried by burglars.
Gilbert was held in E-100 hall by Magistrate Collins for a further hearing next Wednesday in the Juvenile Court, while Leenaki was committed to the House of Detention.

COOK BRINGS BOY HERE

Ridley Park Lad Says Woman Promised to Find Him a Job

John Sheedy is home again with his adopted parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sheedy, 5 Swarthmore avenue, Ridley Park, and Maggie Charles, the cook in the Sheedy household, has been located. John is fourteen years old and Maggie is three times that age. Their disappearance was not an elopement, as had been feared for a time by the Sheedy family and the Ridley Park police. The pair came to Philadelphia last Saturday, John explains, because Maggie promised to get him a job in this city. They went to a house on East Thompson street, near Allegheny avenue, where they were found, and yesterday John's aunt took him home.

Norma Talmadge to Wed

STAMFORD, Conn., Oct. 12.—Norma Talmadge, motion picture actress, and Joseph M. Schenk have obtained a marriage license here. They were disappointed when told they would have to wait five days before they might wed. Schenk is general booking agent for Marcus Low. He is thirty-seven. Miss Talmadge is twenty-one.
She recently organized a producing company of her own, to which Mr. Schenk gave financial support.

ADOLPH SEGAL, FORMER FINANCIER, FREED FROM NORRISTOWN ASYLUM

Man Implicated in Big Deals and Ex-Owner of Hotel Majestic Released After Treatment

HAS BEEN NEAR DEATH

Adolph Segal, prominent a few years ago as a financier, whose mind was wrecked by the loss of more than $1,000,000, has been released from the State Hospital for the Insane at Norristown and is in Philadelphia visiting friends. Physicians say he will be allowed to remain at liberty as long as his mind continues to improve.
Authorities at the hospital say that Segal is merely "home on a visit," but it is customary to release such patients as he and give them into the care of friends as long as they are not "boisterous."

Segal has shown remarkable improvement since he entered the institution more than two years ago. Then he was believed to be in a dying condition. Intense worry over his financial affairs, which involved the suicide of Frank K. Hipple, president of the Real Estate Trust Company, to which Segal owed $5,000,000, so affected his mind that physicians said he never would recover. Two physicians pronounced him insane, and members of his family obtained papers from Magistrate Call committing him to the Norristown asylum. They took him on an automobile ride, which ended there.

It is believed that Segal is now penniless. At the time bankruptcy proceedings were brought against him his assets were $150 in personal property and a bank account of seventy-six cents, which were protected under the $300 exemption law.
Segal was sometimes referred to as the "financial wizard," or "the past master of the golden touch," and the hypnotic borrower. He rose from the position of a poor soap boiler to the builder of the Hotel Majestic, and the organizer and principal owner of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refinery.
When he reached the height of his career Frank K. Hipple committed suicide, revealing that Segal owed his company about $5,000,000, with no chance of being able to pay it. Most of the money was in the sugar refinery, which went bankrupt. Segal borrowed a half million dollars on the Majestic Hotel from the Pittsburgh Trust Company, and later the trust company foreclosed.

During the bankruptcy proceedings Segal was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital in a serious condition.

BARRATT STANDS FIRM ON LICENSE GRANTING

"Matter Treated Fairly," Says
Judge of Saloon at 60th St. and Lansdowne Ave.

Judge Barratt today defended the action of the License Court which granted permission to Michael J. Burke to open a saloon at Sixtieth street and Lansdowne avenue, despite a remonstrance signed by 600 residents of the neighborhood.

"We treated the matter fairly from all sides and decided to grant the license," Judge Barratt said. "The remonstrants may present another petition asking for the revocation of the license, but I am not inclined to think that any further consideration will be taken of the matter. The License Court usually does not reverse its decisions."

Protests against the opening of the saloon will be expressed next Sunday at a mass meeting in the Mary Simpson Memorial Church, Sixty-first and Jefferson streets.
Judges Barratt and Davis, it is said, will be assailed by the church people for grant-

IMPORTING OF GEMS
BY MAIL PERMITTED

Customs Division Order Ends Practice of Seizing Jewels and Exacting Penalty

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Precious stones may be imported into the United States through the mails, provided the countries from which the gems are sent have no objection to such an arrangement, according to an order issued today by the customs division of the Treasury Department.

Heretofore importation of precious stones by mail has not been permitted and the many pieces of mail containing stones received on this side since the outbreak of the European war have been seized by the customs officers and released only after payment of full duty and an added penalty.

LAZARO
"The Greatest Tenor since Rubini —a Greater than Gayarre!"

THE voice that swept whole countries into adoration. And you can hear it on Columbia Records before the great tenor makes his first appearance on the opera stage in this country.

In Lazaro, the world is listening to a voice that will be recalled in future generations as the great world tenor. Not only is there no voice of greater power, but there is no tenor with such range or control.

- 12-inch—$3.00 each
- 48762 AIDA—CELESTE AIDA. (Radiant Aida).
- 48761 LA BOHEME—CHE GELIDA MANINA. (How Cold Your Hands).
- 48747 L'AFRICANA—O PARADISO! (Oh Paradise on Earth).
- 48783—I PURITANI—A TE O CARA. (Often, Dearest).

Imagine a tenor voice that shades down to a whisper, to an exquisite, scarce-breathed shadow of sound—then is carried higher and yet higher; swelling, sustained, a mighty organ-note—until the very air seems ringing with its power.

Your dealer has Lazaro's records now. Ask him to play them—and hear a tenor who has no equal in the world.
