

"MOVIE" USHER SNUFFS OUT THREE-YEAR-OLD FLAME OF LOVE
Above are Miss May Kerns and her mother on the way to court to accuse Harry Bonsall (below), a dental student, whose devotion finally got on the pretty usher's nerves and caused her to summon an unfeeling policeman.

PENN STATE TRAINS BUTTER EXPERTS
The State College makes a specialty of its dairy course. Four students, from left to right, are William Van Sant, William Paxton, Merrill Tait and Michael Bechtel. They are going to Massachusetts to show 'em how to make butter.

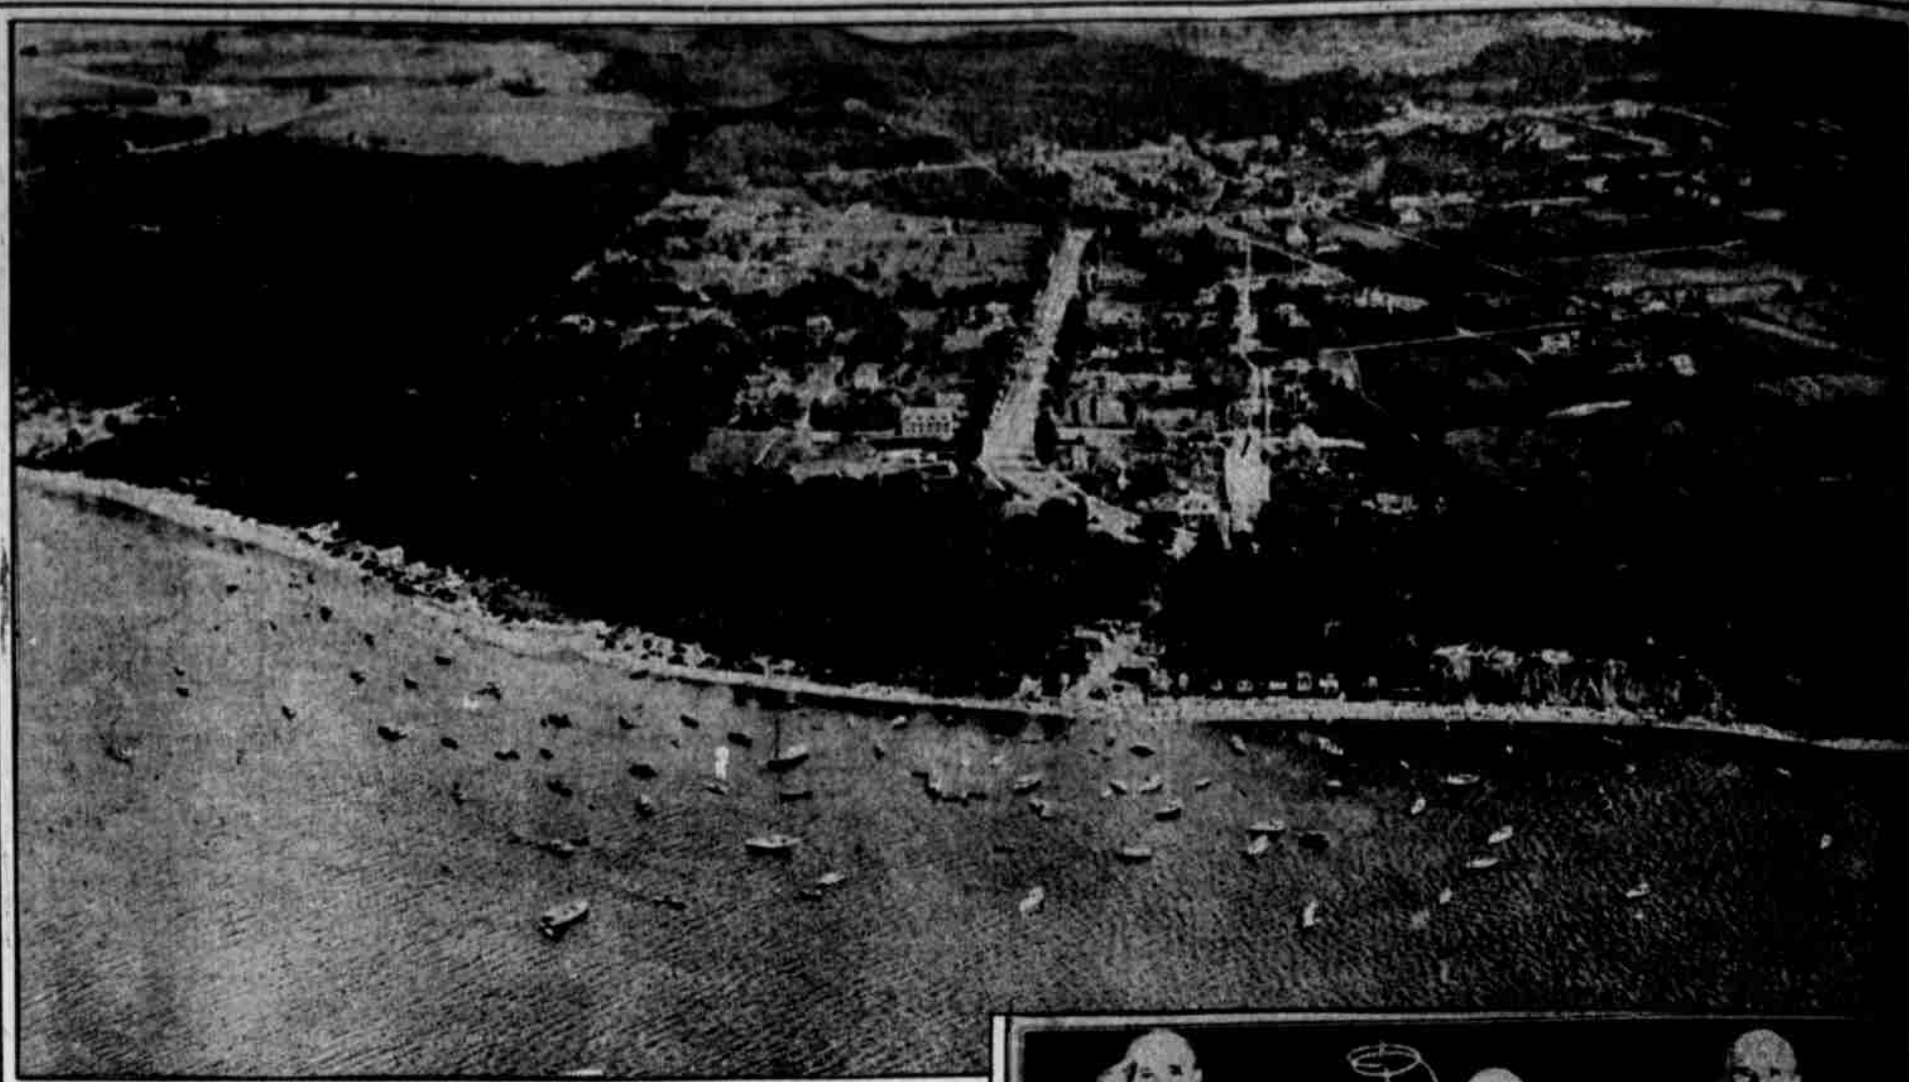

Photo by Evening Ledger Staff Photographer.
JERSEY SHORE OPPOSITE LEAGUE ISLAND SEEN FROM PLANE
Red Bank, N. J., looks like this when seen from a height of more than 1000 feet. The photograph is one of a series of remarkable aerial views which will appear on this page from time to time.

Copyright, International Film Service.
ITALY'S "FOOT CAVALRY" ENTERING CAPTURED CITY
The Bersaglieri are playing a prominent part in Italy's present advance. They are seen taking possession of a captured Austrian town.

JEWES OF PHILADELPHIA CELEBRATE SUCCOTH, "THE FEAST OF BOOTHS"
The photograph shows only one of the many vine-covered, fruit-filled booths to be found in the yards of the orthodox synagogues during the feast. The photograph was taken at Mickve Israel Synagogue, Broad and York streets. The insert shows Rabbi Eldenah, head of the congregation.

ILLUSTRATING A QUESTION WHICH MAY COME BEFORE
EPISCOPAL CONVENTION
A problem which may be discussed by the forty-fourth triennial in St. Louis is the ordination of deaf mutes, which is opposed by some churchmen. This series of pictures shows a test communicated by a clergyman in sign language.