DR. THOMAS J. MORTON

iblican Organization Man and Select Councilman Dies

Iect Councilman Dies Dr. Thomas J. Morton, Select Council-man for the Twentieth Ward, for twenty-twe years Coroner's physician and one of the hest-known figures in Republican Or-anization politics, died yesterday at his home, 1453 North Tenth street, after an inness of nearly a year. Bronchills was the direct cause of death. For twenty years before he became a Select Councilman Doo-for Morton represented his ward in the keep sersonal friend and political follower of David H. Lane. Funeral arrangements ave not bleen completed, but it is under-blet that he will be buried on Monday. Doctor Morton leaves a widow and two young children, Lane Morton, tweive years old, and Anna Lins Morton, tweive years old

Charles K. Smith

Charles K. Smith Charles K. Smith, who for twenty years previous to 1851 represented the Twen-tieth Ward in Common Council, died yea-terday at his residence, 9201 German-town avenue, Chestinut Hill. For forty years he had been engaged in the oil busi-mass, trading under the name of Charles K. Smith & Co. He was seventy-one years old and death was caused by Bright's dis-sase. Mr. Snjith, who was a Republican, will be remembered as a persistent advocate in Council of business administration of city affairs. He is survived by a wildow and a son, the latter being Charles K. Smith, Jr.

Spencer Fullerton

Spencer Fullerton After a short illness, Spencer Fullerton died yesterday at the home of his niece, Mrs. James Rapplier, of 204 South Forty-second street. Although educated as a me-chanical engineer, he never followed his profession. Mr. Fullerton was a member of Lodge 16, F. and A. M. and a pastmaster of the Grand Lodge of New Jersey. Besides Mrs. James Reppiler, his nephew, Lieuten-ant Spencer Fullerton Weaver, of the Tweith New York Infantry, now on the Maxican border, survives him.
